MEMORIALIZING PUBLIC WORKS ADMINISTRATOR TO GIVE WORK TO UNEMPLOYED PERSONS BETWEEN AGES OF FORTY-FIVE AND SEVENTY YEARS

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HALUSKA, offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 27, 1937.

Whereas, Millions of dollars are being expended for public works and thousands of people have been given the opportunity to find employment and many thousands of people are very grateful to our Government for the enactment of our Public Works Program but unfortunately a ruling has been made that all people, who are now employed in public works and have no dependents are immediately being discharged from this work and it is well known that we have many hundreds of people between the ages of forty-five and seventy, who are able to work and are willing to work and through no fault of their own are unable to find work because industry fails to hire them at this age, find themselves badly affected by this ruling of the Public Works and it is further known that something must be done to take care of these people.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this Senate go on record to memorialize the Public Works Administrator that, if possible at all, these people that are being affected by this ruling be given some opportunity to make a living and that he work out a program of some kind, whereas, these people can be given at least part time employment under the Public Works Program.

The SPEAKER, (Roy E. Furman), in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. EPHRAIM Z. GALLAHER, offered the following prayer:

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of the sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful, but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in his law doth he meditate day and night. —Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. WEIDEMANN, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, when I became a member of the House of Representatives on the first day of January, 1935, I made one resolution to the effect that I would make no speeches. That resolution, I am sorry to say, has had to be broken, and I would like to ask you to direct the Sergeant-at-arms to come to the Bar of the House with the gentlemen responsible for the breaking of my resolution, in order that I may accuse them of committing a certain crime. I make that motion. I also ask that the Democratic whip of the House stand between the majority floor leader, Mr. Cohen, and the minority floor leader Mr. Turner, so that we won't have any trouble.

The SPEAKER. The Sergeant-at-arms is directed to bring the Majority Floor Leader, the Minority Floor Leader and the Whip of the House before the Bar of the House.

The Majority Floor Leader, the Minority Floor Leader, with the Whip standing between them are now in position before the Bar of the House. The Chair is ready to hear the charges preferred by the gentleman from Allegheny.

PRESENTATION OF SILVER SERVICES

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, whereas in the Session of 1935 and the Special Session of 1936, this House did convene on Monday night at nine o'clock and adjourned at any hour after two on Tuesday morning and whereas this present House has convened at nine o'clock on Monday night and has adjourned about 11:00 p. m. the same day, and whereas these two gentlemen are responsible for that condition, therefore, Mr. Speaker, I wish to present these tokens to the Minority Floor Leader, Mr. Turner, the Majority Floor Leader, Mr. Cohen, and also something for the Whip of the House. I thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

(Silver Coffee Servers were presented to Mr. Cohen and Mr. Turner. The symbol of his position was presented to Mr. Ominsky).

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now permit the accused gentlemen to submit their defense.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I cannot tell you at this time how much I appreciate the gift. In all of the time that I have been a member of the House I have never seen a presentation of this kind so graciously done and handled in this manner, with both the majority floor leader and the minority floor leader being brought up here together and receiving something as a token of remembrance from you members.

While it has, of course, been a lot of work, with you fellows over on the other side, having such an overwhelming majority, I cannot say that there has not been a lot of pleasure in it because of the great courtesy which I have continually received, not only from the Speaker and from the rostrum, but from the Majority Floor Leader, the Whip of the House and from you members on the other side of the House. I have nothing in my heart but the kindliest of feeling even for those who have at times raised a point of order on me. None of us know when he stands upon the floo rat the conclusion of a session, whether he shall have the opportunity of again being present as a member of the House and to have the associations which he cherishes through the years, in the memory of the men who have served with him.

I think we have tried to conceive of the House and our duties as members of the House, not only from a partisan standpoint, but first with the sound conviction that our first duty is as a member of the Legislature. I hope that I have been able to contribute something besides buckwheat cakes and sausage and scrapple to delight you men, and I hope that when my time of service is over here that I shall have contributed something to the operation of the Legislature and to the establishment of the prestige of this House and of the Legislature. I am of the firm and sound conviction that if we are to preserve our Democratic institutions, if we are to secure for them the very best government they can have, that we must maintain the integrity of the three component parts of our government as established by the Constitution. It is always a contest between the Executive, the Legislative and the Judicial branches and I think it was Alexander Hamilton in the Federalists Papers who said the minute one branch became dominant you were on the way to destroy Democracy. So, I say again if I have in any way contributed toward the success of the proceedings of this House, I shall feel satisfied.

May I again say to you, that not only do I express my deep thanks but I want to say that I do not know of anything that could have delighted me more because it is something in which my whole family can participate and something that will be enjoyed by every member of my family. You know coffee comes at the conclusion of a dinner. I like to have my coffee in my living room after my dinner, when I can sit back in my easy chair with a cigar, sip my coffee and puff on my cigar, and perhaps add a little something on top of the coffee to make it more mellow. So, as we go through the years, as I become older, as I pass from my youthful stage which I now enjoy, into the state of the aged, I know that there will come many an occasion when I can sit in my chair, in the bosom of my family, with my children and my wife about me, I can look upon this set and see shining in the silver the faces of the men with whom I have served in this House, and from the expression on those faces I will perhaps receive a little more stimulant from the smell of the coffee that comes from the pot, and the coffee will also be more stimulating because of the memory of you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair now calls upon the Majority Floor Leader to submit his defense to the charges which have been perferred against him.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, my colleague, Ellwood, previously in the session made my heart bleed. Now he is making my eyes weep tears. The sentiment he has expressed has placed me in a somewhat difficult situation because, as Ellwood usually does, he has aptly expressed th efeeling that is shared in common by the majority as well as the minority floor leader.

Mr. Speaker, I appreciated the opportunity of being of service to the members of the House and to the Commonwealth. I might say, that all of us here appreciate the fact, that we have been given the opportunity to sit in these Legislative halls with a serious duty imposed upon us. The associations that on makes here, while we are making them are possibly held lightly, but after the storm of the session is over and after we return to our homes there is a wish, there is a desire to get back, and even sometimes the hope that possibly some emergency may arise that will call us back, and that I dare say is because of the fact of the friendships which we build here. I assure the members of this House, all of you, that I will carry those friendships both in my memory and in my heart for all time. I thank you.

Mr. SPEAKER. The Chair now gives the Whip of the House an opportunity to defend himself, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I didn't think that I had to present a defense, because when the Sergeant-at-arms came down to my desk to bring me before the Bar of the House, the understanding was that the two gentlemen, the Minority Floor Leader and the Majority Floor Leader had to defend themselves, and I was to stay in the middle to prevent any breaking.

As usual I am now caught between the upper and the nether millstones in the House. As Whip of the House it has been my intention really not to be the whip but to be the mellowing force between the membership of the House especially between the Majority and the Minority Floor Leaders, because being much older than the ages of the two gentlemen combined, I felt it my duty to keep peace in the family wherever possible to make sure that the order of the business should be conducted by the Chair as well as by the membership in the best and most expeditious manner.

It was really a pleasure to have been of service to the membership of this House in what little capacity I was able to do. It was never my intention to speak out of turn, but to do the work as it should be done. The associations with the membership of this House were always pleasant, and if there has been nothing else accomplished by me during this session than that of having gained the friendship of some of the members of this House I will be satisfied.

I want to thank the membership of this House for the cooperation which has been given the leadership both of the majority and the minority parties, as well as the Chair. I want to say that this session was one of the most unusual I have attended, whether as a member of the body or not, because regardless of the principles we have had to defend on the floor of this House, when the work was done both the majority and the minority members felt certain they still maintained friendship between them. Therefore, this session, I am sure, will go down in history not only as a momentous session because the Democratic party is in the majority and is giving the people of Pennsylvania their just desserts, but also because this session, in spite of the possible bitterness as the result of the conflict between, the two parties, both the majority and the minority membership will leave this session as friendly as they came tc it. I thank you.

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I move that the explanations offered by the Minority Leader, the Majority Leader and the Whip of the House be accepted with the thanks of the House.

The motion was agreed to.

STATEMENT BY MR. HERBERT B. COHEN

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, in order to save the energy of the membership of the House and to obviate the necessity of having the membership turn the gifts that have been presented to Mr. Turner and me upside down, I wish to inform the House that the coffee sets are all sterling silver.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILLS Nos. 1360 and 1572

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 27, 1937.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed the following:

House Bill No. 1360, Printer's No. 874, entitled "An Act to amend sections two thousand six hundred and twenty-two and two thousand six hundred and twenty-six of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith' as amended extending the time within which appeals from auditors' reports may be taken."

House Bill No. 1572, Printer's No. 872, entitled "An Act to amend sections one eight eleven and thirteen of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1513) entitled 'An act regulating the construction equipment, maintenance operation and inspection of boilers granting certain authority to and imposing certain duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry providing penalties for violations of this act and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act' extending the provisions of said act to unfired pressure vessels."

GEORGE H. EARLE.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 1129

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 27, 1937.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1129, Printer's No. 971, entitled: "An Act for the protection of producers of farm produce providing for the licensing the bonding or holding collateral of and the regulation of certain dealers in farm produce as herein defined within this Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Agriculture providing for appeals and injunctions and prescribing penalties."

GEORGE H. EARLE.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 2039

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 26, 1937.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2039, Printer's No. 911, entitled: "An Act to amend section five of the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 599) entitled 'An act relating to motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions together with orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto on Sunday prohibiting motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions and orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection incidental thereto on Sunday during certain hours and also during other hours unless the electors of a municipality approve thereof regulating the employment of persons in conducting such exhibitions on Sunday providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws' providing for a referendum vote in certain municipalities in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and making persons filing petitions liable for the cost of printing ballots."

This bill would provide that the question of whether or not motion picture exhibitions shall be permitted on Sunday may be submitted to the electors of any municipality where motion pictures are not now so permitted, at the primary election in the year 1937. Under existing law, this question may be presented to the electors in any municipality not oftener than once in five years.

Following the enactment of the Act of July 2, 1935, P. L. 599, which this bill would amend, the question of whether or not Sunday motion pictures would be permitted was submitted to the electors of many of the municipalities of the Commonwealth. In some cases Sunday motion pictures were permitted; in some they were not. This bill would permit proponents of Sunday motion pictures to reopen the question within the five-year limitation in those municipalities which voted against the proposition, but would extend no similar permission to opponents of Sunday motion pictures in those municipalities which have already adopted the proposition.

The mere statement of the effect of this bill demonstrates its inequitable nature. The proponents and opponents of Sunday motion pictures should be placed on an equal plane, and neither group should be permitted to impose upon municipalities the burden of holding an election on this question unless the other group is afforded a similar advantage.

Furthermore, the constitutionality of the bill is decidedly in question under Artcile 111, section 7 of the Constitution, which prohibits the General Assembly from passing a local or special law regulating the affairs of cities, townships and boroughs. This bill might well be termed special legislation, in that it applies only to those municipalities which at the time of the primary election in 1937 have not voted to permit Sunday motion pictures. The bill would have no application to those municipalities which already have voted to permit such exhibitions.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

BILL AND VETO MESSAGE LAID ON TABLE

Mr. McELROY. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2039, together with the veto message from the Governor be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 2, page 4, line 3, by inserting after the word "writing" the words, "and shall be made only after competitive bidding The secretary of the board shall advertise once a week for two weeks in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the township for competitive bids"; also same page, by striking out in lines 10 and 11 the words "set aside in the budget" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appropriated"; also same page, line 12, by striking out the words "moneys in the budget" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "an appropriation"; also same page, line 13, by striking out the words "account in the budget" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appropriation"; also same page, by striking out in lines 14 to 19 inclusive the following: "But nothing herein contained shall prevent the making of contracts for governmental services for a period exceeding one year but any contracts so made shall be executory only for the amounts agreed to be paid for such services to be rendered in succeeding fiscal years"; also page 5, line 8, by striking out the light-faced bracket before the word "beginning"; also same line, by striking out the light-faced bracket after the word "January".

Amend section 3, page 8, by inserting after line 8 the following paragraph:

"In preparing the uniform forms for both budgets and annual reports the Committee shall give careful consideration to the fiscal needs and procedure of townships of the various population groups producing separate forms if necessary to meet the needs of townships of varying sizes In the preparation of forms for financial reports the same shall be so arranged that corresponding information required to be reported to the Department of Highways may be used for the information required to be furnished to the Department of Internal Affairs".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 1978.

A Supplement to the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" providing for certain additions to minimum annual salaries for members of the teaching staffs of schools in fourth class school districts and authorizing the suspension of this supplement in certain cases

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, by striking out in lines 21 to 24 inclusive the following: "Provided That none of the said increments for such teachers shall be required before the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight"; also page 3, line 2, by inserting after the figure (4) the following: "Provided That none of the said increments for the members of the teaching staffs of elementary or high schools in such districts shall be required before the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight".

Amend section 2, page 3, by striking out in lines 3 to 17 inclusive the following: "In addition to all payments which the Commonwealth is now by law required to make to school districts of the fourth class on account of the salaries of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of such school districts the Commonwealth shall pay for the fiscal year beginning the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven and for each fiscal year thereafter to each fourth class school district the following amounts On account of the minimum salaries of all members of the teaching staffs of all elementary schools an amount which together with the amount now required by law to be paid by the Commonwealth in addition to the amount now required by law to be paid by the school district will equal for each member of such staffs the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each school year"; also same page, by striking out in lines 18 and 19 the words and figures "of one thousand dollars ($1,000)"; also same page at the beginning of line 21, by striking out the word "elementary"; also page 4, by inserting after line 6 the following new section: "Section 3 All salary increments required by the provisions of this act are conditioned upon evidence of professional growth on the part of the teacher Any teacher failing or refusing to complete within each period of three years under her contract at least six semester hours of professional education approved by the county superintendent and in districts having a supervising principal jointly approved by the county superintendent and the supervising principal shall be denied further benefits of the said increments and the rate of her salary shall automatically revert to the minimum rate provided in this act unless the said teacher has a master's degree or the equivalent thereof".

Amend bill, page 4, line 7, by striking out after the word "Section" the figure "3" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "4"; also same page, line 10, by inserting after the word "stores" the words "theatre or theatres"; also same page, line 11, by inserting after the word "disposition" the words "including an appropriation for the purpose of administering this act"; also same page, line 17, by striking out after the word "Section" the figure "4" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know if this is House Bill No. 1978?

The SPEAKER. That is correct, Bill No. 1978, Printer's No. 1146.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, the Printer's number I have is 1040.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman does not have the proper copy of the bill. The last Printer's number is 1146.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if Printer's No. 1146 has Section 3 inserted by the Senate in it?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman, the bill does have Section 3 inserted by the Senate on page 4 of the bill.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill as it passed the House provided for increasing the minimum salaries of teachers in fourth class districts from eight hundred dollars a year to one thousand dollars a year. It also provided for an annual increment of fifty dollars a year for the grade teachers and one hundred dollars each year for high school teachers in the fourth class districts for a period of four years. Now, when this bill reached the Senate, the Senate inserted the following amendment:

"All salary increments required by the provisions of this act are conditioned upon evidence of professional growth on the part of the teacher Any teacher failing or refusing to complete within each period of three years under her contract at least six semester hours of professional education approved by the county superintendent and in districts having a supervising principal jointly approved by the county superintendent and the supervising principal shall be denied further benefits of the said increments and the rate of her salary shall automatically revert to the minimum rate provided in this act unless the said teacher has a master's degree or the equivalent thereof".

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment would require all teachers of the fourth class school districts who desired to obtain the benefits of the annual increment, to take additional training of six semester hours in any three year period. If they do not do that, they will not be entitled to receive the annual increment of fifty dollars a year, unless they possess a master's degree or the equivalent thereof.

I submit, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that this is an imposition on fourth class school districts. There can be no doubt in the mind of any of us that the fourth class school districts are the least able of all the school districts to provide the additional salaries needed for these teachers to take the additional course in education. There is no other school district in this Commonwealth on which this requirement is made. This amendment also provides that in the event the teachers fail to take this additional educational training, the salary automatically reverts to the minimum provided herein. Now, we have hundreds of teachers in fourth class school districts throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who have been teaching school for years. This section makes no exception of those teachers with their years of training. In order to receive an annual increase of fifty dollars a year they would be required to go to school. Furthermore, the bill does not provide for the dismissal or renewal of a teacher who does not take this additional training. The teacher could refuse or fail to take this additional training and still continue to teach. Under our tenure bill they are in there for life. This would in no way change or better the teaching staff in our Commonwealth. I submit to you that all of you who have been out in your districts are aware of the fact that we do have a teachers' tenure bill in Pennsylvania. This tenure bill protects married women in their teaching positions in the public schools of Pennsylvania, and I submit to you, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that this bill places a penalty on motherhood. If a married teacher is honorable enough in this modern day to be the mother of a family, she cannot take the additional course in education required by the provisions of this act. If she does not become the mother of a family, she will have the time to take the course of study prescribed by this act, and I say it is totally unfair to the married women who are teaching school to have this section inserted in this act. If this is an attempt on the part of any one to eliminate the married school teachers from the fourth class districts in Pennsylvania, let them come forward and tell us so that we may act intelligently and not by subterfuge. I believe the greatest sweatshop wages in Pennsylvania are paid in the fourth class school districts in Pennsylvania under the so-called liberal provisions of this bill but I ask, is it necessary that a teacher in order to receive twelve hundred dollars a year for teaching school in a little one room school house in the rural districts of Pennsylvania, that that teacher must possess a master's degree? The like of it was never heard before; it was never required in any of the other districts of Pennsylvania. I ask the members of the House who are not representatives of fourth class school districts to join me and other representatives of the fourth class districts in voting down concurrence in this amendment.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it seems to me this is a very reasonable amendment that has been inserted by the Senate. The fourth class teachers' salaries minimum goes up to one thousand dollars, but in getting those increments they would have to get six semester hours in each of three years. There is nothing unreasonable about that. In fact it could not be more reasonable. I, therefore, join with the lady from Lancaster, Mrs. Horting, in asking that the House concur in this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Amend section 5, page 3, by striking out before the word "This" the figure "5" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "10".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

CONSTITUTIONAL POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a Constitutional point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his Constitutional point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following Constitutional point of order:

In the House of Representatives.
Wednesday, May 27. 1937.

We, the undersigned members of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, do hereby protest and object to the consideration by this House of House Bill No. 904, as amended by the Senate, hereby raising the question that said bill as amended by the Senate, violates Section 1 of Article III, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"Section 1, No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so altered or amended, on its passage through either House, as to change its original purpose."

(Signed) HENRY I. WILSON, Jefferson
G. EDGAR KLINE, Schuylkill
DAVID R. PERRY, Blair
RAYMOND C. WEBSTER, Chester
MARSHALL D. STRODE, Chester
AMOS M. LEISEY, Chester
LAMBERT CADWALADER, Montgomery
IVAN C. WATKINS, Schuylkill

On the question,

Will the House sustain the Constitutional point of order?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 904, Printer's No. 1150, which is now before the House for concurrence, and upon which a constitutional question has been raised, as originally introduced in the title states "Prohibiting municipal policemen from being employed or serving as industrial police and requiring their dismissal for so doing." The bill as amended in the Senate I think has just one word of the original bill. That word is the word "that" in Section 1. The bill as it originally appeared in the House was a bill of about two pages in length. It is now a bill of ten pages in length. The bill now provides in the title, "relating to peace officers, providing for the qualification and the appointment of deputy sheriffs, regulating the manner of their selection and compensation, regulating the source of compensation for other peace officers, declaring void certain contracts inconsistent with the provisions thereof, providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts."

In other words, the bill as it originally started out was a bill relating to municipal policemen. The bill as it now is relates to deputy sheriffs, so that there can be no question in mind that the entire purpose of the bill was changed in contradiction of the express provisions of the Constitution of Pennsylvania that no bill shall be altered during its course through either House so as to change its original purpose.

Now, this bill is not only unconstitutional, but it seems to me should merit your disapproval because it says this—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is speaking on other parts of the bill. The gentleman is not talking on the constitutionality of the bill.

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is the constitutionality of the measure. The Chair feels that the gentleman is giving his reasons why he thinks the bill is not constitutional. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, section 1 of the act, page 2, as it started from the House says that "no person employed by any county, city, borough, town or township as a policeman or member of the police department or police board," and that amendmnet now says "or as a deputy sheriff shall during the continuance of such employment be employed by any person, copartnership, association or corporation in the capacity of industrial police" and so forth.

Now, the bill says "The sheriff shall from time to time prepare a list of the names of all persons who have applied for appointment as deputy sheriff and who meet the qualifications prescribed in section 1 of this act. Such lists shall be posted in a public place for a period of not less than ten days, and thereafter shall be filed in the office of the Prothonotary. No deputies shall be appointed by the sheriff whose names do not appear on said list." Then it goes on to provide, I think, that a picture of the deputy sheriff and so forth must be filed in the office of the prothonotary. So that while the act, as the gentleman from Beaver has originally conceived it, was to prohibit the employment of policemen and deputy sheriffs as members of the industrial police, the bill as it now reads has a provision as to how the sheriff shall appoint his deputies. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I think there can be no doubt that not only has the title been entirely changed as to its purpose, but that the bill in is general tenor has been entirely changed and it is therefore unconstitutional.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am very certain that with the number of men in the Senate who are learned in the law, they would not send this bill to the House amended in this or any other form for the purpose of deception. I am certain that this bill does come within the scope of the Constitution or it would never have come from the Senate, and it is not, in my opinion, our prerogative to declare something unconstitutional before it really exists. Now, with respect to the different sections of the bill, and the one objected to by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, this bill only provides the type of men and the manner of their employment that shall be employed as deputy sheriffs. As we all know in this State of Pennsylvania, the same as many other states in the Union, it has been the practice to employ men who were non-residents, men who were rioters, men who were dynamiters, men who were corruptionists and theives, and the sheriffs of our Commonwealth were the men who had to stand the objections to that sort of thing. As I understand this bill there is nothing to it except that we want to improve the personnel of the deputy sheriffs throughout this Commonwealth, and I am sure that the people of this Commonwealth will not suffer at the hands of imported rioters as they have in the past. These men must be taken from the community where they are known, where they have a reputation, where they have character and courage and all that sort of thing, and this bill to my mind, insofar as the constitutionality is concerned, there is time in the future for those who are learned in the law to have the duty and the function and the ability to determine the constitutionality of it. I will, therefore, ask the members of this House to non-concur in the contention that this bill is unconstitutional.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I am amazed that a member of this House should arise and state that there are greater legal brains in the Senate than there are in the House. I think from the calibre of some of the legislation that we have seen here there is grave doubt as to that statement. But whether the legal brains are in the Senate or in the House is not the issue here. I realize that there are sometimes questions raised by us as to the constitutionality of bills which might confuse some of the men who are not trained in the law, but I think that this bill, any one can see without too much squinting or without great experience in the law that it is unconstitutional. Certainly a bill that provides for prohibiting municipal policemen from serving as industrial police and requiring their dismissal for so doing and providing penalties, is an entirely different measure from a bill relating to peace officers, providing for the qualification and appointment of deputy sheriffs. This bill deals entirely with deputy sheriffs, if you will read the bill, and it provides for the appointment of deputy sheriffs by the sheriff.

Now a municipal policeman may be a county policeman, as I believe there are county police in the County of Allegheny, or there may be in a borough or township or city a policeman, but a deputy sheriff is one appointed by the sheriff in the county. The sheriff of the county has no power to appoint a policeman in any municipality. Policemen in municipalities are usually appointed by the mayor of the city or by council in boroughs or by township commissioners in townships of the first class and so forth. Therefore, municipal police and deputy sheriffs are two entirely separate and distinct classes of people, and to say that a bill that starts out for the purpose of restricting the use of municipal policemen as industrial police can be turned into a bill providing for the appointment of deputy sheriffs seems to me must clearly to any man who stops to think and who will read the bill show that it is unconstitutional.

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the constitutional point of order?

AMENDED SENATE BILL NON-CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has non-concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 771.

An Act relating to non-profit cooperative corporations organized to engage in rural electrification providing for the organization consolidation and dissolution of such corporations prescribing the qualification for membership therein conferring certain rights powers duties and immunities upon them and their officers and members prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers providing for the inclusion of certain existing cooperative or non-profit corporations and associations within the provisions of this act conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State departments commissions and officers fixing fees conferring the right of eminent domain prohibiting the use of certain terms in the corporate names of other corporations exempting such corporations from excise taxes imposing on them a license fee and exempting such corporations from the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and from the provisions of the Securities Act

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2379, Printer's No. 1141, was defeated on final passage on Wednesday, May 26, 1937, be reconsidered.

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Shugarts vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask how the gentleman from York voted on this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman stated that he voted with the majority.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, with the majority in the negative.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as I recall it, this is the bill which reduces the tax on distilleries from ten mills to five mills, and which was defeated yesterday, is that right?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, as the gentleman from Delaware has indicated, the bill that was defeated on third reading yesterday was to reduce the tax on the distilleries from ten mills to five mills, and I find myself in a position whereby I am now forced to agree with the vote that the gentleman from Delaware had on this bill. The gentleman from Delaware voted in the affirmative. I also had certain facts brought to my attention. The House remembers that we had in this House, House Bill No. 1736 which would have removed what I consider a very inequitable exemption granted to certain corporate structures in Pennsylvania, and that Bill No. 1736 was intended to remove inequitable exemption. This bill is for the purpose of removing an inequitable increase in taxation that is not justifiable under the circumstances, and I ask the membership to support my motion.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN THE CASE OF
JOHN MALEY vs. SAMUEL P. BOYER
FROM THE COUNTY OF CAMBRIA

To the Hon. Roy E. Furman, Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Your Committee to whom was referred the Contested Case of Maley vs. Boyer from the County of Cambria respectively reports:

That a certified copy of the record of the Court Below in this proceeding was carefully reviewed, and after a Public Hearing in which arguments and briefs were submitted by learned counsel for both parties in this Contest, this Committee reports the following findings of facts and conclusions of law:

That there were many general allegations and averments as to fraud in the Petition filed in this contest in the Court Below, but no specific averments of proof, with one exception, were alleged or submitted; and no effort was made by the contestant, John Maley, in this proceeding to bring into Court disputed ballot boxes about which he complains. The following facts are of extreme import to your Committee:

Counsel for Samuel P. Boyer, Incumbent, and John Maley, contestant agreed in the proceedings in the Court Below that eighty-nine (89) specific ballots had been altered, and the Court accordingly changed these ballots to conform to the intent of the voters. This was disclosed by the testimony of Leon Webster Melcher, the handwriting expert in the proceedings in the Court Below, yet curious enough, counsel for the contestant in this contest before your Committee now assumes a different position and states that over two hundred (200) ballots were altered. With this statement and conclusion of counsel for the contestant, we cannot agree. Such averments should have been definitely stated in the proceeding in he Court below, and your Committee concludes that the allegations of counsel at this late date are entirely without foundation or merit. As a result of the proceedings in the Court below, the Court did on January 22, 1937, make the following Order:

"By the Court
McCann, P. J. P.;

And now January 22, 1937, after considering the testimony, the Court is of the opinion that there was prima facie evidence of fraud shown in the counting of ninety-three votes at the election; this, however, not being enough to change the result of the election, the contest is dismissed at the costs of the Commonwealth, as provided for by the Act of Assembly."

McKENRICH, J.
GREER, J.
McCANN, P. J., Concurs.

Your Commitee believes that the action of the Court below was proper, and that the principle involved in this proceeding was decided by the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth in the case of Sheriff Gollmar's Election Contest, 316 Pa. 560, in which case the Supreme Court held:

"We regard the averments deficient in particularly within the opinion of Justice Agnew, Jr., as stated in the election Cases, 65 Pa. 20, where the general rule of certainty to a common intent was applied .....

"While pleading an election contest should not be governed by such strictness as to protect fraud, yet neither should the acts of sworn officers chosen by the people be attacked without adequate and well-defined cause.

"Pleadings before us would seem only an effort to place the situation in such a light as to justify a voyage of exploration into a large number of ballot boxes in the hope of ultimate discovery. Such is not the province of a contest. It may be accomplished under the act of April 23, 1927, P. L. 260 (25 P. S. Section 2221-2226) but when a contest is once instituted it must rest on something more than general allegations, inferences or innuendos."

The foregoing opinion seems to clearly govern this proceeding and this Committee is hesitant to overrule the opinion of the able jurists in the Court below.

Your Committee therefore concludes that according to the returns of the election held on November 3, 1936, for one of the Offices of Representative for the County of Cambria, Samuel P. Boyer received eight thousand one hundred eighty-six (8,186) votes, and John Maley received, as appears by the election held on November 3, 1936, eight thousand one hundred eleven (8,111) votes.

Samuel P. Boyer having received the majority of seventy-five (75) votes is entitled to the Certificate of Election.

In accordance with these findings, the Committee submits the following resolutions and recommends their passage:

Resolved that John Maley was not elected a Member to the House of Representatives and is not entitled to a seat therein;

Resolved that Samuel P. Boyer was duly elected a Representative to the House of Representatives from Cambria County and is entitled to retain the seat which he now holds.

MEMBERS OF HOUSE EMPLOYED BY WORKS PROGRESS ADMINISTRATION

The SPEAKER laid before the House an opinion of the Attorney General addressed to Chief Clerk Gallagher, which was read by the clerk as follows:

FORMAL OPINION No. 218.

Honorable W. P. Gallagher, Chief Clerk,
House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

SIR:

We have your request to be advised whether or not members of the House of Representatives who now hold supervisory positions wtih the Works Progress Administration, such as skilled foremen and labor foremen, may continue on the Works Progress Administration while serving in the General Assembly. You inform us that these members will have a leave of absence from the Works Progress Administration, and will resume their employment with that Administration when the regular session of the legislature adjourns sine die. You desire to be informed specifically whether or not these positions are incompatible.

That part of the Constitution of Pennsylvania that is pertinent to your inquiry reads, in part, as follows:

Article II, Section 6:

"No Senator or Representatives shall, during the time for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office under this Commonwealth, and no member of Congress or other person holding any office (except of attorney-at-law or in the militia) under the United States or this Commonwealth shall be a member of either House during his continuance in office."

Article XII. Section 2 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania prohibits the holding of any office by a member of Congress or person holding a position of trust or profit under the United States.

The Act of May 15, 1874, P. L. 186, Section 15 (65 PS Sec. 16) provides as follows:

"No Senator or Representatives shall during the time for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office under this Commonwealth; and no member of Congress or other person holding any office, except of attorney-at-law or in the militia, under the United States or this Commonwealth, shall be a member of either House during his continuance in office. They shall receive no other compensation, fees or perquisites of office for their services from any source, nor hold any other office of profit under the United States, this State or any other state."

Whether a member of the legislature may serve as a skilled foreman or a labor foreman on a leave of absence status, while he is serving in the General Assembly, depends entirely on the question of whether his position as skilled foreman or labor foreman is an office. The word "office" connotes a function charged with some degree of executive responsibility involving the exercise of descretion in the performance of the holder's duties.

There is a well recognized difference between an officer and a mere clerk or employe. Judge Henderson speaking for the Superior Court in Richie v. Philadelphia, 37 Super. Ct. 190 (1908) said, in part, as follows:

"* * * It is no doubt true that there are many persons engaged in the public service in subordinate positions exercising functions of such an inferior character that they could not be properly considered public officers within the meaning of the Constitution; this much is indicated in Com. v. Black, 201 Pa. 433, and Houseman v. Com., 100 Pa. 222, in the latter of which the court expressed the opinion that policemen, firemen, watchmen and superintendents of public property under the orders of the municipal department were subordinate ministerial agents or employes, at he most, petty officers not intended to be embraced in the constitutional provision, and therefore subject to appointment and removal according to legislative regulation. Where, however, the officer exercises important public duties and has delegated to him some of the functions of government and his office is for a fixed term and the powers, duties and emoluments become vested in a successor when the office becomes vacant such an official may properly be called a public officer. The powers and duties attached to the position manifest its character. * * *"

In the case under consideration we have been informed by those in charge of the Works Progress Administration that foremen, including labor foremen and skilled foremen, are carried on the records as employes payable on a per diem basis, and not entitled to vacations. It is true that by virtue of their positions as foremen they have certain duties to perform, but in the performance of these duties they perform them in the capacity of employes only, inasmuch as they do not exercise a discretion in the performance of these duties. In these positions tenure is not defined, fixed and certain, but instead it arises out of a mere contract of employment.

This subject matter has been discussed and defined in the following opinions of the Department of Justice: Opinion of Attorney General Carson, rendered July 31, 1902, 12 District Reports 587; Opinion of Attorney General Bell, rendered December 13, 1911, Official Opinions of the Attorney General 1911-1912, page 195, and Opinion of Deputy Attorney General Collins, renedered May 17, 1917, 20 Dauphin County Reporter 161.

It is an established fact that members of the Legislature are appointed to various positions which do not arise to the dignity of civil officers. This has been from time immemorial. See Commonwealth ex rel. v. Binns, 17 S. & R. 219.

Concurring in the views expressed in the opinions above quoted, we are of the opinion therefore, and you are advised, that members of the House of Representatives who now hold supervisory positions with the Works Progress Administration, such as skilled foremen and labor foremen, may secure a leave of absence from the Works Progress Administration, and may resume their employment with the Works Progress Administration when the Legislature is not in session, these positions not being incompatible

Very truly yours,

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.
SIGNED: Charles J. Margiotti,
Attorney General.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which all House Bills on first reading were dropped from the calendar be reconsidered.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, vote on the motion?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky, vote on the motion?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, aside from the purpose of re-instating this bill, what is the purpose of re-instating it.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. None whatsoever, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as this is a first reading bill, it is apparent that the bill cannot pass at this time, therefore why re-instate it?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that a date for final adjournment has been set by the House or Senate, at least a resolution of adjournment has not yet been adopted.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, then why drop the first reading bills?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Delaware, I would say we are dropping the first reading bills in order to save wear and tear on the printer.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, wouldn't dropping this bill save more wear and tear?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. The gentleman is still right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this bill smells like another ripper, and therefore as we have dropped the bills on the first reading calendar under agreement, it seems to me that the gentleman from York should not now come back on second thought. True it is I think that a woman is entitled to two guesses, but I never suspected the gentleman from York of belonging to the female of the species.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 792, entitled:

An Act providing for the inspection of weights and measures by the Department of Public Safety of cities of the first class and by its officers and agents as part of its police affairs, and abolishing the office of inspectors of weights and measures in counties of the first class transferring standard tests of weights and measures from such counties to such cities conferring powers and imposing duties on such departments of cities of the first class its officers and providing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2425, (Senate Bill No. 1270), entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and three of the act approved the eighteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (Pamphlet Laws thirty-two) entitled "An act requiring records of deeds to prepare and keep in their respective offices general direct and ad sectum indexes of deeds and mortgages recorded therein prescribing the duty of said recorders and declaring that the entries in said general indexes shall be notice to all persons" by further regulating the preparation and keeping of indexes of deeds and mortgages by recorders of deeds and prescribing the effect thereof

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2194, (Senate Bill No. 830), entitled:

An Act authorizing political subdivisions to provide for the issue and sale during any fiscal year of revenue bills which shall be negotiable and usable for the payment of taxes due for said year

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

The SPEAKER (Roy E. Fuman) in the Chair.

BILLS DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that all House Bills on the second reading calendar, with the exception of House Bill No. 2037, Printer's No. 1167, on page 9 be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I agreed to the dropping of first and second reading bills, and there was one of my bills on second reading, on the understanding they were all going to be dropped. Now, having had a second thought on one bill, the Philadelphia ripper bill, is the gentleman going to have a second thought on these second reading bills after I have agreed to have my own dropped?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might say to the gentleman from Delaware, if the Chair would turn over the gavel to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McDevitt, it would not make any difference whether I had a second thought or not.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I might say that I agreed to the dropping of these bills, including this one of my own because it was my understanding that there was not going to be enough legislative time to get them through. I can't seem to find the bill, so I guess I will have to go along. Mr. Speaker, it looks as if they have already dropped it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL PASSED OVER

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Melchiorre.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman inform the House if this bill does not apply to the City of Philadelphia alone?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, to which bill does the gentleman refer?

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I refer to the bill at the top of page 21, Senate Bill No. 856, House Bill No. 2501, Printer's No. 672, calendar No. 45.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, I wish to inform him that this is Senator McCreesh's bill, and that he would have to go to the Senate to interrogate the Senator.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Melchiorre, is chairman of the Philadelphia delegation in the House?

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that Senate Bill No. 856 is a bill that will amend an act which was repealed by the Election Code which was passed by this House and the Senate a couple days ago, and therefore will no longer be in effect when the Governor affixes his signature thereto, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the Election Code has not as yet been signed and therefore is not yet a part of our laws it is impossible that if this act is passed it will not be superseded by the Election Code, as it will be signed first, and therefore I oppose the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny to drop the bill from the calendar.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OMINSKY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if the Election Code was not introduced in this House by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss at the instance of the Administration?

Mr. OMINSKY. In answer to that, Mr. Speaker, I would say that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Patterson, is correct.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman, and his answer makes my motion even more satisfactory than it was before.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the noes appeared to have it. Whereupon a division was called for, forty-four members having voted in the affirmative and seventy-two in the negative the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 549) entitled "An act to permit the use of voting machines for recording and computing the vote at all elections including primaries in any county city borough or township of the Commonwealth at the option of the electors thereof prescribing regulations with reference to the adoption requirements examination purchase installation preparation custody and demonstration of use of voting machines providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections held with voting machines prescribing the qualifications number and duties of election officers in election districts in which voting machines may be used placing duties upon county commissioners and the Secretary of the Commonwealth providing for redivision of wards of cities and boroughs into election districts and the consolidation of election districts providing for the payment of expenses incident to the purchase and use of voting machines by the counties in which they are used and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act" by adding a new section thereto 11-A providing that in counties of the first class all appointments shall be equally divided between majority and minority commissioners

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommited to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Mercer, Mr. Thomas.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Mercer permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMAS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman for what reason he would have this bill recommitted.

Mr. THOMAS. Well, Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for and makes mandatory the hiring of a dental hygienist in school districts of the first, second and third classes. They already have that privilege and this makes it mandatory in those school districts, creating an added expense. In view of the legislation we have already passed I do not believe it would be wise to pass this bill at this time.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I ask the members of the House to oppose this motion, because this bill merely is carrying out a part of the health program in which the State of Pennsylvania is cooperating with the Federal Government in order to stamp out dental diseases, in order to better preserve the health, not only of the school children, but also of the entire population of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I further wish to state that this would not be an added cost, because the State of Massachusetts has had this in operation and where state aid is given to the individual district on the basis of attendance, that this type of dental service will improve the — —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know if the gentleman from Allegheny is speaking on the motion?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny is not speaking on the motion. He is speaking on the merits of the bill.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, the only reason I did indulge in speaking on the merits of the bill was because I noticed that the person who made the motion to recommit the bill also did so.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I say that this bill will not increase the cost to the districts, but they will get service for what they pay.

Mr. BROWNFIELD. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, when this bill came from committee last night there was some question as to whether it would not be a burden upon some of the already overburdened districts of the third class. We had to act hurriedly, however, and sent the bill out on short notice. I have made further inquiry in the matter and I find that to install this service in districts of the third class, will place a burden upon many of those that are already overburdened. I think it would be well to send the bill back.

Mr. DAVID H. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the motion made by the gentleman from Mercer, Mr. Thomas and the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Brownfield. Whenever two teachers want to save money for school districts, I believe they deserve support.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that it is contemplated to have the bills dealing with liquor and beer legislation and taxes recommitted to the Committee on State Boards after second reading, and further in view of the fact that all the amendments which are desired to be presented can be submtited to that committee, and I feel sure that full and complete consideration of all amendments will be given, I would request that the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, withdraw the amendments which he has submitted to the bill at this time.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House while I feel that these amendments are not controversial because they place within the limitation of the Civil Service Commission the one hundred ninety employes under the Compensation Act which was recently signed by the Governor and passed by this House without opposition, in order to expedite matters, I agree to withdraw my amendments.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 411), page 15, line 21, by striking out the following: "after two o'clock ante meridian"

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 411), page 45, lines 26 and 27, by striking out the following: "three o'clock ante meridian" and inserting in lieu thereof: "midnight"

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 602), page 63, lines 17 to 19, by striking out with light-faced brackets the following: "unless the licensee shall" in line 17, all of line 18, and "provide such entertainment" in line 19

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 602), page 63, lines 21 to 29, by striking out with light-faced brackets the following: "regardless of whether a" in line 21, all of lines 22 to 28, and "paid into the State Stores Fund" in line 29

Amend sec. 1, (sec. 602), page 64, lines 5 to 7, by striking out the following: "No such permit" in line 5, all of line 6, and "prohibits amusements in licensed places" in line 7

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I make the same request of the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Nagel. I don't know the nature of his amendments but I assure him if they are of the nature that the gentleman from Beaver usually submits, I assure him that they will have full and complete consideration by the committee.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have offered these amendments in all sincerity in the hope that I may have them incorporated in this bill. However, I do not want to hold up the proceedings when we are trying to rush matters through. I will agree to withdraw these amendments since they have been read for the information of the House, and that they will have the careful consideration of the committee.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That I can assure him, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 32), page 64, line 29, by inserting after the word "act" the following: "Provided, however, where an election was heretofore held at the municipal election in any year another election may be held under the provisions of this act at the primary occurring the fourth year after such prior election"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 32), page 65, lines 3 and 4, by striking out with light-face brackets the words "corporate authorities of the municipality or township" and inserting in lieu thereof "county commissioners of the county"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 32), page 65, line 6, striking out with light-face brackets the words "corporate authorities" and inserting in lieu thereof "county commissioners"

Amend sec. 1 (sec. 32), page 65, lines 8, 9 and 10, by striking out with light-face brackets the words "by certifying a resolution duly adopted to the county commissioners for submission of such question"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments ?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to compliment the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Van Allsburg, for his legislative astuteness. I think he has an amendment that requires a considerable amount of consideration, and I think it is quite an improvement on the bill as it is now drafted. I had nothing to do with the drafting of the bill and I do not wish to find fault with the individuals who did draft it, but I thing in the interest of saving time they did overlook a very important feature of the act to which Mr. Van Allsburg has called attention. In order to further expedite the matter I would suggest, if it meets with the approval of Mr. Van Allsburg, that the amendment be withdrawn and referred to the Committee on State Boards, to which this bill will be referred immediately after its passage on second reading .

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, under the circumstances I will withdraw the amendments, with the understanding that they will be given careful consideration by the committee.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 42, line 5, by striking out with light-faced brackets "two o'clock ante meridian," and inserting in lieu thereof: "midnight"

Amend sec. 1, page 42, line 16, by striking out: "two o'clock ante meridian," and inserting in lieu thereof: "midnight"

Amend sec. 1, page 46, lines 9 and 10, by striking out with light-faced brackets: "unless the licensee shall have first received from the board a special permit to provide such entertainment"

Amend sec. 1, page 46, lines 12 to 20, by striking out the following: "re-" in line 12, all of lines 13 to 19, and "be paid into the State Stores Fund" in line 20.

Amend sec. 1, page 46, lines 25 to 27, by striking out the following: "No such" in line 25, all of line 26, and "dinance prohibits amusements in licensed places" in line 27

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like permission to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, if the bill is recommitted now to the Committee on State Boards, will there be an opportunity to offer amendments on the floor if the bill is reported back to the House?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might say that there will be. If all the legislative objectives of this House are not accomplished, the gentleman from McKean well knows that he can re-amend the bill on the floor of the House, even though it had passed second reading, and I wish to assure the gentleman from McKean that full consideration to all amendments that are submitted will be given by the the committee. Both bills are very important to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the amendments that are put into the bill should be put in in consideration of all the sections rather than the particular section being amended. I wish to assure the gentleman from McKean that full consideration will be given to his amendments.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the gentleman from York and to say that in view of his statement I for one will offer no amendments and will ask the other amenders to withdraw their amendments and to submit them to the committee.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from York whether we are correct in our understanding then that if this bill comes out of committee, and there are amendments offered on the floor by these gentlemen, their amendments not having been accepted by the committee, whether he is then willing to take the bill back to second reading in order that the amendments may be offered.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I didn't say that, Mr. Speaker. I did say that I believe the amendments are susceptible of being placed in the bill when it comes out on the floor of the House. The gentleman from Delaware, I know, is an experienced parliamentarian, and when the bill is up on third reading he knows the manner in which the bill can be amended, that it is possible with unanimous consent of the House to introduce amendments on third reading, and it is possible to gain that unanimous consent by majority vote.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it was for the very reason that I understood the parliamentary procedure that I was amazed at the statement of the gentleman from York, and I didn't know whether he was bleeding again or whether in that line of language he was simply beclouding the issue. I thought that the gentleman from McKean would understand that he would have to offer his amendments and get unanimous consent or would have to move to take the bill back, but in view of the fact that the gentleman from York had so frankly stated that opportunity would be given to offer amendments, I though we ought to have a clear understanding as to whether he meant he was going to allow the bill to be taken back to second reading, because that is the only way the amendments could be offered except by unanimous consent. So I am not correct in my understanding that the gentleman is going to take it back to second reading?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. The gentleman is correct, Mr. Speaker. We can take it back to second reading unless the will of the House prevents. I dare say that the amendments that will be submitted will be acceptable to the House.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it hasn't so far. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from York one more question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from York whether or not as the matter now stands, if the bill goes back to the committee as planned, it will be necessary to have the unanimous consent of the House to offer any amendments when it is returned to the floor of the House?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would say that it would be necessary to have the will of the majority of the House to offer amendments on third reading. I, however, will assure the gentleman from McKean that I would not object to having the amendments read so that the merits of the amendments could be determined by the House.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the gentleman from York would have any objections to returning the bill to the committee before it passes second reading instead of afterwards so that it will not require unanimous consent to offer amendments? I do not believe it would delay the matter to have it sent back to the committee before it passes second reading. Would the gentleman be willing to return the bill to committee before it passes second reading?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would say that our objective in sending it back to the committee after passing second reading is to save a legislative day.

I assure the gentleman from McKean and all of the members of the House that full consideration will be given to all amendments, and if those amendments which they submit are not placed in the bill when it appears on third reading, an opportunity will be given to have the amendments read and to have the will of the House in determining on those amendments. Permission will be given to the gentleman from McKean and all other members of the House.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I will be very glad to accept the assurances of the gentleman on this point.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am going to request the gentleman from Beaver to withdraw the amendments that he has submitted so that they may be considered in committee. They are rather involved, and I think that the committee should have the benefit of the opportunity to study the entire bill and all the amendments.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as these amendments or at least the latter part of them are a strike-out, and inasmuch as I have noticed that very few members of the House were following the reading of them, I would imagine that very few members of this House know what is carried in them. Therefore, I would be willing to withdraw these amendments, provided I am given the privilege of discussing them, the time for which I assure you will not exceed one hour and a half.

The SPEAKER. With no time limit attached?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I will be glad to accede to the request of the gentleman from Beaver.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Nagel, withdraws his amendments.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the amendments of the gentleman from Beaver have been withdrawn, and I further understand by a sidebar conference that the gentleman from Beaver desires to make a few remarks on these amendments. I would ask unanimous consent of the House for the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Nagel, to make his remarks, which he assures me will not take more than three minutes.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, asks unanimous consent of the House to permit the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Nagel, to speak for a period not exceeding three minutes on the amendments which he has submitted and which he has withdrawn. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rather hesitate to say that they are withdrawn, because I have not had much time on this matter of consent. However, I do appreciate this opportunity.

Early in the session I introduced two bills in this House, one of which would have taken care of these amendments in No. 341 and another bill would have put these amendments in No. 343. However, these bills have never come out of committee. The reason I want to bring these before you this evening is because the latter part of this amendment is a strike-out. It has to do with music, dances and entertainment in places where drink is served. I think this is not a thing that we as American people should do. I have had many requests and petitions, hundreds of letters from people in my own county congratulating me on the bills I have introduced covering these amendments. It is felt by these people that the grocery stores, drug stores and hardware dealers do not need music and entertainment to entice young people into their places of business in order to sell their goods. We are training our children in our schools, trying to build up their bodies, and giving them such things as hygiene, and giving them such things as vitamin tablets, and now this bill would permit them to go and be lured into places where they will become perhaps habitual users of alcoholic drinks which will be destructive to their bodies.

Now, I know the gentleman from York is a most honorable man, and he has never been know to make a promise that he has not fulfilled, and he has never been known, to my knowledge, to tell anything that is not the truth. Therefore, I ask that he use his influence to have these amendments placed in the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the Section?

It was agreed to.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 This act and the amendments thereto shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

Section 3 The act approved the nineteenth day of February one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six (P. BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 2479, Senate Bill No. 309, Printer's No. 754, on page 63 of today's calendar, bill on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2479 (Senate Bill No. 309), entitled:

An Act to amend section three as amended of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 452) entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth creating a General State Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to construct improve and operate projects and to lease the same and to fix and collect fees rentals and charges for the use thereof authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof and to enter into agreements with the Government of the United States or any Federal agency and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to grant assign convey or lease to the Authority lands of the Commonwealth and interests therein and to acquire lands therefor granting the right of eminent domain and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act" changing the personnel

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, page 1, lines 1 and 2 of title, by striking out the following: "section three as amended" and inserting in lieu thereof: "sections three and seven, as amended, and section nine"

Amend Title, page 2, line 9 of title, by striking out the following: "changing the personnel" and inserting in lieu thereof: "by changing the personnel of the governing body, fixing the quorum thereof and clarifying the powers of the Department of Property and Supplies."

Amend sec. 1, page 2, line 13 by striking out the following: "section three" and inserting in lieu thereof: "sections three and seven"

Amend sec. 1, page 3, line 4 by striking out the word "is" and inserting in lieu thereof: "are"

Amend sec. 1, page 4, by inserting after line 25 the following:

"Section 7. Governing Body. The powers of the Authority shall be exercised by a governing body consisting of the members of the Authority acting as a board. Within ninety days after this act shall become effective the board shall meet and organize by electing from their number a president and secretary. At the first regular meeting in each year thereafter they shall elect from their number a president and secretary.

"[Five] Six members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of organizing the Authority and conducting the business thereof and for all other purposes and all action shall only be taken by vote of a majority of the members of the Authority, unless in any case the by-laws shall require a larger number. The board shall have full authority to manage the properties and business of the Authority, and to prescribe, amend and repeal by-laws, rules and regulations governing the manner in which the business of the Authority may be conducted and the powers granted to it may be exercised and embodied. The board shall fix, and determine the number of officers, agents and employes of the Authority, and their respective compensation and duties, and may delegate to one or more of their number, or to one or more of said officers, agents or employes such powers and duties as it may deem proper.

Section 2. That section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 9. Grant of Lands by Department to Authority. The Department shall have power and authority, with the approval of the Governor, to grant, assign and convey to the Authority with or without consideration any lands, easements or rights in lands, together with any improvements, buildings or structures therein or thereon, now owned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or hereafter acquired by it, needed or convenient for the corporate purposes of the Authority, or to lease to the Authority for a term, not exceeding ninety-nine (99) years, at a nominal or such other rental as may be determined, any or all such lands, easements or rights in lands, together with any improvements, structures or buildings therein or thereon."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1937. No. 68.

SENATE

TUESDAY, June 1, 1937.

The Senate met at 2 o'clock p. m.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

"O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home."

In midnights of peril and crisis, our people have ever turned to Thee—and never in vain.

Our Father, every omen tells us of a changing world—and we know not what the new will be. Repression, reprisal, cupidity of gain, with their reactions of conflict and revolution? Or shall it be conciliation, brotherhood, spread of happiness, diffusion of knowledge, minstrelsies of accord and lasting peace?

Thou knowest, and we trust and hope. May we place ourselves at Thy disposal. Use us to Thy holy ends. Set Thy bow of promise above the rim of this our evening sky, that there be no clouds at the dawning of the new day. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. DANDO, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, I hesitate to rise when it is so near the final day of adjournment of this Session however, there is an important piece of legislation resting in one of the committees. I have spoken to the committee chairman, and I have advised that all the members of that committee, that I will ask you for a special meeting of the committee immediately.

This has to do with the question of abandoned mines. Yesterday a disaster occurred which would have gone to a far greater proportion if the miners had been working. It occurred in Westmoreland County. Water had gathered in the Dorothy mine and broke through the barriers into the St. Vincent's shaft yesterday afternoon. Only two men were working—the engineer and his helper. Twenty or twenty-five men could have lost their lives like rats in that mine.

This piece of legislation was introduced by myself this year, and it was introduced because the United Mine Workers knew the value of such a piece of legislation. Yesterday the prediction was borne out.

Throughout that territory many of the mines are filled with water. In a few of the mines it is pumped out but in those not used, it is piling up every day, and any of you who have been through the mines know how they connect with each other, and no one knows when this will happen again.

I am going to ask the Committee on Mines and Mining, immediately on recess, to call a meeting to take into consideration this bill.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 488 (House Bill No. 99), on final passage entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" by changing adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurers conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system including the rehabilitation of employes providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes and for the payment of re-opened cases after a certain lapse of time by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State Treasury by certain employers and insurance carriers in death cases where there are no dependents imposing new and changing certain existing penalties and generally amending clarifying and changing the provisions of said act.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I now call up from page 20 of the calendar, Senate Bill No. 1421 (House Bill No. 1640), on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1421 (House Bill No. 1640), entitled:

A Supplement to the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736), entitled, as amended, "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing a system and schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; and prescribing penalties;" as amended and re-enacted, providing for the inclusion of occupational diseases within the scope thereof, and providing definitions, provisions and procedure related to such diseases, and making an appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—36

Barthold,	Eroe,	Huffman,	Pytko,
Bean,	Frey,	Jacobs,	Rankin,
Cavalcante,	Gelder,	Jaspan,	Reed,
Chapman,	Gilson,	Kilgallen,	Rice,
Dando,	Haluska,	Lanius,	Rodgers,
Deitrick,	Henney,	Law,	Rupp,
Dent,	Heyburn,	McCreesh,	Ruth,
DiSilvestro,	Homsher,	McGinnis,	Stiefel,
Ealy,	Howell,	Owlett,	Wolfenden,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I call up out of order, for consideration at this time, Senate Bill No. 1427 (House Bill No. 2057), on third reading, entitled:

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1427 (House Bill No. 2057), entitled:

An Act to protect the public against fraud and deception regulating the business of selling liquid fuels by requiring persons engaged in the sale or distribution of liquid fuels to secure a permit or permits for pumps or outlets used therein prescribing the method and manner of obtaining such permit or permits and prescribing the fees for the issuance thereof conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and prescribing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The ayes and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

(The roll was verified.)

The PRESIDENT. Is there correction of the verification of the roll?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object to the vote of the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, on this bill, for the reason that he was not in the Chamber at the time the roll was called, and upon being interrogated he did not state he was in the chamber when the roll was called.

The PRESIDENT. The record will show the name of the Senator was subsequently called, to which he responded 'aye.'

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would also like to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, again and ask him if he was not telephoning at the time the roll was called?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I was in the Senate Chamber at the time the roll was called. I was called to the telephone afterwards.

The PRESIDENT. Any correction to the verification of the roll call?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, the Chair stated that the record will show that the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, responded when his name was afterwards called. His name was not afterward called until after the verification of the roll was asked for.

The PRESIDENT. The verification of the roll had been asked for but not directed by the Chair, and the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, rose and requested to be quoted as voting 'aye.'

The question is on verification of the roll.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, may I interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I want to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, on the roll call.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I wish to ask the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, whether he was in the Senate Chamber when the roll was called.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I was, but did not hear my name.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate further the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Clarion, if it is not a fact that he just came into the chamber since this roll was called after a verification was called for. I ask the Senator if that is not a fact?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President. I have not heard any announcement of any verification.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, if it is not a fact that he was not in the chamber when the roll was called?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I did not hear my name called.

The PRESIDENT. For the information of the Senator from Tioga Mr. Owlett, the verification, while asked for, was not directed by the Chair—we were still calling the roll.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, for a point of information, I would like to ask the Chair, if there was anything in order except the verification after it was asked for?

The PRESIDENT. Yes, the calling of the roll was not dispensed with.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, the roll had been called and the Senator from Tioga. Mr. Owlett. asked for a verification of the roll.

The PRESIDENT. After the roll was called, any Senator has the right to get up and ask the privilege of being recorded, or changing his vote, which the Senator from Clarion did.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, we understand from an interrogation that the Senator from Clarion was not in at the time the verification was asked for.

The PRESIDENT. He was in when the Chair had his votes recorded.

POINT OF LEGISLATIVE INQUIRY

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of legislative inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of legislative inquiry.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to ask whether this is a "must" bill, and whether that is the reason it is being regarded in that way.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has no information to that effect.

The negative roll was thereupon verified and resulted in 20 votes.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any correction in the negative roll? If not, it stands verified.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

YEAS—26

Barthold,	Gilson,	Kilgallen,	Reed,
Cavalcante,	Haluska,	Law,	Rice,
Dando,	Henney,	McCreesh,	Rodgers,
Dent,	Huffman,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
DiSilvestro,	Jacobs,	Pytko,	Shapiro,

Frey,	Kahle,

Bean,	Ealy,	Homsher,	Lanius,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Howell,	Owlett,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill ot the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 974 (House Bill No. 1570), on third reading postponed, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two thousand four hundred and two of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-seven), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compenation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the consent of the proper board of trustees to grant rights of way or easements over state institution lands for public road purposes

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29.

Barthold,	Haluska,	Kilgallen,	Rankin,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	Kunkel,	Reed,
Dando,	Heyburn,	Lanius,	Rice,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I call up at this time, Senate Bill No. 1387, (House Bill No. 1330), on page 16 of the Calendar, for the purpose of amendment.

Agreeably to order

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1387 (House Bill No. 1330), entitled:

An Act relating to magistrates and magistrates' courts in the City of Philadelphia imposing certain duties upon and prohibiting certain practices by magistrates imposing certain duties on the City Controller in regard thereto authorizing the employment by him of additional clerks and fixing their compensation regulating the practice in magistrates' courts the entering of bail and the issuance of discharges in criminal cases in the County of Philadelphia conferring certain powers over magistrates and magistrates' courts and imposing certain duties in connection therewith upon the judges of the Courts of Common Pleas of the County of Philadelphia providing for the appointment and employment of stenographers to report proceedings in certain cases heard by magistrates fixing salaries of persons employed by authority of this act providing penalties for violations of the provisions thereof and repealing certain prior acts

And said bill having been read at length the third time.

On the question.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move to amend sec. 32, page 24, line 1, by inserting after the figure "32" the following: A; amend sec 32, page 24, by inserting between lines 20 and 21, the following paragraph:

B. The term of the present Chief Magistrate shall end as of the effective date of this act, and the Chief Magistrate shall deliver to his successor in office all dockets, books, bonds and other papers connected with his office as Chief Magistrate.

The President. Is there objection?

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the amendments, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, if he will explain the amendments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, a new board of magistrates is being set up by this bill, and we will need a chief magistrate; and it was decided that, having created a new board we would need to have a new chief magistrate appointed from the new board.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator, if the poor board is then to rip out one of the magistrates of Philadelphia?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, not at all. This came after the bill was presented, and it was approved by a committee appointed to prepare a new magistrate by this bill, and this amendment follows out the thought of the committee.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, so that, Mr. President, these amendments bring about a preparation immediately of a present chief magistrate, and provides for the appointment of a new chief magistrate?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it provides for the appointment of a new chief magistrate; that is right.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which this bill passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I second the motion,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for 24 Senators voted in the affirmative and 9 in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

(b) Should such statement of claim be returned to the magistrates' office with the notation that the defendant refuses to accept the same the clerk shall then send the same to the sheriff's office for service upon the defendant in the same manner as prescribed by law for the service of writs of summons by the sheriff No fee shall be charged by the sheriff for this service

(c) Should such statement be returned by the United States Post Office Department for want of a proper address then all proceedings are to stop until the plaintiff shall have supplied the clerk with the correct address

(d) Where service of the statement of claim is made by registered mail the clerk of the court upon the return of the receipt to him by the United States Post Office Department shall file the same with the chief clerk of the magistrates' civil court in City Hall together with an affidavit reciting the fact of service by registered mail and such receipt and affidavit shall constitute service A record of such service shall be made by the clerk in the civil docket of the magistrate's court from which such letter originated

(e) One copy of the statement of claim shall be kept on file in the court in which such action shall be commenced the original shall be forwarded to the chief clerk to be filed with the records of the magistrates' civil court in City Hall and the third copy shall be served upon the defendant in the manner hereinabove provided

(f) The statement of claim in all actions commenced in the magistrates' courts shall be indorsed with a notice signed by the clerk of the court stating the time date and place of the trial or hearing at which the defendant is ordered to be present

Section 24 A case shall be deemed at issue upon the service of the statement of claim upon the defendant No answer shall be filed by the defendant except where he desires to claim a set-off or make a counter-claim in which case an answer in writing shall be filed with the clerk of the court at any time before the commencement of the trial Such answers containing set-offs and counter-claims shall be filed in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the filing of the statement of claim The court at the hearing may allow any answer filed to be amended

The filing of answers containing set-offs and counter-claims shall be noted in the court docket by the clerk

The fee for filing an answer containing a set-off or counter-claim shall be one dollar ($1.00) payable by the defendant to the clerk for the use of the county

Section 25 Trials in the civil division shall be before the court of three magistrates the trial procedure shall be informal and only substantive rules of law shall be applied The board of magistrates shall have power to prescribe rules of procedure and practice not inconsistent with the provisions of the acts of Assembly or of the Constitutions of the Commonwealth or of the United States No pleadings other than those required or permitted by this act shall be entertained in such court The civil division shall conduct all hearings in such form and with such methods of proof as it deems best to discover the facts and to administer justice in the case The magistrates sitting as the court en banc in such civil division may question either party and the witnesses If the plaintiff does not appear at the time set for the hearing the court may dismiss the claim for want of prosecution or enter a finding on the merits for the defendant or the plaintiff or make such other disposition as to it may appear proper If the defendant shall fail or neglect to appear at the hearing the court may enter judgment for the full amount of the claim with costs

The court shall render its decision immediately at the conclusion thereof giving judgment for the plaintiff or defendant or enter such decree as to it shall appear proper together with interest and costs and shall notify the plaintiff and defendant orally thereof before they leave the court

Section 26 The court shall have power to continue any hearing pending before it but such continuance shall be allowed only (a) where one of the parties or a material witness is unable to be present by reason of illness or other reason appearing sufficient to the court or (b) where a defense is produced which was not forseen by the plaintiff and the court is of the opinion that the plaintiff should have additional opportunity to rebut the defense

Section 27 A judgment entered in the civil division may be appealed by either party as heretofore All such judgments may be removed to the Court of Common Pleas by certiorari in the same manner within the same time and subject to the same procedure as heretofore

Section 28 When a judgment is rendered by the civil division the clerk of the court shall receive the amount of the judgment with costs to date if offered by the defendant before execution and promptly pay the same over to the plaintiff If any judgment is not so paid within twenty days of the entry of the judgment the court shall direct its writ of execution to the sheriff of the county commanding him to levy the debt interest and costs on the defendant's goods and chattels and within the space of the next ten days following the levy expose the goods and chattels to public sale having first given notice of the same by at least three handbills posted in conspicuous places in the vicinity Thereupon said execution sale of goods and chattels and return thereof shall proceed in the manner provided by law for executions issuing out of the courts not of record except that the moneys realized from the sale shall be applied first to the payment of the plaintiff debt second to the payment of costs and third any excess to the defendant

All writs of execution issuing out of the civil division shall be in such form as is prescribed for like writs issuing out of the Courts of Common Pleas of the several counties of this Commonwealth Such writs shall be directed to the sheriff of the county and the sheriff shall not make any charge in advance for such service but if a fund should come into the hands of the sheriff he may deduct a sum not to exceed four dollars ($4.00) for sheriff's costs

Section 29 Where any judgment entered in the civil division of the magistrates' court after execution has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part the clerk of the court shall send a transcript of such judgment to the prothonotary of the county who shall enter the same and such judgment shall have the same force and effect as any other judgment of a court of record This service shall be rendered by the prothonotary without any charge whatsoever

Section 30 The chief magistrate shall appoint a chief clerk of the civil division of the magistrates' court whose salary shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500) per annum and shall appoint such clerical assistants not in excess of six at salaries not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars ($1800) per annum all of which salaries shall be paid by the county

The chief clerk shall keep a complete record in suitable dockets of all cases filed with the court the proceedings therein and the disposition thereof and in keeping said dockets he should endeavor to obtain the standard now maintained by the prothonotary of Philadelphia County

Section 31 There shall be a Board of Magistrates composed of all the magistrates of the City of Philadelphia The said board shall be presided over by a Chief Magistrate who shall be the administrative representative and executive head of the said board and shall be selected in the manner and shall hold the position of Chief Magistrate for the term hereinafter provided The Chief Magistrate shall have general supervision of the conduct of the business of all the courts held by the magistrates and between meetings of the Board of Magistrates shall have full power and authority to execute the rules and regulations of said board and to issue such necessary interim administrative orders and directions as the said board could issue and as are not inconsistent with existing law or said rules and regulations The said Board of Magistrates shall have the power and it shall be its duty to consider supervise and prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of the various civil and police courts by the magistrates and the practice and procedure in the administration of justice therein The said board shall have the power to investigate of its own motion or on complaint of others any and all matters pertaining to the courts presided over by the magistrates the administration thereof and the official conduct of any person or persons connected therewith and take such lawful action in respect thereto as it may deem necessary and proper in the premises The Board of Magistrates shall meet for the discharge of its duties at least four times in each year during the first week of the months of January April July and October and at such other times as it may be convened by the Chief Magistrate or at the written request of five or more magistrates The meetings of the said board shall be held in the office of the Chief Magistrate

The thirty-second section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 32 As soon as practical after the approval of this act the Governor of the Commonwealth shall select from among the magistrates a Chief Magistrate to act as such from the date of appointment for the remainder of the term for which he shall have been elected or appointed as magistrate and before the expiration of such term the Governor shall select from among the magistrates a Chief Magistrate to act as such in succession to him whose term of magistrate is about to expire and to hold office from and after the expiration of such term until his own term as magistrate shall expire and so on from time to time thereafter as the term of office of any magistrate who has been selected Chief Magistrate shall be about to expire the Governor shall select from among the magistrates a Chief Magistrate to serve until his own term as magistrate shall expire unless removed before such time by the action of the Governor Provided however That any magistrate upon being re-elected to office as such magistrate shall continue eligible for re-appointment from time to time as Chief Magistrate

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. SHAPIRO. SENATE BILL NO. 1120 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1120, and move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to this bill.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1120, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending, and consolidating the laws relating thereto," as amended, extending the retirement system of counties of the second class to additional employes; declaring certain persons ineligible to receive retirement allowances; and generally clarifying the provisions of the law governing such retirement system.

which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, this is the bill the Senate passed on May 13th, having to do with municipal tax claims bureau; it passed unanimously here and passed unanimously in the House. However, the House added two amendments, the first amendment was that tax claims instead of being signed by the public official should bear his facsimile signature, and the second amendment is the validating feature. The validating feature goes to this: that if any irregularities will occur in the filing of the tax claim, this act shall validate that tax.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Compensation shall be payable under this section to or on account of any child brother or sister only if and while such child brother [and] or sister is under the age of [sixteen] eighteen unless such child brother or sister is dependent by reason of disability in which case such compensation shall be paid to or on account of such child brother or sister until he or she reaches the age of twenty-one No compensation shall be payable under this this section to a widow unless she was living with her deceased husband at the time of his death or was then actually dependent upon him for support No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widower unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for suport The terms "child" and "children" shall include stepchildren and adopted children and children to whom he stood in loco parentis if members of decedent's household at the time of his death and shall include posthumous children Should any dependent of a deceased employe die or remarry or should the widower become capable of self-support the right of such dependent or widower to compensation under this section shall cease Provided however That upon remarriage of any widow other than a non-resident alien widow the compensation of such widow shall continue as hereinbefore provided for [one-third of the period during which compensation then remains payable to her] two years from the date of such remarriage If the compensation payable under this section to any person shall for any cause cease the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any one case be less than [twelve] eighteen dollars and fifty cents per week

This compensation shall be paid during five hundred weeks except that in the case of a widow if she shall remain unmarried compensation shall continue after said period of five hundred weeks at the rate of five dollars per week for life and in the case of children entitled to compensation under this section the compensation of each child shall continue after said period of five hundred weeks until such child reaches the age of eighteen at the rate of twenty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of five dollars per week if there is one child thirty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of eight dollars per week if there are two children fifty per centum of wages but not in excess of ten dollars per week if there are three children seventy-five per centum of wages but not in excess of fifteen dollars per week if there are four children or more

The board may if the best interest of a child or children shall so require at any time order and direct the compensation payable to a child or children or to a widow or a widower on account of any child or children to be paid to the guardian of such child or children or if there be no guardian to such other person as the board as hereinafter provided may direct If there be no guardian or committee of any minor dependent or insane employe or dependent on whose account compensation is payable the amount payable on account of such minor dependent or insane employe or dependent may be paid to any surviving parent or to such other person as the board may order and direct and the board may require any person other than a guardian or committee to whom it has directed compensation for a minor dependent or insane employe or dependent to be paid to render as and when it shall so order accounts of the receipts and disbursements of such person and to file with it a satisfactory bond in a sum sufficient to secure the proper application of the moneys received by such person

Section 308 Except as hereinafter provided all compensation payable under this article shall be payable in periodical instalments as the wages of the employe were payable before the accident

All compensation payable under this article shall be made payable only to employes or their dependents or their guardians or such other persons as may be designated by the board

Any person copartnership association or corporation who or which violates any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay for each violation a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00)

Section 309 Wherever in this article the term "wages" is used it shall be construed to mean the money rate at which the service rendered is recompensed under the contract of hiring in force at the time of the accident [and] except that if the injured employe was at the time of the injury a minor and his disability shall continue after he shall have reached the age of twenty-one years his average weekly wage for the purpose of determining the compensation payable under this act shall be determined on the basis of the earnings that such minor if not disabled probably would earn at the age of twenty-one (21) years In determining such probable earnings due consideration shall be given to the employe's aptitude education and experience fitting him for any employment not only in the trade or business in which he was engaged at the time of the injury but in any other trade or business In determining such probable earnings the referee and the board shall have the right to receive into evidence as competent testimony the earnings of other employes of similar aptitude education and experience engaged in a similar trade or business and findings based upon such testimony shall be final The term "wages" [shall not include gratuities received from the employer or others nor shall it include amounts deducted by the employer under the contract of hiring for labor furnished or paid for by the employer and necessary for the performance of such contract by the employe but] shall include board and lodging received from the employer Whenever the employe receives board and lodging as a part of his wages the board shall be rated at fifty cents per day and board together with lodging shall be rated at one dollar per day for the purpose of computing wages In seasonable occupations the employe's weekly wages shall be taken to be one-fiftieth of the total wages which he has earned from all occupations during the year immediately preceding the accident unless it be shown that during such year by reason of exceptional causes such method of computation does not ascertain fairly the earnings of the employe in which case the period for calculation shall be extended so far to give a basis for the fair ascertainment of his average weekly earnings in continuous employments if immediately prior to the accident the rate of wages was fixed by the day or hour or by the output of the employe his weekly wages shall be taken to be five and one-half times his average earnings at such rate for a working day and using as a basis of calculation his earnings during so much of the preceding six months as he worked for the same employer Provided however That if the employe regularly and habitually worked more than five and one-half days per week the weekly wage shall be found by multiplying his average earnings for working day by six six and one-half or seven according to the customary number of working days constituting an ordinary week in his occupation or trade Where the employe is working under concurrent contracts with two or more employers his wages from all employers shall be considered as if earned from the employer liable for compensation

In cases where the employe has been in the employ of the employer less than one full week and by reason of the shortness of time during which the employe has been in the employment of the employer or the nature or terms of the employment it is impracticable to ascertain the average weekly wages as hereinbefore provided the average weekly amount which during the six months previous to the injury has been earned by other persons employed by the same employer under similar contracts of hiring or if there are no persons so employed by other persons employed by other employers under similar contracts of hiring under similar conditions shall be taken as the basis for the ascertainment of the weekly wages of such employe

Section 310 Compensation under this article to alien dependent widows and children not residents of the United States shall be two-thirds of the amount provided in each case for residents and the employer may at any time commute all future instalments of compensation payable to alien dependents not residents of the United States by paying to such alien dependents the then value thereof calculated in accordance with the provisions of section three hundred and [sixteen] fourteen of this article Alien widowers parents brothers and sisters not residents of the United States shall not be entitled to any compensation

Non-resident alien dependents may be officially represented by the Consular officers of the nation of which such alien or aliens may be citizens or subjects and in such cases the Consular officers shall have the right to receive for distribution to such non-resident alien dependents all compensation awarded hereunder and the receipt of such Consular officers shall be a full discharge of all sums paid to and received by them

Section 311 Unless the employer shall have actual knowledge of the occurrence of the injury or unless the employe or [some one] someone in his behalf or some of the dependents or [some one] someone in their behalf shall give notice thereof to the employer within [fourteen] thirty days after the accident no compensation shall be due until such notice be given or knowledge obtained but if the employe or other beneficiary shall show that his delay in giving notice was due to his mistake or ignorance of fact or of law or to his physical or mental disability or to fraud misrepresentation or deceit or to any other reasonable cause or excuse then compensation shall be allowed unless the employer shall show that he did not know and by reasonable diligence could not have learned of the accident and that he was prejudiced by the delay in which case he shall be relieved to the extent of such prejudice [and unless such knowledge be obtained or notice given within ninety days after the occurrence of the injury no compensation shall be allowed]

Section 312 The notice referred to in section three hundred and eleven hereof shall be substantially in the following form

To (name of employer)

You are hereby notified that an injury of the following character (.....) was suffered by (name of employe injured) who was in your employment at (place) while engaged as (kind of employment) on or about the (.....) day of (.....) Anno Domini (.....) and that compensation will be claimed therefor

Date ..... Signed (.....)

But no variation from this form shall be material if the notice be sufficient to inform the employer that a certain employe by name received an injury the character of which is described in ordinary language in the course of his employment on or about a time specified and at or near a place specified

Section 313 The notices referred to in section three hundred and two and section three hundred and eleven hereof may be served personally upon the employer or upon the manager or superintendent in charge of the works or business in which the accident occurred or by seding them through the registered mail to the employer at his or its last known residence or place of business or if the employer be a corporation either foreign or domestic then upon the president vice-president secretary or treasurer thereof Knowledge of the occurrence of the injury on the part of any of said agents shall be the knowledge of the employer

Section 314 At any time after an injury the employe if so requested by his employer must submit himself for examination at some reasonable time and place to a physician or physicians legally authorized to practice under the laws of such place who shall be selected and paid by the employer If the employe shall refuse upon the request of the employer to submit to the examination by the physician or physicians selected by the employer the board may upon petition of the employer order the employe to submit to an examination at a time and place set by it and by the physician or physicians selected and paid by the employer or by a physician or physicians designated by it and paid by the employer and if the employe shall without reasonable cause or excuse disobey or disregard such order he shall be deprived of his right to compensation under this article The board may at any time after such first examination upon petition of the employer order the employe to submit himself to such further examinations as it shall deem reasonable and necessary at such times and places and by such physicians as it may designate and in such case the employer shall pay the fees and expenses of the examining physician or physicians and the reasonable traveling expenses and loss of wages incurred by the employe in order to submit himself to such examination The refusal or neglect without reasonable cause or excuse of the employe to submit to such examination ordered by the board either before or after an agreement or award shall deprive him of the right to compensation under this article during the continuance of such refusal or neglect and the period of such neglect or refusal shall be deducted from the period during which compensation would otherwise be payable

The employe shall be entitled to have a physician or physicians of his own selection to be paid by him participate in any examination requested by his employer or ordered by the board

Section 315 In cases of personal injury all claims for compensation shall be forever barred unless within [one year] two years after the accident the parties shall have agreed upon the compensation payable under this article or unless within [one year] two years after the accident one of the parties shall have filed a petition as provided in article four hereof In cases of death all claims for compensation shall be forever barred unless within [one year] two years after the date of death the parties shall have agreed upon the compensation under this article or unless within [one year] two years after the date of death one of the parties shall have filed a petition as provided in article four hereof where however payments of compensation have been made in any case or an employer has failed to report to the department the occurrence of an injury to his employe as required by law said limitations shall not take effect until the expiration of [one year] two years from the time of the making of the last payment or the filing of such report as the case may be

Section 316 The compensation contemplated by this article may at any time be commuted by the board at its then value when discounted at five per centum interest with annual rests disregarding the probability of the beneficiary's death upon application of either party with due notice to the other if it appear that such commutation

will be for the best interest of the employe or the dependents of the deceased employe and that it will avoid undue expense or undue hardship to either party or that such employe or dependent has removed or is about to remove from the United States or that the employer has sold or otherwise disposed of the whole or the greater part of his business or assets Except as provided in section three hundred and ten hereof and in this section no commutation of compensation shall be made

Any person partnership association or corporation who or which shall commute or attempt to commute any compensation directly or indirectly in violation of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or to undergo imprisonment for a period of not more than six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court No person partnership association or corporation shall be entitled to receive credit for any moneys paid in violation of this section and any such payment shall be considered as a gratuity

Section 317 At any time after the approval of an agreement or after the entry of the award a sum equal to all future instalments of compensation may (where death or the nature of the injury renders the amount of future payments certain) with the approval of the board be paid by the employer to any savings bank trust company or life insurance company in good standing and authorized to do business in this [State] Commonwealth and such sum together with all interest thereon shall thereafter be held in trust for the employe or the dependents of the employe who shall have no further recourse against the employer The payment of such sum by the employer evidenced by the receipt of the trustee noted upon the prothonotary's docket shall operate as a satisfaction of said award as to the employer Payments from said fund shall be made by the trustee in the same amounts and at the same periods as are herein required of the employer until said fund and interest shall be exhausted In the appointment of the trustee preference shall be given in the discretion of the board to the choice of the employe or the dependents of the deceased employe Should however there remain any unexpended balance of any fund after the payment of all sums due under this act such balance shall be repaid to the employer who made the original payment or to his legal representative

Section 318 The right of compensation granted by this article of this act shall have the same preference (without limit of amount) against the assets of an employer liable for such compensation as is now or may hereafter be allowed by law for a claim for unpaid wages for labor Provided however That no claim for compensation shall have priority over any judgment mortgage or conveyance of land recorded prior to the filing of the petition award or agreement as to compensation in the office of the prothonotary of the county in which the land is situated Claims for payments due under this article of this act shall not be assignable and (except as provided in section five hundred and one of article five hereof) shall be exempt from all claims of creditors and from levy execution or attachment which exemption may not be waived

Section 319 Where a third person is liable to the employe or the dependents for the injury or death the employer shall be subrogated to the right of the employe or the dependents against such third person less reasonable attorney's fees and other proper disbursements but only to the extent of the compensation payable under this article by the employer Any recovery against such third person in excess of the compensation theretofore paid by the employer shall be paid forthwith to the employe or to the dependents and shall be treated as an advance payment by the employer on account of any future instalments of compensation

Section 320 (a) If the employe at the time of the accident is a minor under the age of eighteen years employed or permitted to work in violation of any provision of the laws of this Commonwealth relating to minors of such age compensation either in the case of injury or death of such employe shall be double the amount that would be payable to such minor if legally employed The amount by which such compensation shall exceed that provided for in case of legal employment may be referred to as "additional compensation"

(b) The employer and not the insurance carrier shall be liable for the additional compensation Any provision in an insurance policy undertaking to relieve an employer from such liability shall be void

(c) Where death or the nature of the injury renders the amount of future payments certain the total amount of the additional compensation subject to discount as in the case of commutation shall be immediately due and payable It shall be deposited subject to the approval of the board in any savings bank trust company or life insurance company in good standing and authorized to do business in this [State] Commonwealth

Where the amount of the future payments of compensation is uncertain the board shall upon the approval of the agreement or the entry of an award determine as nearly as may be the total amount of payment to be made and the additional compensation so calculated shall immediately upon such determination become due and payable by the employer The amount may be redetermined by the board and any increase shall then become due and payable and any excess which shall be shown to have been paid shall be returned to the person paying the same Upon determination of the amount due it shall be deposited as above provided Payments of compensation out of deposits shall be made to the employe or dependents as payments of other compensation are made Provided however That the board may in its discretion and upon inquiry as in cases of commutation accelerate such payments

(d) The provisions of the foregoing paragraph (c) shall not apply to employers who are exempted by the [bureau] department from the necessity of carrying insurance

(e) Possession of an employment certificate duly issued and transmitted to the employer in accordance with the provisions of the child labor law and receipt thereof duly acknowledged by him shall be conclusive evidence to such employer of his legal right to employ the minor for whose employment such certificate has been issued

(f) The possession of an age certificate duly issued and transmitted to the employer by the school authorities of the school district in which a minor resides shall be conclusive evidence to the employer of the minor's age as certified therein

[(g) If neither party has elected not to be bound by the provisions of article three of the act to which this act and to have waived any other right or remedy section three hundred and two of said act they shall be held to have agreed to be bound by the provisions of this act and to have waived any other right to remedy at law or in equity for the recovery of damages for injuries occurring under the circumstances herein described]

Section 321 In the case of an employe who dies as the result of an injury received in the course of his employment and who leaves no dependents entitled to receive in excess of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) compensation under this act the employer or his insurance carrier as the case may be shall pay the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) to the department or the difference between the amount paid to such dependents and the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) In order to enforce payment of such sum the department shall have power to file with the board a claim for the same in like manner as any claim for compensation may be filed under this act

(b) One-fourth of the amount received in each case under this section by the department but not however in excess of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) shall be paid by it into the Federal Rehabilitation Fund of the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue which amount shall be credited to a ledger account to be known as the industrial rehabilitation account All moneys credited to the industrial rehabilitation account are hereby appropriated to the department for all expenses incurred by the department under the rehabilitation laws of this Commonwealth for the rehabilitation of injured employes who are entitled to compensation under this act and who are as a result of their injuries totally or partially incapacitated for renumerative employment in the line of employment in which they were employed at the time of injury

(c) The balance of any amount received by the department under this section shall be paid by it into the State Workmen's Insurance Fund of the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue which amount shall be credited to a ledger account to be known as the second injury reserve account All amounts credited to the second injury reserve account are hereby appropriated to the department for the payment of the compensation provided in clause (g) of section three hundred and six of this act

Whenever at the end of any fiscal year of the Commonwealth after the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-five the total amount credited to the second injury reserve account shall exceed a sum equivalent to three times the average annual incurred liability of the account to employes or their dependents during the three preceding fiscal years the surplus amount shall upon requisition of the department be transferred to the Federal Rehabilitation Fund of the State Treasury and credited to the industrial rehabilitation account in such fund All amounts so transferred shall be available and are hereby appropriated to the department for the same purposes for which moneys credited to such account are appropriated by subsection (b) of this section

Section 406 All notices and copies to which any party shall be entitled under the provisions of this article shall be served by mail or in such manner as the board shall direct For the purposes of this article any notice or copy shall be deemed served on the date when mailed properly stamped and adressed and shall be presumed to have reached the party to be served but any party may show by competent evidence that any notice or copy was not received or that there was an unusual or unreasonable delay in its transmission through the mails In any such case proper allowance shall be made for the party's failure within the prescribed time to assert any right given him by this act

The [bureau] department [the secretary] and every referee shall keep a careful record of the date of mailing every notice and copy required by this act to be served on the parties in interest

Section 407 On or after the [tenth] seventh day after any accident shall have occurred the employer and employe or his dependents may agree upon the compensation payable to the employe or his dependents under this act but any agreement made prior to the [tenth] seventh day after the accident shall have occurred or permitting a commutation of payments contrary to the provisions of this act or varying the amount to be paid or the period during which compensation shall be payable as provided in this act shall be wholly null and void It shall be unlawful for any employer to accept a receipt showing the payment of compensation when in fact no such payment has been made

All agreements made in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be in writing and signed by all parties in interest

It shall be unlawful for any employer to procure or to cause to be procured the signature of any employe or of the dependents of any employe or of other persons in interest to any agreement or supplemental agreement which is not complete in every material respect and any employer so doing shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each offense

All agreements for compensation and all supplemental agreements for the modification suspension reinstatement or termination thereof and all receipts executed by any injured employe of whatever age or by any dependent to whom compensation is payable under section three hundred seven and who has attained the age of sixteen years years shall be valid and binding unless modified or set aside as hereinafter provided

Section 408 All agreements for compensation may be modified suspended reinstated or terminated at any time by a supplemental agreement approved by the [board] department if the incapacity of an injured employe has increased decreased recurred or temporarily or finally terminated or if the status of any dependent has changed

Section 409 Whenever an agreement or supplemental agreement shall be executed between an employer and an employe or his dependents as provided by this act such agreement shall be executed in triplicate Two copies thereof signed by all parties in interest shall be mailed or delivered to the [board] department within thirty days after execution by the claimant It shall be the duty of the [board] department to examine the agreement to determine whether it conforms to the provisions of section four hundred and seven to notify the parties thereto of its validity or invalidity under the aforesaid section within thirty days after the copies of the agreement have been mailed or delivered to it and if the agreement be approved to send to the employe together with such notification of its approval a copy of the agreement Provided however That any payment made in accordance with any agreement prior to the receipt of notice of invalidity shall discharge pro tanto the liability under article three of this act of the employer making such payments

Whenever an agreement or a supplemental agreement is disapproved by the department the employer shall pay to the employe compensation on the basis of such agreement to such extent as the agreement would if approved require Compensation on the basis of such agreement shall be paid until such time as the employer's liability for compensation is finally determined under the provisions of this act Any payments made by an employer in accordance with such agreement shall discharge pro tanto his liability for such compensation as may be subsequently determined to be due the employe under the provisions of this act

Any employer who shall fail to mail or deliver to the department two copies of any agreement or supplemental agreement within thirty days after such agreement or supplemental agreement is executed by the claimant shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each such failure

Section 410 If after any accident the employer and the employe or his dependent concerned in any accident shall fail to agree upon the facts thereof and the compensation due under this act the employe or his dependents or the department for and on behalf of such employe or his dependents whenever an agreement or supplemental agreement has been disapproved by the department or it shall otherwise deem it to be in the interests of justice to do so may present a claim for compensation to the board All allegations contained in the claim petition must be separately and specifically admitted or denied by the defendant Claimant shall have a right upon a petition to the referee and his order thereon to inspect the premises where the claimant's alleged injury was received

Whenever any claim for compensation is presented to the board other than claims of non-resident alien dependents and is finally adjudicated in favor of the claimant the amounts of compensation actually due at the time the first payment is made after such adjudication shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum beginning fourteen days after the date of the accident and such interest shall be payable to the same person as the compensation is payable

In case any claimant shall die before the final adjudication of his claim the amount of compensation due such claimant to the date of death shall be paid to the dependents entitled to compensation or if there be no dependents then to the estate of the decedent

Section 411 Whenever the employer and the employe or his dependent shall on or after the [tenth] seventh day after any accident agree on the facts on which a claim for compensation depends but shall fail to agree on the compensation payable thereunder they may petition the board to determine the compensation payable Such petition shall contain the agreed facts and shall be signed by all parties in interest The board shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition and shall notify all parties in interest As soon as may be after such hearing the board shall award or disallow compensation in accordance with the provisions of this act

Section 412 If any party shall desire the commutation of future instalments of compensation he shall present a petition therefor to the board

Section 413 The board or a referee designated by the board may at any time review and modify or set aside an original or supplemental agreement upon petition filed by either party with the board or in the course of the proceedings under any petition pending before such board or referee if it be proved that such agreement in any material respect is incorrect

The board or referee designated by the board may at any time modify reinstate suspend or terminate an original or supplemental agreement or an award upon petition filed by either party with such board upon proof that the disability of an injured employe has increased decreased recurred or has temporarily or finally ceased or that the status of any dependent has changed Such modification reinstatment suspension or termination shall be made as of the date upon which it is shown that the disability of the injured employe has increased decreased recurred or has temporarily or finally ceased or upon which it is shown that the status of any dependent has changed Provided That except in the case of eye injuries an agreement or an award can only be reviewed modified or reinstated if a petition is filed with the board within one year after the date of the last payment of compensation with or without an agreement

The board or referee to whom any such petition has been assigned may subpoena witnesses hear evidence make findings of fact and award or disallow compensation in the same manner and with the same effect and subject to the same right of appeal as if such petition were an original claim petition

The filing of a petition to terminate or modify a compensation agreement or award as provided in this section shall operate as a supersedeas and shall suspend the payment of compensation fixed in the agreement or by the award [in whole or] to such extent as the facts alleged in the petition would if proved require except that the filing of a petition relative to a change in or termination of the disability of an injured person shall not act as a supersedeas unless such petition contains an affidavit by a physician that he has examined the claimant a percentage estimate of the extent of disability and that the petitioner in his opinion is entitled to the relief prayed for in the petition Payment must be made up to date of the filing of the petition to terminate and in the case of a petition to modify in accordance with the per centum of liability admitted in such petition In any such action to terminate or modify the burden of proof shall be upon the party filing such petition No petition to terminate or modify an existing agreement or award shall be filed while said agreement or award is being adjudicated

Section 414 Whenever a claim petition or other petition is presented to the board the board shall by general rules or special order either direct it to be heard by one or more members of the board or assign it to a referee for hearing Provided however that petitions presented under sections four hundred and eleven and four hundred and twelve shall be heard by one or more members of the board

The [secretary] department shall serve upon each adverse party a copy of the petition together with a notice that such petition will be heard by the board or the referee to whom it has been assigned (giving his name and address) as the case may be and if the petition shall have been assigned to a referee shall mail the original petition to such referee together with copies of the notices served upon the adverse parties

Section 415 At any time before an award or disallowance of compensation or order has been made by a referee to whom a petition has been assigned the board may order such petition heard before it or one or more of its members or may reassign it to any other referee Unless the board shall otherwise order the testimony taken before the original referee shall be considered as though taken before the board or substituted referee

Section 416 Within ten days after a copy of any petition has been served upon any adverse party he may file with the secretary of the board if the petition has been directed to be heard by the board or with the referee if the petition has been assigned to a referee an answer in the form prescribed by the board

Every fact alleged in a petition not specifically denied by an answer so filed by an adverse party shall be deemed to be admitted by him But the failure of any adverse party or of all of them to deny a fact so alleged shall not preclude the board or referee before whom the petition is heard from requiring of its or his own motion proof of such fact

Section 417 As soon as may be after the twelfth day after notice that a petition has been directed to be heard by the board has been served upon the adverse parties thereof the board shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition If a petition be assigned to a referee he shall twelve days after notice that such petition has been assigned to him has been served upon the adverse parties fix a time and a place for hearing the petition Such hearing shall not be less than five nor more than fourteen days after the mailing of notice thereof by the referee The secretary of the board if the petition has been directed to be heard by the board or by one or more of its members or the referee to whom the petition has been assigned shall serve upon all parties in interest a notice of the time and place of hearing and shall serve upon the petitioner a copy of any answer of any adverse party

Section 418 The board if a petition is directed to be heard by it or by one or more of its members or the referee to whom a petition is assigned for hearing may subpoena witnesses order the production of books and other writings and hear evidence and shall make in writing and as soon as may be after the conclusion of the hearings such findings of fact conclusions of law and award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the petition and answers and the evidence produced before it or him and the provisions of this act shall in its or his judgment require The findings of fact made by the board in any petition heard by it or by one or more of its members or upon a hearing de novo shall be final except as hereinafter provided and the findings of fact made by a referee to whom a petition has been assigned or any question of fact has been referred under the provisions of section four hundred and nineteen shall be final unless an appeal is taken as provided in this act or unless the board shall under the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-five of this article grant a hearing de novo or a rehearing

Section 419 The board may refer any question of fact arising under any petition including a petition for commutation heard by it to a referee to hear evidence and report to the board the testimony taken before him or such testimony and findings of fact thereon as the board may order The board may refer any question of fact arising out of any petition assigned to a referee to any other referee to hear evidence and report the testimony so taken thereon to the original referee

Section 420 The board or a referee if it or he deem it necessary may of its or his own motion either before during or after any hearing make an investigation of the facts set forth in the petition or answer The board or referee with the consent of the board [may] shall whenever it shall be deemed in the interest of justice to do so appoint one or more impartial physicians or surgeons to examine the injuries of the plaintiff and report thereon or he may employ the services of such other experts as shall appear necessary to ascertain the facts The report of any physician surgeon or expert appointed by the board or by a referee shall be filed with the board or referee as the case may be and shall be a part of the record and open to inspection as such

The board shall fix the compensation of such physicians surgeons and experts which when so fixed shall be paid by the employer to the physician surgeon or expert If any employer shall fail to pay such cost promptly the physician surgeon or expert may proceed to collect the same in the manner provided in this act for the collection of awards of compensation

Section 421 All hearings before the board or one or more members thereof or before a referee shall be public

Section 422 Neither the board nor any of its members nor any referee shall be bound by the technical rules of evidence in conducting any hearing or investigation but all findings of fact shall be based only upon competent evidence

If any party or witness resides outside of the Commonwealth or through illness or other cause is unable to testify before the board or a referee his or her testimony or deposition may be taken within or without this Commonwealth in such manner and in such form as the board may by special order or general rule prescribe The records kept by a hospital of the medical or surgical treatment given to an employe in such hospital shall be admissible as evidence of the medical and surgical matters stated therein but shall not be conclusive proof of such matters

Section 423 Any party in interest may within twenty days after notice of a referee's award or disallowance of compensation shall have been served upon him take an appeal to the board on the ground (1) that the award or disallowance of compensation is not in conformity with the terms of this act or that the referee committed any other error of law (2) that the findings of fact and award or disallowance of compensation was unwarranted by the evidence or was procured by fraud coercion or other improper conduct of any party in interest The board may upon cause shown extend the time provided in this article for taking such appeal or for the filing of an answer or other pleading

In any such appeal the board may disregard the findings of fact of the referee and may examine the testimony taken before such referee and if it deem proper may hear other evidence and may substitute for the findings of the referee such findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee and the board as hereinbfore provided may in the judgment of the board require and may make such disallowance or award of compensation or other order as the facts so found by it may require

Section 424 Whenever an appeal shall be based upon an alleged error of law it shall be the duty of the board to grant a hearing thereon The board shall fix a time and place for such hearing and shall serve notice thereof on all parties in interest

As soon as may be after such hearing the board shall either sustain or reverse the referee's award or disallowance of compensation or make such modification thereof as it shall deem proper

Section 425 Whenever an appeal shall be taken on the ground that the referee's award or disallowance of compensation was unwarranted by the evidence or because of fraud coercion or other improper conduct by any party in interest the board may in its discretion grant a hearing de novo before the board or one or more of its members or assign the petition for rehearing to any referee designated by it or sustain the referee's award or disallowance of compensation If the board shall grant a hearing de novo it shall fix a time and place for same and shall notify all parties in interest

As soon as may be after any hearing de novo by the board it shall in writing state its findings of fact and award or disallow compensation in accordance with the provisions of this act

Section 426 The board upon petition of any party and upon cause shown at any time before the Court of Common Pleas of any county of this Commonwealth to [whom] which an appeal has been taken under the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-seven of this article shall have taken final action thereon may grant a rehearing of any petition upon which the board or referee has made an award or disallowance of compensation or other order or ruling or upon which the board has sustained or reversed any action of a referee The time for taking appeals shall be suspended pending the determination of the first petition for rehearing in those cases in which such petition is filed within twenty days from notice of decision of the Workmen's Compensation Board [but such rehearing shall not be granted more than two years after the board has made such award disallowance or other order or ruling or has sustained or reversed any action of the referee] If the board shall grant a rehearing of any petition from [the board's] its action on which an appeal has been taken to and is pending in the Court of Common Pleas of any county of this Commonwealth under the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-seven of this article the board shall file in such court a certified copy of its order granting such rehearing and it shall thereupon be the duty of such court to cause the record of the case to be remitted to the board Provided however That nothing contained in this section shall limit or restrict the right of the board or a referee designated by the board to review modify set aside reinstate suspend or terminate an original or supplemental agreement or an award in accordance with the provisions of section four hundred thirteen of this article

Section 427 Any party may appeal from any action of the board on matters of the law to the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the accident occurred or of the county in which the adverse party resides or has a permanent place of business or by agreement of the parties to the Court of Common Pleas of any other county of this Commonwealth Such appeal must be brought within twenty days after notice of the action of the board has been served upon such party unless any Court of Common Pleas to which an appeal lies shall upon cause shown extend the time herein provided for taking the appeal The party taking the appeal shall at the time of taking the appeal serve upon the adverse party a written notice thereof setting forth the date of the appeal and the court in which the same is filed and shall file either with his notice of appeal or within thirty days thereafter such exceptions to the action of the board as he may desire to take and shall specify the findings of fact if any of the board or of the referee sustained by the board which he alleges to be unsupported by compentent evidence

Upon filing of the notice of an appeal the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas to which the appeal has been taken shall issue a writ of certiorari directed to the [Workmen's Compensation Board] board commanding it within ten days after service thereof to certify to such court its entire record in the matter in which the appeal has been taken The writ so issued shall be mailed by the prothonotary to the [Bureau] department at Harrisburg together with a copy of the exceptions The board shall within ten days after such service certify to such court its entire record in the matter in which the appeal has been taken including the rules of of testimony

Any court before whom an appeal is pending from any action of the board may remit the record to the board for more specific findings of fact if the findings of the board or referee are not in its opinion sufficient to enable it to decide the question of law raised by the appeal

If the Court of Common Pleas of any county of this Commonwealth shall affirm an award or order of the board or of a referee sustained by the board fixing the compensation payable under this act the court shall enter judgment for the total amount stated by the award or order to be payable whether then due and accrued or payable in future installments If such court shall sustain the appellant's exceptions to a finding or findings of fact and reverse the action of the board founded thereon the court shall remit the record to the board for further hearing and determination in which the procedure shall be the same as that hereinbefore provided in this article in the case of a petition presented to the board except that the board may order that any part of the testimony taken in the original proceedings may be considered as though taken in such further hearing

The prothonotary of any Court of Common Pleas to which an appeal has been taken from the board shall send to the board a certificate of the judgment of the court as soon as rendered with a copy of any opinion which may be filed in the case and within five days shall give notice of such judgment and the date thereof by registered mail to each attorney-at-law appearing in the case at the address given by the attorney in the pleadings and if no attorney-at-law has appeared by registered mail to the party or parties not represented by counsel At the end of the period hereinafter allowed for an appeal from the judgment of the court the record of the board shall be remitted to it by the prothonotary unless an appeal shall have been taken to the Superior Court as hereinafter provided If such appeal shall be taken the record shall be remitted to the board by the prothonotary on its return from the appellate court

Any party may appeal to the Superior Court from the judgment of the Court of Common Pleas within thirty days after entry of said judgment irrespective of the amount involved Such appeal shall be taken and prosecuted in the same manner and form and with the same effect as is provided in other cases of appeal to the Superior Court and the record so certified shall contain all that was before the Court of Common Pleas Any appeal from the action of the board to a Court of Common Pleas and from it to the Supreme Court shall take precedence over all other civil action The judgment of the Superior Court shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is allowed by the Supreme Court as in the case of other judgments of [that tribunal] the Superior Court

Section 428 At any time after the approval of a compensation agreement or after an award or order has been made by the board or referee the department the employe or dependent entitled to compensation thereunder may file a certified copy of the agreement and the order of the board approving the same or of the award or order with the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county and the prothonotary shall enter the total amount of compensation stated in the agreement award or order to be payable to the employe or his dependents whether then due and accrued or payable in future instalments as a judgment against the employer or other party liable under such agreement or award Such judgment shall be a lien against property of the employer or other party liable under such agreement or award and execution may issue thereon forthwith

Wherever after an accident any employe or his dependents shall have entered into a compensation agreement his employer or shall file a claim petition with the board he may file a certified copy thereof with the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county The prothonotary shall enter the amount stipulated in any such agreement or claimed in any such petition as judgment against the employer If the agreement be approved by the Department or compensation awarded as claimed in the petition the amount of compensation stipulated in the agreement or claimed in the petition shall be a lien as of the date when the agreement or petition was filed with the prothonotary Pending the approval of the agreement or the award of compensation no other lien which may be attached to the employer's property during such time shall gain priority over the lien of such agreement or award but no execution shall issue on any compensation judgment before the approval of the agreement or the award of compensation on the said petition

If the agreement be disapproved or after hearing compensation shall be disallowed the employer may file with the prothonotary of any county in which the petition or agreement is on record as a judgment a certified copy of the disapproval of the agreement or disallowance of compensation and it shall be the duty of such prothonotary to strike off the judgment

If the amount of compensation claimed be disallowed but another amount awarded the compensation judgment shall be a lien to the extent of the award as of the date of filing the petition with the prothonotary with the same effect as to other liens and the same disability to issue execution thereon as if the compensation claimed had been allowed In such cases the prothonotary shall make such modification of the record as shall be appropriate

If the compensation payable under any agreement or award upon which judgment has been entered under the provisions of this section shall be modified suspended reinstated or terminated by a supplemental agreement executed under the provisions of section four hundred and eight or by an award or order made under the provisions of section four hundred and thirteen any party to such judgment at any time after such agreement has been approved by the Department or after the expiration of the time allowed for an appeal from the award or order may file with the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county in which the judgment is on record a certificate copy of such supplemental agreement award or order and it shall thereupon be the duty of the prothontary to modify suspend re-instate or satisfy judgment in accordance with the terms of such supplemental agreement award or order

Execution may issue by first filing with the prothonotary an affidavit that there has been a default in payments of compensation due on any judgment for compensation entered prior to the approval of the compensation agreement or an award on petition as soon as such agreement shall have been approved by the department or such award made as evidenced by the approval of the board of the award or by a certified copy thereof

Execution shall in all cases be for the amount of compensation and interest thereon due and payable up to the date of the issuance of said execution with costs and further execution may issue from time to time as further compensation shall become due and payable until full amount of the judgment with costs shall have actually been paid

Section 429 If any party against whom a compensation agreement award or other order fixing the compensation payable under this act has been filed or record in any county of this Commonwealth in accordance with the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-eight of this article or against whom judgment has been entered by the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county on any award or order of the board or a referee shall at any time present to the board receipts or copies thereof certified by any referee showing the payment of compensation as required by the agreement or award in full to the date of presentation to the referee the board shall issue a certificate to such party in the form prescribed stating the extent to which the judgment on the agreement or award has been reduced Upon the presentation of such certificate to the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county in which such agreement or award has been filed of record as a judgment or in which judgment on an award has been entered by the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas it shall be the prothonotary's duty to mark such judgment satisfied to the extent of the payments so certified and upon the presentation to such prothonotary of a certificate issued by the board under the provisions of section three hundred and seventeen of this act it shall be the duty of the prothonotary to mark such judgment fully satisfied

Section 430 The lien of any judgment entered upon any award shall not be divested by any appeal If however the party appealing from the award shall file with the board a bond in such amount and in such form as the rules and regulations of the board shall direct the appeal shall pending its decision excuse the payment of so much of the compensation as is contested therein but if the final decision on appeal shall sustain the award it shall be the duty of the employer by whom such award is payable to make payments of compensation as from the date of the original award If on appeal the award is sustained as to a part it shall be the duty of the employer by whom such part is payable to make payments as from the date of the original award In case the award is annulled on appeal it shall be the duty of the prothonotary of any county in which such award has been entered as a judgment to mark it satisfied

Section 431 The cost of the prothonotary for entering the amount of compensation as provided in this act or making a modification of the record or marking the judgment satisfied shall be allowed taxed and collected as upon a confession of judgment on a judgment note

Section 432 It shall be the duty of the prothonotary of each Court of Common Pleas and of the Supreme and Superior Court of the Commonwealth to make a monthly report to the board of the disposition of all appeals taken to such court under the provisions of this article

Section 433 A document on file in the [bureau] department or with the board or any referee or part of the record of any proceedings taken under Articles III and IV of this act shall be proved by a copy thereof certified by the Department under the seal of the Department or certified by the chairman of the board and attested by the secretary of the board under seal of the board as the case may be

Section 434 A final receipt given by an employe or dependent entitled to compensation under a compensation agreement or award reciting that the disability or dependency has terminated shall be prima facie evidence of the termination of the employer's liability to pay compensation under such agreement or award Provided however That the board or referee designated by the board may at any time within six hundred weeks from the date of the injury set aside a final receipt upon petition filed with the board if it be proved that at the time of the execution of the receipt the injured employe was not in fact able to return to work without loss of earning power or that the employe had a condition which resulted from the accident which condition existed at the time the compensation agreement was executed and which was not covered by such agreement or that the employe had an existing disability at the time the final receipt was taken

Payments shall be made by the employer or insurance carrier on every agreement or award other than for a definite period until a final receipt has been filed with and approved by the department or until a petition to terminate or modify has been under section four hundred and thirteen

Section 435 Any hospital institution physician surgeon or other person who has furnished surgical medical dental or nursing services hospital treatment artificial appliances medicines or supplies for which the employer is made liable under the provisions of this act shall be deemed a party in interest and have standing with consent of the claimant before the board or any referee designated by the board and the courts of this Commonwealth to present a claim for remuneration for such services hospital treatment artificial appliances medicine and supplies and have the same heard and determined and shall be entitled to receive an award for such remunerations Any such claimant shall be entitled to enforce any such award in the same manner as claimants of compensation are entitled to enforce awards of compensation

Section 436 The board or a referee designated by the board or any court of this Commonwealth in granting an award of compensation to an injured employe or his dependents or in affirming or modifying and affirming such an award or in reversing the disallowance of such an award shall in addition to such compensation include in such an award or judgment expert's fees if any rendered in any such proceeding payment of which may be enforced in the same manner as the payment of an award may be enforced under the provisions of this act

Section 437 Any claimant may appear in person or be represented by counsel learned in the law or he may be represented by a member of his duly recognized union or labor organization Such labor representative shall be selected by said union or labor organization and duly approved by the department to practice before any referee or the Board

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have a copy of Senate Bill No. 1127, and the language of the amendment is so indefinite that I must ask that the bill go over in its order. The language states "where a labor strike is pending." I would like to inform myself a little more about the language, and therefore, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1127, (House Bill No. 1246), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to prohibit any person firm or corporation not directly involved in a labor strike or lockout recruiting or securing or offering to secure employment for persons to take the places of employes where a labor strike or a lockout exists and providing for legally establishing employment service.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1128, (House Bill No. 1765), entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by restricting the number of assistant county superintendents providing for supervisors of special education and establishing standards of eligibility methods of appointment duties salaries and methods for the payment thereof for such supervisors of special education.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chairman of the Committee on Education, the Senator from Berks, Mr. Ruth, if he would explain to the Senate, the changes that this Act makes in reference to new county superintendent bureau, and assistant to superintendent?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, two years ago an Act was passed limiting the county superintendent bureau. This Act recognizes that law, and provides that after 1939, a Special Supervisor of Education may be appointed.

The Department of Education informed me that if this bill does not pass, the Department budget will be thrown out by $200,000. It is limiting the Act we passed two years ago.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Berks, Mr. Ruth, the Chairman of the Committee on Education.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Berks, Mr. Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chairman of the Committee on Education if this Act does anything more than he outlines. In other words, does it change the qualifications?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, not to my knowledge, but after 1939, special supervisors may be appointed—that is after 1939.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chairman a further question. I would like to ask him whether under this Act the county boards of school directors are still left with the discretion of seeking out the county superintendent of schools, or the assistant county superintendent of schools, without the Department of Education in Harrisburg?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, that is the law today.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I want to know if that is still the law.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, this does not change it to my knowledge.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42.

Barthold,	Gilson,	Lanius,	Rodgers,
Bean,	Haluska,	Law,	Rupp,

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 613

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 613 (House Bill No. 749), entitled:

An Act requiring county commissioners to provide at the expense of the county telephone typewriter and stenographic services for the county superintendent of schools.

Was defeated on final passage on May 26.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I voted 'no.'

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I voted 'no.'

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this is an Act as I take it, that provides that the county commissioners shall provide telephone, typewriter, and stenographic service for the County Superintendent of Schools. I would like to ask the Senator from Centre if that is not already required?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, that is not the requirement by law, but it is done in most counties.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, if it is done voluntarily, why pass an Act requiring it?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, there are still some few counties that did not do it voluntarily; and it is only fair to the Superintendent that it should be furnished.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. RICE and Mr. LAW and were as follows, viz:

Barthold,	Gilson,	Kahle,	Rice,
Bean,	Haluska,	Kunkel,	Ruth,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	Lanius,	Shapiro,
Dando,	Heyburn,	Law,	Sipe,
Dent,	Howell,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,

NAYS—13

Chapman,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Rodgers,
Deitrick,	Kilgallen,	Rankin,	Rupp,
Frey,	McGinnis,	Reed,	Wolfenden,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—22

Barthold,	Gilson,	Mallery,	Shapiro,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	McCreesh,	Sipe,

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, about this 'illegal' holiday?

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I have a copy of the bill, and understand the purpose is to celebrate, very properly, the three hundredth Anniversary of the landing of the Kalmar Nyckel and Fogel Grip on the shores of the Delaware in March, 1638.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, and there is to be a legal holiday created; but I would like to ask the Senator if that legal holiday is only in 1938, or whether it continues forever.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I regret I did not hear the Senator's question.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am hardly in accord with the purpose of the bill—to have a day of remembrance for the landing of the Kalmar Nyckel and Fogel Grip—but I am interested in learning whether this holiday, on April 8th, is to be annual or perennial; I mean whether it is to be a continuous holiday or only for the one occasion. I am perfectly sincere in asking; I want to know.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, not having read the bill myself, all I can do is to refer the Senator to it.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1359 (HOUSE BILL NO. 1387)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1359 (House Bill No. 1787), entitled:

An Act authorizing the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to prescribe rules of practice and procedure in civil actions at Law and in Equity in certain Courts of this Commonwealth to prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of any general business either civil or criminal by Judges of any Court of Record authorizing the Courts of Common Pleas to prescribe and adopt local rules not inconsistent with such general rules of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania authorizing the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to appoint a Procedural Rules Committees and to fix and define its powers and duties imposing duties on Judges and other officers of every Court of Record.

was defeated on final passage on May 27th.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted "no".

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I voted "no".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JACOBS, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—11

Ealy,	Lanius,	McCreesh,	Sipe,
Haluska,	Law,	McGinnis,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, I wish to go on record as thoroughly opposed to this bill. It takes away, in my opinion,—it takes away from the local Bar Associations the right to make their own rules; in Common Pleas, it takes away from the Legislature the right to make the laws of practice as they shall apply in our Common Pleas Courts. I appeal to my colleagues in the Senate to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Supreme Court of the United States promulgates rules for the procedure and practice which are binding and effective, on every Federal Court. This gives to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania the right to promulgate uniform rules of practice and procedure. I think a uniform rule of practice and procedure can best be established by vesting it in one body.

Every year we come here, every Session of this Legislature we are passing rules for procedure and upsetting fundamental principles of law to a point of where none of us knows where we stand on procedure. If any of us would happen to have a case in a county different from our own, we would have to get out our book of rules and spend a week looking up the procedure.

There is no fundamental change in the law,—the fundamental law remains the same, and the effort is to make it upon the practice and procedure in our courts; and after all, the Supreme Court has a fine old saying as to what the law is, and I see no reason why the Supreme Court cannot be the best authority in establishing procedure and practice. There is nothing in the Constitution to say that the Supreme Court shall not have the right to do so.

The Federal Courts in all districts have the uniform procedure, and you know where you stand wherever you go into a Federal Court.

This bill should meet with the approval of every lawyer in the State; it takes away nothing from anybody; and the Supreme Court has been asked by many Bar Associations about such a bill and many of the local courts will say, in answer to inquiry, that they are in favor of this bill.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, when this bill was under consideration before, not knowing the attitude the local courts might take, I voted against this bill—realizing that probably an effort would be made to reconsider it. I got in touch with the present judge and other judges of our court of our Erie County and was not only surprised to see that they were for it, but enthusiastically for it. They had examined the bill and they felt that it would be of much assistance to them.

I have no apprehension that one Session of the Legislature can preclude any other session of the Legislature from passing or amending any practice Act.

I think that as long as the local courts here feel that this is a proper measure, I, at least, would decide in reversing my vote from "no" to "aye" on this measure.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I neglected to read, and should like to call the attention of the members of this Senate to, one matter which we were concerned with last week. That was whether or not by virtue of this Act the Supreme Court, it would have a right, or would attempt to interfere with the admission of the members of the Bar in the local communities; and I was handed, by a Clerk in the Office of the Supreme Court, a copy of an order which has recently been edited—May 20th—by the Clerk, and I should like to read that to the members of the Senate, particularly to the lawyers, so that they will understand the attempt to interfere with home rule, so far as admission to the bar is concerned. I will read the order:

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA
EASTERN DISTRICT
ORDER OF THE COURT

"May 20, 1937. For a better understanding of rules 9 and 11 of this court it may not be stated that the state board is not compelled to allow an appeal from the action taken by a county board in the matter of the registration of a law student, nor is the Supreme Court compelled to allow an appeal from the action taken by the state board. The decision of a county board in the matter of the registration of a law student is conclusive in the absence of fraud or mistake. This court has never compelled a county board to register a law student nor a county court to permit an applicant for admission to the bar to practice before it. These are purely local matters to be passed upon by the county boards or the several local judges. The petition is dismissed, as this court would not compel a county board to register a law student against its own decision in the matter. A county board is not required to divulge its reasons for its action in a particular case, nor is the state board compelled to do likewise.

JOHN W. KEPHART
Chief Justice."

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in addition to that, the same phase of the Act, I would like to call the Senate's attention to the amendment which was inserted here in the Senate.

In other words, this Act gives to the local courts exclusive authority on that provision, of that phase of the rule:

"A Court of Record within this Commonwealth, but such rules shall not include any provision regulating the admission of attorneys to practice before any of the trial courts of this Commonwealth."

I would also like to call the Senate's attention to the fact that this bill does not preclude the local court from making rules, not in conflict with practice established by the Supreme Court. For years we have been trying to make uniform general rules of procedure, and at the same time through an Act of this kind is the only way that we can get this uniform court procedure and still not take away from the local courts any of the powers they should have; because this Act specifically provides that they may still make rules not inconsistent with the general rules which the Supreme Court shall promulgate.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, most of our counties now have their own rules, built up to suit their own needs by the Bar Associations of each county and the courts of each county, and I feel that what would be satisfactory rules for Tioga County would not suit Philadelphia or Pittsburgh, in Allegheny County. Now, from what I can learn, the local bar associations are against this bill. They hesitate to come out for it because the Supreme Court wants this bill.

Now, I can see how many the rules, all uniform throughout the State of Pennsylvania, would be of benefit to the Supreme Court in those cases coming before it, but outlearn the local bar associations are against this bill. will do any good. I feel the local Bar Associations will take the rules throughout the counties.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, thinking more particularly of the members of the legal profession at this minute, I was just going to remind them that the most satisfactory provision of the whole practice of law is probably the practice inequity. I believe it was in 1925, in pursuance of legislation somewhat similar to the proposed legislation, the Supreme Court enacted uniform rules for practicing in equity in all courts of the Commonwealth; and I believe that the younger lawyers in this body will agree with me in saying that this proves to be as simple as if not the most simple form of practice, and at the same time, the most satisfactory form of practice to be administered; and I think if these rules, these proposed rules, which come of this legislation, would do for us in the practice of civil cases, but the equity rule bill through the equity practice in this Commonwealth, the legislation will be a distinct step in advance in regulating the practice of law.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, under our Constitutional form of Government, we have three departments, the Executive, the Legislative, and the Judicial. I have always been strong for each department remaining within its own sphere. There is a proviso in this bill that I do not like and it reads as follows: "From and after the effective date of any rule promulgated under this section 1, and so long as said rule shall be operative, the operation of any Act of Assembly relating to practice or procedure in such courts and inconsistent with such rule shall be suspended insofar as such may be inconsistent with such rule."

In other words, the Supreme Court has a rule that will satisfy an Act of the Assembly. That however, we want the Judicial Department to stand and be joined with the Legislative Department in a very important question, and I feel that if an Act of Assembly is passed, even though the subject is regulating the procedure of the courts, that the Supreme Court should not have the power under any Act to pass a rule which would destroy an Act of Assembly passed by the Legislature. That is the reason why I voted against the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I purge myself in the eyes of the great Court for voting against this bill, for the records will show that I voted for it when it was defeated originally, and I intend to vote again; because having practiced law here for fourteen years or so; I am thoroughly convinced that this bill is a good bill, and any attorney, any member of the bar who has had the pleasure of practicing law not only in your own county, but we who have had the pleasure of practicing in other counties, know the confusion you get in when you go from one county to another with different court rules, and you do not know where you are—whether in court or out of court; and because this bill gives the Supreme Court the power to make uniform rules, so that when an attorney goes from Fayette County to Philadelphia County, he knows the rules of procedure of that setting—and I regret that this bill does not go farther. I firmly believe that the rules governing the admission of attorney to the bar ought to be uniform throughout the State. We are not living in different countries, but in different counties within the State of Pennsylvania, and I think the law should be uniform; and although I am going to vote "aye" on this bill, I regret that the rules are not uniform regarding the admission of attorneys to practice law. Why should they not be uniform in Fayette County or anywhere else? I take the same bar examination in Fayette County that would admit a man to practice in any other county of the State.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, some of us at this session have fought centralization and supported the policy of home rule. Whether I am speaking out of tune or not, I think this is a typical example of centralization along lines where we do not need centralization, and the abolition of home rule along lines where home rule has proved beneficially effective.

In answer to the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, we draw the analogy of our equity rules, we would like to say that equity is a very good point of practice from the practice in Common Pleas, for the old rule today, equity has rested in the grave of discoverages. The right of a man to appear in our Common Pleas Courts is a right which does not rest upon the grace of any sovereign. I believe the equity rules are fine—have been very good in their field, but I do not believe that the Supreme Court today should assert the rules, not only of procedure, but of practice in our Common Pleas Courts throughout this State, and take away from the Legislature, as this Act plainly does, the right to set practice rules in the future.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman on Judiciary General Committee.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, will the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General explain the purpose of this bill?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the purpose of this bill is to make it illegal for a person who has been injured in an accident of any sort and is confined to his bed in the hospital or confined to his bed at home, from giving a release which would be effective to discharge the damages which he has sustained. I might say that the bill only implies to a period of not over twenty days from the time of the accident and only while the releasor is in bed in the hospital or in bed at home.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, well, will the Senator from Centre, point out in the bill where it states that the injured party must be in bed or confined to a hospital? I have not been able to find it.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, does the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Rupp, does he not have the last reprint of the bill? May I ask what printer's number he has?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I have printer's No. 1154.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, after a sidebar conference with a Chairman of a sub-committee which handled this bill, I would like to make an explanation. It was under discussion in committee that the provisions of the bill should be limited to apply only to people who were confined to a hospital or a bed at home on account of accidents, but the Chairman of the sub-committee told me that the sub-committee in its wisdom felt that it would be better policy to limit the period to twenty days rather than to gamble on the uncertainty of whether the subject was in bed at home or in a hospital.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I think that this bill is a very vicious bill. I think members of the legal profession will agree that this is one bill that encourages the "ambulance chaser." If I ever saw a bill particularly drawn for ambulance chasing, this is one bill. It permits any party who has signed a release for damages, because of personal injuries or death resulting from unlawful violence or negligence to void a release within twenty days after such injuries or death; that within those twenty days, Mr. President, the "ambulance chaser" has all the time in the world. after he has discovered the exact rules surrounding the case to go in there and convince the injured party that he has not gotten enough out of the insurance company, and then he can turn around and void his release and, with the encouragement of the ambulance chaser, go into court and instead of collecting $100.00, which might have amply covered his injuries, the ambulance chaser will convince him he can recover a $1,000.00 before a jury.

Do not let us forget this; that where there is an accident paid for by the Insurance Company, we, who are also insured by that Company, are indirectly helping to pay the bill; and if we want to encourage large verdicts created by ambulance chasing lawyers to get crooked juries or political juries—which is a racket in some parts of this State, as we all know—then, by all means, vote for this bill before us now.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I might just say this, that this is an attempt to sort of even up on this business of protecting people who have sustained injuries. We passed earlier in the session a bill to prohibit ambulance chasing; I was the sponsor of that bill myself; its number was 829. Now, this bill does not go a bit further in prohibiting those who have been injured from being victimized by shrewd representatives of insurance companies. It is not going any further that way than the other bill did to protect those people who are responsible in damages. I think it is only fair to pass this bill, in view of the other bill that went before it.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, on the statement he just made.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, Is it not now the present law that a release obtained under a misrepresentation or by deception is illegal and void; that is, the courts may set aside a release when it is obtained under a misrepresentation, or if the signer of the release at the time was not aware of the facts upon which the release is based?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, that is right; but anyone who has any experience in setting aside such releases unquestionably knows there is a very heavy burden of proof in setting aside the affected document, and I am sure that the Senator from Fayette knows of any number of instances where the instrument should have been set aside and was not, for want of proof by the injured party that it should be set aside.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the Court, in its discretion, may now set aside, under the present law, a release obtained under a misrepresentation, or one in which the signer was not aware of the facts. Under this act it would be mandatory, would it not, to set it aside?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, after a certain period of time they can come in and set aside the release. This act makes voidable any such releases that were obtained within twenty days after the accident.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not know how it is in other counties, but in Philadelphia County, when a man who is injured signs a release to the Insurance Company or a power of attorney to a lawyer, it depends on who has the fastest runner. The hospitals are beseiged by runners from insurance companies and from lawyers, the one tries to get him to sign a release, by paying a small sum, and the other tries to get him to sign a power of attorney, by promises of large sums of money he could get from a jury if his case goes to trial. However, pass this bill, and the effect will be that no insurance company will send a man hereafter to the hospital or to the home for twenty days, and that will be a good thing; and no lawyer will send a runner.

Now, the reason this bill did not provide for the case where the person confined to the hospital or to the home, was that the gentlemen who were on the said committee came to a conclusion that if it were attached to the bill, the fact that the release would be voidable if the patient were confined for a period in the hospital or at home,—it would be at that place the plaintiff would have to produce witnesses to prove he was not able to be up and around; but cutting it down from thirty days to twenty days, with the fact in mind that no release would be obtained for twenty days, we of the Committee thought this was a good bill, and should be passed.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, does not the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, think that the same practical purpose could be accomplished by merely shifting the burden of proof on a release to be signed within the thirty to twenty days, rather than to prohibit any such release?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, no, we were afraid of what the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Rupp, spoke about—these political or fixed juries. I do not know so much about it as he does, but we were afraid to get before such juries even on the question of proof, and so we changed it from thirty to twenty days.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. This is not necessary if this bill is permitted to go over in order, until we have seen what these amendments mean.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, it will be too late then.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, I desire to state that this bill amends the County Code. As it stands now, sections 246, 256 and 262 of the County Code are amended by this bill. The amendments I just offered amend Section 246 of the same Code, so that these amendments offered do not in any manner affect the bill as it stands here and as it appears on this calendar and on the desk of each Senator. The amendments that I offer add a new section, and additional section amending the County Code, and the amendments offered apply only to counties of the Fourth Class.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, that may be true, but the Senator should realize that there are many Senators here who represent counties of the fourth class. I object to the amendments being made and ask for a roll call.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the title of the bill was agreed to.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the second section of the bill was agreed to.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the first section of the bill was agreed to.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections two hundred forty-six and two hundred fifty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President I move to Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 4, by striking out the words: "sections two hundred forty-six and two hundred fifty-six" and inserting in lieu there:; section two hundred and forty-six; Amend bill, page 4, by inserting between lines 12 and 13 the following: Section 2. Section two hundred forty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 247. Filling of Vacancies. If any vacancy shall occur, either by death, resignation, removal from office or from the county, or otherwise, the judges of the Court of Common Pleas shall supply such vacancy by the appointment of a competant person to fill the office during the balance of the unexpired term: Provided, however, That, in counties of the fourth class, the Governor shall supply such vacancy by appointment, as aforesaid.

Section 3. Section two hundred fifty-six of said act, as amended by the act, approved the ninth day of June. one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 401), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—21.

Less than a majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 650, on third reading postponed, entitled:

An Act relating to weights and measures; regulating the weights and deliveries of commercial laundries, performing, selling or offering for sale laundry service on the basis of weight; and providing penalties.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, explain the purpose of this bill?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, this bill is similar to a bill passed not long ago in connection with certain laundries which sell their services on the basis of weight. Now, there is room for fraud upon the public, and the purpose of this bill is to subject these laundries which are selling their services on the basis of weight to the supervision of the Bureau of Weights and Measures.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is it not true that this bill requires that each laundry shall furnish a ticket—hold a ticket?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I am going to paraphrase Shakespeare when he says, "What is in a name?"—I say, "What is in a ticket?"

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it would give the Department of Revenue the right to supervise laundries in Philadelphia,—that is true, under this bill, is it not?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, they will not be subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Revenue, but will be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Weights and Measurers.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, as I read the bill it gives the right to the Department of Revenue to enforce the penal provision of this Act; the Bureau of Weights and Measurers will investigate, and the Secretary of Internal Affairs will enforce the measure. I think the Secretary has enough to do without having to wash dirty linen.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, in defense of this measure I will state that some of the outlying jurisdictions on the borders of Pennsylvania have enforced such a bill very successfully and have curbed the fraud which has been perpetrated upon the public.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—13

be recommitted to the Committee on State Boards for the purpose of further study and probable amendments.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for twenty-four Senators voted in the affirmative and four in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1377, (House Bill No. 473), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the construction of a masonry weir across the Shenango River near the Chestnut Street Bridge at Sharon and the construction of a shelter house for recording devices near the weir

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1450, (House Bill No. 1962), as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Internal Affairs for the completion of certain geologic and topographic surveys and studies and the publication of the results thereof and also the republication of certain surveys and studies in order to make the same available to the citizens of the State

Whereas The topographic and geologic survey of the Department of Internal Affairs has been undermanned and ill-equipped for some years because of lack of funds and much valuable work has been only partially completed and in many cases wholly neglected because of lack of sufficient field force and office staff and

Whereas Much work of great value has been completed in whole or in part by said department as well as by private scientists university and college professors and others working in conjunction and cooperation with said department or under its direction but remains unavailable to the citizens of the State because of the inability of said department to publish the partial and final results of said work publication of which work would be of great value to the people and industries of Pennsylvania and

Whereas Pennsylvania the most valuable mineral producing state of the Union is less completely mapped than any of her surrounding sister states and

Whereas The rapid completion of the topographic and of the geological surveys of this State and the prompt publication of the results would result in an immediate increase in the knowledge of the mineral values of the Commonwealth with consequent increase in employment of additional labor and capital in the development of new enterprises as well as a great saving in the operation of our present mineral industries which are now operating in many cases in competition with those of other states having better financed and more complete geological services and in many cases also lower standards of labor than Pennsylvania therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is especially hereby appropriated to the Department of Internal Affairs for the use of the topographic and geologic survey in addition to any regular or general appropriation to said department for its usual activities for the purpose of publishing at the earliest possible time and making available to Pennsylvania citizens the complete or partially completed work of said department

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1453, (House Bill No. 1629), entitled:

An Act dedicating and setting aside certain lands in Lackawanna County as a public park and pleasure ground and imposing certain powers and duties in connection therewith on the Department of Forests and Waters

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

GEORGE H. EARLE.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President and members of the Senate, this afternoon the Senator from Westmoreland County, Mr. Dent, arose to speak on the floor of this Senate and asked me as Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining to call a meeting of my committee to act upon House Bill No. 107. I called that meeting this evening. My committee met, and we have decided to postpone further action on this bill because a bill already introduced in the House and passed by this Senate, known as House Bill No. 1983, making an appropriation of $55,000 for the same type of work, has already been passed—to take care of abandoned mines and work in conjunction with the Federal Government in this type of work. I wish to make this explanation so you might know why the Committeee on Mines and Mining postponed action on House Bill No. 107 indefinitely.

The House met at 2:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER, (ROY E. FURMAN), in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Rev. HOWARD CURTIS FRY, Pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Shiremanstown, offered the following prayer:

O Lord God of Hosts, who holdest in Thy might all the power of men, we thank Thee for the revelation which Thou hast made of Thy perfect Self, and of Thy righteous will; for the way in which Thou hast established governments; for the direction of the temporal welfare of Thy people; for the way in which Thou hast used this our land; for the freedom of the enslaved portions of mankind.

In this memorial season, as we think of those upon whose lives, upon whose ideas this Nation has been founded; of those by whose service freedom has been won; of the high ideals of Thy people inculcated, we pray that by Thy spirit Thou wilt continue to use this, Thy people, this our State, within that Nation, for the continuance of those noble principles which make for the upbuilding of mankind.

To this end we pray for Thy blessing upon our President, the Governor of this Commonwealth, our legislators and all our magistrates, that they who guide us in the affairs of state may be motivated only by those things and those ideals which make for the ennoblement of life.

Do Thou grant Thy blessing, Thy spirit's presence, His wisdom, His counsel to those who here plan and devise ways for the direction of this our Commonwealth, and may Thy spirit ever use them to Thy glory and to the good of all mankind. And may that same spirit, the spirit of peace, guide us always in those plans and in those ways which make for the attainment of the vision of the prophets who forsaw that day when spears should be beaten into pruning hooks and men should hear of wars no more.

Hear us in this our prayer for counsel, for guidance, for peace.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 28, 1937.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 872, Printer's No. 914, entitled "An act providing that officials charged with the duty of assessing real estate for taxation may at any time split or separate the assessment on any tract of real estate which has been or is to be divided in order to permit the payment of taxes due on a portion of such tract requiring tax collectors to accept payment of such taxes and validating all such split or separated assessments heretofore made."

This bill would authorize officials charged with the duty of assessing real estate for taxation (except in cities of the first class) to split or separate, at any time, the assessment on any tract of real estate which has been, or is to be, divided, in order to permit and facilitate the payment of a portion of the taxes levied on such tract of real estate, which partial payment would represent the taxes due upon a fixed and described parcel of such tract. The bill would also ratify acts of officials charged with the duty of assessing real estate for the purpose of taxation, who have heretofore split or separated the assessment on any tract of real estate in the manner provided in this bill. The bill would apply, not only to taxes hereafter levied and assessed, but also to taxes heretofore assessed and liened against property.

The effect of this bill would be to permit a landowner having the opportunity of selling a portion of his real estate to pay the taxes on that portion and leave the taxes pertaining to the remainder of the tract unpaid until some future time, with the possibility of such remaining taxes never being paid. In other words, the owner of a tract of land would be able to carve out of that tract the valuable portion of the real estate for the purpose of sale, and pay the taxes thereon, without paying the accrued taxes on the less valuable portions of the tract.

This bill is undesirable in at least two respects. In the first place, it would encourage the taxpayer to become delinquent in the payment of taxes on the less valuable portions of his property. In the second place, it would establish a procedure whereby a real estate speculator owning a large tract of land would be enabled to convey separate parcels thereof, and pay the back taxes on such parcels, and ultimately leave the residue of the tract go for accumulated unpaid taxes, at the expense of the general taxpayers.

It is the purpose of this administration to alleviate taxpayers' burdens. The advantages which would be afforded real estate developers under this bill would be greatly outweighed by the disadvantages which would result to the general taxpayers.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

Section 30 Unless it is found to be in the interest of the service not to fill the vacant position the appointing authority within a reasonable time to be fixed by the rules of the Commission shall appoint the person whose name has been certified from the re-employment list or in case there is no re-employment list the appointing authority shall with sole reference to the relative merit and fitness of the candidates make an appointment from the two names certified from the employment list After any name has been rejected twice by any one appointing authority for the same or a similar position in favor of others on the same employment list such name shall not again be certified to the appointing authority unless requested by such authority In case an employment list consists of less than two names the appointing authority may at his option expressed in writing to the Director at the time of appointment treat such appointment as provisional

Section 31 Appointing authorities shall promptly report to the Director the selection and appointment of eligibles whose names have been certified If an eligible whose name has been certified shall refuse to accept an appointment offered to him such refusal shall be promptly investigated by the Director and if it be found that the refusal has been made for improper or insufficient reasons the Director may remove his name from the employment or re-employment list

Section 32 In case a vacancy of a permanent position in the classified service is to be filled and no person whose name is on the re-employment or employment list for the class is willing to accept appointment or there is no re-employment or employment list for the class the Director subject to the approval of the Commission may if necessary to prevent the cessation of public business but not otherwise authorize the provisional appointment of a qualified person with or without holding any test In all such cases the provisional appointee shall before beginning work fill out and forward to the Director an application form Each such provisional appointment shall only be effective until an appropriate re-employment or employment list has been established and shall not in any event continue for a total of more than ninety days

Section 33 When from pressure of work an extra position in the classified service must be established for a period of less than six months the appointing authority shall request the Director in writing to certify the name of a qualified person In such request the appointing authority shall state the cause of the extra work the probable length of employment and unless the position has been classified the duties which the appointee is to perform The Director shall thereupon authorize the appointment with or without competitive tests of a qualified person for a period not exceeding ninety days Such temporary appointments shall not be renewed more than once As far as practicable however temporary appointment to extra positions shall be made following certification from re-employment and employment lists

Section 34 Any appointing authority or any subordinate authorized by him may to prevent cessation of public business when an emergency arises and time will not permit of securing the authorization from the Director for the appointment of a certified eligible appoint any qualified person during the emergency for a period not exceeding ten days A vacancy in a position of which the appointing authority has had reasonable notice or employment concerning the conditions of which the appointing authority had previous knowledge or of which by the exercise of due diligence he might have had previous knowledge shall not hovewer be considered an emergency Persons thus appointed shall be known as "emergency employes" Appointing authorities shall forthwith report to the Director all emergency appointments and such appointments shall not be renewed

Section 35 To enable the appointing authority to exercise a choice in the selective process involved in the filling of positions no appointment to a position in the classified service whether made from a re-employment list or an original entrance or promotion employment list shall be deemed complete until after the expiration of a probation period to be prescribed in the rules of the Commission The probation period shall in no case be less than three months nor more than six months At the end of the probation period any appointing authority may remove any employe from the position held by him if in his opinion the test provided by observation of his work during the test period thus afforded shows the employe to be unable or unwilling to perforf his duties in a satisfactory manner The Director may require from any appointing authority at any time during the probationary period a report showing whether any employe on probation has shown the degree of efficiency which may reasonably be demanded if he is to continue in the classified service

Section 36 The Director shall devise plans for and cooperate with appointing authorities and other supervising officials in the conduct of employe training programs to the end that the quality of service rendered by persons in the classified service may be continually improved

The thirty-seventh section was read as follows:

Section 37 A The Director subject to the approval of the Commission shall as soon as practicable after this Article takes effect establish standards of performance and a uniform system of service rating for each class of positions or for groups of classes Such standards of performance shall as far as practicable be based upon actual output including quantity and quality of work done and upon conduct and attendance Such standards of performance shall set forth the degree of efficiency which shall constitute ground for

(a) Increase in the rate of compensation for employes who have not attained the maximum rate for the class to which their positions are allocated

(b) Continuance at the existing rate of compensation without increase or decrease

(c) Decrease in the rate of compensation for employes who at the time are above the minimum rate for the class to which their positions are allocated

(d) Demotion or removal and

(e) Consideration in tests for promotion to a higher class

B The Director upon the establishment of standards of performance for any class or group of classes shall also provide for the rating according to the numerical percentage normal distribution or other plan of the service of each employe or of groups of employes by the appointing authorities in the various departments and institutions and for such report or review and revision by the Director of the ratings as may in his judgment be necessary or desirable Each appointing authority shall when requested by the Director submit such ratings to him but in no case shall an appointing authority be compelled to submit such ratings oftener than once in three months Each employe shall have the right at reasonable times during business hours to inspect his service ratings and the service ratings of other employes in the same class as shown by the records of the Commission or of the department or institution in which he is employed

Articles VIII to XVII inclusive were separately read and agreed to as follows:

ARTICLE VIII

Examination and Qualification of Miners

Section 801 Hereafter no person whosoever shall be employed or engaged in the anthracite coal regions of this Commonwealth as a miner in any anthracite coal mine without having obtained a certificate of competency and qualification so to do from the Miner's Examining Board of the proper district and having been duly registered as provided by existing law

ARTICLE IX

Duties of Miners and Other Workmen

Section 901 Before commencing work and also after the firing of every blast the miner working a breast or any other place in a mine shall enter such breast or place to examine and ascertain its condition and his laborer or assistant must not go to the face of such breast or place until the miner has examined the same and found it to be safe

Section 902 A miner or other person who is about to explode a blast by the use of patent or other squibs or matches shall not shorten the match nor saturate it with mineral oil nor turn it down when placed in the hole nor ignite it except at its extreme end nor do anything to shorten the time the match will burn

If a miner or other person uses a fuse to explode a blast such fuse shall be of sufficient length to protrude at least six (6) inches from the mouth of the hole and in no case shall the total length of the fuse be less than eighteen (18) inches

A place shall be stopped for at least thirty (30) minutes after a squib misses fire Where fuses (straight and time fuses) are used and a missed shot occurs the working place shall be stopped for at least twelve (12) hours If a misfire occurs where electric blasting caps are used an interval of at least thirty (30) minutes must elapse before workmen shall return to such working face

Section 903 A miner or other workman shall not withdraw a charge of powder or other explosive in coal slate or rock which has missed fire nor shall the hole be re-opened

Section 904 When a miner or other workman is about to fire a blast he shall be careful to notify all persons who may be in danger therefrom and shall give sufficient alarm before firing any blast by any means whatsoever so that any person or persons who may be approaching shall be warned of the danger

Section 905 Any miner or other person having charge of a working place in any mine shall keep the roof and sides thereof properly secured by timber or otherwise so as to prevent such roof and sides from falling and he shall not do any work or permit any work to be done under loose or dangerous material except for the purpose of securing the same

Section 906 Any miner or other workman who shall discover anything wrong with the ventilating current or with the condition of the roof side timber or roadway or with any other part of the mine in general such as would lead him to suspect danger to himself or his fellow workmen or to the property of his employer shall immediately report the same to the mine foreman or other person for the time being in charge of that portion of the mine

Section 907 Any miner or other workman shall not be allowed to store gunpowder or any other explosive in a mine He shall not have at any one time in any one place more than one keg or box containing twenty-five (25) pounds unless more is necessary for a person to accomplish one day's work

Section 908 Any miner or other workman who has gunpowder or other explosive in a mine shall keep it in a wooden box securely locked and such box shall be kept at least ten (10) feet from the tracks in all cases

Section 909 Whenever a miner or other workman shall open a box containing explosives or while in any manner handling the same he shall first place his open lamp not less than five (5) feet from such explosives and in such position that the air current cannot convey sparks to it and a workman shall not approach nearer than five (5) feet to an open box containing powder with a lamp lighted pipe or anything containing fire

Section 910 In charging holes for blasting in coal slate or rock no miner or other workman in any mine shall use an iron or steel pointed needle The end of any metal tamping bar must be tipped with at least six (6) inches of copper or other soft metal The hole must be large enough to admit freely the cartridge containing the explosive and in no case shall a tight cartridge be rammed into a hole

Section 911 When gas is ignited by blast or otherwise the miner or other person igniting the same shall immediately extinguish it if possible and notify the mine foreman or his assistant of the fact and workmen must see that no gas blowers are left burning upon leaving their working places

Section 912 Not more than five blasts shall be fired at the working face of a low coal seam within a period of one hour except by permission from the mine foreman or his assistant and each hole when charged and fired shall constitute a blast This section shall not pertain to cracked gangways

Section 913 No miner or laborer shall run cars out of any breast or chamber or on any gravity road unless he is a suitable person designated by the mine foreman for that particular work and no person under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be designated by any mine foreman to perform such work

Section 914 No workman or other person shall ride upon or against any loaded car cage or gun-boat in any shaft slope or plane in or about a mine or colliery

Section 915 When any person is about to descend or ascend a shaft or slope the headman or footman as the case may be shall inform the engineer by signal or otherwise of the fact and the engineer shall return a signal before moving or starting the engine In the absence of a headman or footman the person about to descend or ascend shall give and receive signals in the same manner

Section 916 No person shall couple or uncouple loaded or empty cars while the same are in motion Provided however That this shall not apply to the top or bottom men of slopes planes or shafts

Section 917 No person except the man giving the signal shall jump on a car cage or gun-boat after the signal has been given and if any person shall enter a car cage or gun-boat in excess of the lawful number the headman or footman shall notify him of the fact and request him to get off which request must be immediately complied with Any violation of this rule must be promptly reported to the mine foreman

Section 918 No workman shall pass a fenced off place a fenced off traveling way or a designated danger station unless accompanied by a colliery official or unless he has been directed by a colliery official to pass such place fenced off traveling way or such designated danger station for the purpose of making such place or places safe

ARTICLE X

Maps and Plans

Section 1001 The owner operator or superintendent of every coal mine or colliery shall make or cause to be made an accurate map or plan of the workings or excavations of such coal mine or colliery on a scale of one hundred feet to the inch which map or plan shall exhibit the workings or excavations in each and every seam of coal and the tunnels and passages connected with such workings or excavations It shall state in degrees the general inclination of the strata with any material deflection therein in said workings or excavations and shall also state the tidal elevations of the bottom of each and every shaft slope tunnel and gangway and any other point in the mine or on the surface where such elevation shall be deemed necessary by the inspector

The map or plan shall show the number of the last survey station and date of each survey on the gangways or the most advanced workings

It shall also accurately show the boundary lines of the lands of the said coal mine or colliery and the proximity of the working thereto and in case any mine contains any water dammed up in any part thereof it shall be the duty of the owner operator or superintendent to cause the true location of the said dam to be accurately marked on said map or plan together with the tidal elevation inclimation of strata and areas of said workings containing water and whenever any workings or excavations are approaching the workings where such dam or water is contained or situated the owner operator or superintendent shall notify the inspector of the same without delay

Whenever a mine fire is sealed an outline of the sealed area must be plainly shown on the mine map together with such data as the mine inspector may request pertaining to the same

Upon request of the mine inspector the location of all bore holes must be placed on the mine inspector's map and the operator or superintendent of the mine shall furnish the inspector with any additional information regarding bore holes upon his request

The said owner operator or superintendent shall deposit a true copy of such map or plan with the inspector of mines for the district in which the said coal mine or colliery is situated showing the workings of each seam if so desired by the inspector on a separate sheet of tracing muslin One copy of said map or plan shall be kept at the colliery

Section 1002 The said owner operator or superintendent shall as often as once in every six months place or cause to be placed on the said inspector's map or plan of said coal mine or colliery the plan of the extensions made in such coal mine or colliery during the preceding six months The said extensions shall be placed on the inspector's map and the map returned to the inspector within two months from the date of the last survey

Section 1003 When any coal mine or colliery is worked out preparatory to being abandoned or when any lift thereof is about to be abandoned the owner operator or superintendent of such coal mine or colliery shall have the maps or plans thereof extended to include all excavations as far as practicable and such portions thereof as have been worked to the boundary lines of adjoining properties Any part or parts of the workings which are intended to be allowed to fill with water must be surveyed in duplicate and such surveys must practically agree They shall be certified to by the owner operator or superintendent and shall be filed with the inspector of the district in which the mines are situated

Section 1004 Whenever the owner operator or superintendent of any coal mine or colliery shall neglect or refuse or from any cause not satisfactory to the inspector shall fail for a period of three months to furnish to the inspector the map or plan of said colliery or of the extensions thereto as provided for in this Article the inspector is hereby authorized to cause an accurate map or plan of such coal mine or colliery to be made at the expense of the owner thereof which cost shall be recoverable from said owner as other debts are by law recoverable

Section 1005 If the inspector finds or has reason to believe that any map or plan of any coal mine or colliery furnished under the provisions of this article is materially inaccurate it shall be his duty to make application to the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which such colliery is situated for an order to have an accurate map or plan of said colliery prepared and if such survey shall prove that the map furnished was materially inaccurate or imperfect such owner operator or superintendent shall be liable for the expense incurred in making the same

Section 1006 If it shall be found that the map or plan furnished by the owner operator or superintendent was not materially inaccurate or imperfect the Commonwealth shall be held liable for the expense incurred in making said test survey

Section 1007 If it shall be shown that the said owner operator or superintendent has knowingly or designedly caused or allowed such map or plan when finished to be incorrect or false such owner operator or superintendent thus offending shall be guilty or a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not exceeding three (3) months at the discretion of the court

Section 1008 The maps or plans of the several coal mines or collieries in each district and which are placed in the custody of the inspector shall be the property of the Commonwealth and shall remain in the care of inspector of the district in which the said collieries are situated to be transferred by him to his successor in office and in no case shall a copy of the same be made without the consent of the owner operator or superintendent

Section 1009 The inspector's map or plan of any particular colliery shall be open for inspection in the presence of the inspector to any miner or miners of that colliery whenever said miner or miners shall have cause to fear that his or their working place or places are becoming dangerous by reason of their proximity to other workings which may be supposed to contain water or dangerous gases Said map shall also be open to the inspection and examination of any citizen interested during business hours

Section 1010 It shall be obligatory on the owners of adjoining coal properties to leave or cause to be left a pillar of coal in each seam or vein of coal worked by them along the line of adjoining property of such width that taken in connection with the pillar to be left by the adjoining property owner will be a sufficient barrier for the safety of the employes of either mine in case the other should be abandoned and allowed to fill with water such width of pillar to be determined by the engineers of the adjoining property owners together with the inspector of the district in which the mine is situated Such width of pillar as shall have been agreed upon by the adjoining property owners and the mine inspector of the district shall be placed on the inspector's map without delay

The sureys of the face of the workings along such pillar shall be made in duplicate and must practically agree A copy of such duplicate surveys certified to must be filed with the owners of the adjoining properties and with the inspector of the district in which the mine or property is situated

Section 1011 At the request of the mine inspector the owner operator or superintendent of any coal mine shall furnish him with a geological cross section of such soal seams in such mine as he may require

ARTICLE XI

Shafts Slopes Openings and Outlets

Section 1101 It shall not be lawful for the owner operator or superintendent of any mine to employ any person or persons in such mine or permit any person or persons tobe in such mine for the purpose of working therein unless there are in connection with every seam of coal and from every lift thereof worked in such mine not less than two openings or outlets separated by a stratum of not less than sixty (60) feet in breadth underground and one hundred and fifty (150) feet in breadth at the surface at which openings or outlets safe and distinct means of ingress or egress are at all times available for the person or persons employed in said mine This section shall not apply to opening a new mine or to opening any new lift of a mine while being worked for the purpose of making a connection between said two outlets so long as not more than twenty (20) persons are employed at one time in such mine or new lift of a mine At least half of this number must be employed at making the second outlet Neither shall this section apply to any mine or part of a mine in which the second outlet has been rendered unavailable by reason of the final robbing of pillars previous to abandonment so long as not more than twenty (20) persons are employed therein at any one time The cage or cages and other means of egress shall at all times be available for the persons employed where there is no second outlet

Section 1102 The owner operator or superintendent of any mine to which there is only one shaft slope or outlet may petition the Court of Common Pleas in and for the county in which said mine is situated which said court is hereby empowered to act in the premises setting forth that in consequence of intervening lands between the working of his mine and the only practicable point at which to make or bring to the surface from the working of his mine he is unable to make an additional shaft slope or outlet in accordance with the requirements of this act whereupon the court may make an order of reference and appoint three disinterested persons residents of a county viewers one or more of whom shall be a practical mining engineer all of whom after being sworn to a faithful discharge of their duties shall view and examine the premises and determine as to whether the owner should have the privilege of making an additional outlet through or upon any intervening lands as the case may require and report in writing to the court which report shall be entered and filed of record

Section 1103 If the finding of the viewers or any two of them is in favor of the owner of such coal mine or colliery he may make an additional shaft slope or outlet through or upon intervening lands as may be determined upon and provided for by the award If the finding of the viewers is against the owner or if no award be made by reason of any default or neglect on the part of the owner he shall be bound to comply with the provisions of this act in the same manner as if this section had not been enacted In case the said owner operator or superintendent desires to and claims that he ought to make an additional opening under through or upon any adjoining or intervening lands to meet the requirements of this act for the ingress and egress of the men employed in his or their mine he or they shall make a statement of the facts in the petition with a survey setting forth the point of commencement and the point of termination of the proposed outlet which he or they their engineers agents or employes may enter upon said intervening lands and survey and mark as he or they shall find it proper to adopt for such additional outlet doing as little damage as possible to the property explored and the viewers shall state in their report what damage will be sustained by the owner or owners of the intervening lands by the opening construction and use of the outlet and if the report is not appealed from it shall be confirmed or rejected by said court as to right and justice shall appertain and any further and all proceedings in relation thereto shall be in conformity with like proceedings as in the case of a lateral railroad across or under intervening lands under the act in relation to lateral railroads approved the fifth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws five hundred one) and the supplements thereto so far as the provisions of the same are applicable hereto and the notices to the owner of intervening lands of the intention to apply for the privilege of making an outlet and meeting of the viewers shall be given and the costs of the case shall be paid as provided in the said act of May fifth Anno Domini one thousand neight hundred thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws five hundred one) and the supplements thereto

Section 1104 The main escapement shafts or slopes shall be fitted with safe and available appliances by which persons employed in the mine may readily escape in case an accident occurs deranging the hoisting machinery at the main outlets

Section 1105 In all slopes where the angle of inclination is fifteen (15) degrees or less there must be provided a separate traveling way which shall be maintained in a safe condition for travel and kept free from steam and dangerous gases

Section 1106 The top of each slope if dangerous or any intermediate lift thereof shall be securely fenced off by railing or by vertical or flat gates

Section 1107 Every abandoned slope shaft airhole and drift shall be properly fenced around or across its entrance

Section 1108 All underground entrances to any places not in actual course of working or extension shall be properly fenced across the whole width of such entrances so as to prevent person from inadvertently entering the same

Section 1109 The owner operator or superintendent of any coal mine or colliery which is worked by shaft or slope shall provide and maintain a telephone or suitable appliance by or through which conversation can be held by and between persons at the bottom and at the top of the shaft or slope and also an efficient means of signaling from the bottom of such shaft or slope to the engineer in charge of the hoisting engines The owner operator or superintendent of every coal mine or colliery shall provide and maintain a telephone by or through which conversations can be had between person on the outside of the mines and the principal centers of operations in the mines

Section 1110 The owner operator or superintendent of all mines shall see that the surface landing and all other landings of shafts are provided with gates so hung and adjusted that they will close automatically It shall be unlawful for any man employed as a footman at a shaft in which coal or other material is hoisted to work at this occupation unless he has provided himself with a safety headgear or helmet of a design approved by the Department of Mines which headgear or helmet must be worn by him at all times while on duty

Section 1111 Every cage or gun-boat used for lowering or hoisting persons in any shaft or slope shall be provided with handrails safety catches and a proper protector so constructed that persons while on such cage or gun-boat shall not be struck by anything which may fall or roll down said shaft or slope

Section 1112 Over all shafts which are being sunk or shall hereafter be sunk a safe and substantial structure shall be erected to sustain the sheaves or pulleys at a height of not less than twenty (20) feet above the tipping place and the top of such shaft shall be arranged in such manner that no material can fall into the shaft while the bucket is being emptied

Section 1113 The said structure shall be erected as soon as a substantial foundation is obtained and in no case shall a shaft be sunk to a depth of more than fifty (50) feet without such structure

Section 1114 If provision is made to land the bucket upon a truck the said truck shall be constructed in such manner that material cannot fall into the shaft All rock and coal from shafts as they are being sunk shall not be raised except in a bucket or on a cage and such bucket or cage must be connected to the rope or chain by a safety hook clevis or other safe attachment

Section 1115 Such shafts shall be provided with guides and guide attachments applied in such manner as to prevent the bucket from swinging while descending or ascending therein and such guides and guide attachments shall be maintained at a distance of not more than seventy-five (75) feet from the bottom of such shaft until its sinking shall have been completed but this section shall not apply to shafts one hundred (100) feet or less in depth

Section 1116 Where the strata are not safe every shaft shall be securely cased lines or otherwise made secure

Section 1117 The following rules shall be observed as far as practicable in every shaft to which this act applies

First After each and every blast the chargeman must see that all loose material is swept down from the timbers before the workmen descend to their work

Second After a suspension of work and also after firing a blast in a shaft where explosive gases are evolved the person in charge must have the said shaft examined and tested with a safety lamp before the workmen are allowed to descend

Third Not more than four persons shall be lowered or hoisted in any shaft on a bucket at the same time and no person shall ride on a loaded bucket

Fourth Whenever persons are employed on platforms in shafts the person in charge must see that the said platforms are properly and safely constructed

Fifth While shafts are being sunk all blasts therein must be exploded by an electric battery

Ventilation

Section 1201 The owner operator or superintendent of every mine shall provide and maintain a constant and adequate supply of pure air for the same as hereinafter provided

Section 1202 It shall not be lawful to use a furnace for the purpose of ventilating any mine wherein explosive gases are generated

Section 1203 The quantities of air in circulation shall be ascertained with an anemometer or other efficient instrument Such measurements shall be made by the inside foreman or his assistant once every week at the inlet and outlet airways also at or near the face of each gangway and at the nearest cross-heading to the face of the inside and outside chamber or breast where men are employed Such air measurements shall be entered in the colliery report book Cross-headings between chambers or breasts shall not be driven more than sixty (60) feet from the face of each chamber or breast A report of these air measurements shall be sent to the inspector before the twelfth day of each month for the preceding month together with a statement of the number of persons employed in each district

Section 1204 The minimum quantity of air produced shall not be less than two hundred (200) cubic feet per minute for each and every person employed in any mine and as much more as the circumstances may require

Section 1205 The ventilating currents shall be conducted and circulated to and along the face of each and every working place throughout the entire mine in sufficient quantities to dilute render harmless and sweep away smoke and noxious or dangerous gases to such an extent that all working places and traveling roads shall be in a safe and fit state to work and travel therein

Section 1206 All worked-out or abandoned parts of a mine in operation so far as practicable shall be kept free of dangerous bodies of gases or water and if found impracticable to keep the entire mine free from an accumulation of gases or water the mine inspector must be immediately notified

All accessible parts of an abandoned portion of a mine in which explosive gases have been found shall be carefully examined by the mine foreman or his assistants at least once a week and any dangerous condition found existing therein shall be immediately removed A report of said examination shall be recorded in a book kept at the colliery for the purpose and signed by the person making the same

Section 1207 Every mine employing more than seventy-five (75) persons must be divided into two or more districts Each district shall be provided with a separate split of pure air and the ventilation shall be so arranged that not more than seventy-five (75) persons shall be employed at the same time in an yone current or split of air

The inlet and return air passages for any particular district must be separated by a pillar of coal or stone if the thickness and dip of the vein will permit except where it is necessary to cut through said dividing pillar for the purpose of ventilation traffic or drainage

Section 1208 All air passages shall be of sufficient area to allow the free passage of not less than two hundred (200) cubic feet of air per minute for every person working therein and in no case in mines generating explosive gases shall the velocity exceed four hundred and fifty (450) lineal feet per minute in any opening through which the air currents pass if gauze safety lamps are used except in the main inlet or outlet airways

Section 1209 All cross-cuts connecting the main inlet and outlet air passages of every district when it becomes necessary to close them permanently shall be substantially closed with brick or other suitable building material laid in mortar or cement whenever practicable

Section 1210 All doors used in assisting or in any way affecting the ventilation shall be so hung and adjusted that they will close automatically

Section 1211 All main doors shall have an attendant whose constant duty it shall be to open them for transportation and travel and prevent them from standing open longer than is necessary for persons or cars to pass through unless a self-acting door is used which is approved by the inspector of the district

Section 1212 All main doors shall be so placed that when one door is open another which has the same effect upon the same current shall be and remain closed and thus prevent any temporary stoppage of the air current

Section 1213 An extra main door shall be so placed and kept standing open as to be out of reach of accident and so fixed that it can be at once closed in the event of an accident to the doors in use

Section 1214 The frame work of such main doors shall be substantially secured in stone or brick laid in mortar or cement unless otherwise permitted in writing by the inspector

Section 1215 All permanent air bridges shall be substantially built of fireproof material and of such strength as the circumstances may require Temporary air bridges or overcasts may be built of other suitable material upon permission from the mine inspector

Section 1216 All ventilators used at mines shall be provided with recording instruments by which the speed of the ventilators or the ventilating pressure shall be registered for each hour and such data shall be preserved at the colliery for future references for a period of three months

Section 1217 An accumulation of gas in mines shall not be removed by brushing When such accumulations occur they must be removed by sufficient air currents only

Section 1218 No auxiliary or booster fan shall be allowed in any mine unless a request in writing be made by the superintendent of such mine to the mine inspector of the district and permission granted by him to install such fan

Section 1219 Auxiliary fans driven by electric power shall not be used in gaseous mines unless the motors of such fans are enclosed in explosion proof casings approved by the United States Bureau of Mines All such fans must be located so that there shall be maintained at all times a positive separation of inlet and outlet air currents

Section 1220 All main fans used to ventilate gaseous mines shall be operated continuously when necessary for the safety of the men employed therein and when the Mine Inspector so orders During any period in which repairs are being made to any such fan or fans or for any person any such fans are stopped no person or persons shall be allowed in any gaseous part of said mine except for the purpose of making examinations and observations of gaseous conditions All such examinations shall be made with an approved safety lamp

Section 1221 Whenever a mine suspends operations temporarily and is being maintained in readiness for operation the the mine shall be examined at least once a week in the same manner as if in operation and a report of such examination shall be made in the colliery report book and signed by the person making the examination

Section 1222 When non-gaseous (Class A) mines in which mining has been suspended and fans stopped during such idle periods before such mine or mines resume mining all such fans shall be put in operation at least twelve (12) hours before work is resumed An examination of all working places haulage roads traveling roads etc shall be made before the men are allowed to enter the mine

Section 1223 When any main ventilating fans have been stopped they shall prior to the resumption of work in the mine be operated a sufficient length of time to provide a supply of air adequate enough to dilute render harmless and sweep away all smoke and noxious gases and an examination shall be made of all haulage roads traveling roads working places and other places in which accumulations of gas or smoke might endanger the safety of the workmen before the men are allowed to enter the mine

Section 1224 All inlet and outlet airways shall be kept free from all obstructions and in fit state to be traveled and inspected at all times

Section 1225 Any person or persons who shall neglect or fail to comply with the provisions of this article or who shall make any false report in regard to air measurements shall be guilty of an offense against this act

ARTICLE XIII

Underground Buildings

Section 1301 All Buildings inside of any anthracite coal mine in Pennsylvania including engine-houses pump-houses stables et cetera shall be constructed of incombustible material and no temporary buildings of any character in any mine shall be constructed unless they are constructed of incombustible material

Section 1302 Any owner operator or superintendent of a coal mine failing to comply with this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) or undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period of ten (10) days or both at the discretion of the court

ARTICLE XIV

Classification of Mines or Sections Thereof with Reference to Combustible Gas

Section 1401 All anthracite mines or sections thereof shall be classed as A B or C as hereinafter provided

Section 1402 A Class A mine or section thereof shall be considered one in which seven one-hundredths (7/100) of one per cent of combustible gas or less is found Such mine or section thereof shall be considered non-gaseous

Section 1403 A Class B mine or section thereof shall be considered one in which more than seven one-hundredths (7/100) of one per cent and less than five-tenths (5/10) of one per cent of combustible gas is found

Section 1404 A Class C mine or section thereof shall be considered one in which five-tenths (5/10) of one per cent or more of combustible gas is found

Section 1405 Examinations to determine the classification of mines or sections thereof shall be made by the operator or his representative every six months at the faces of the first and last working place on a split and the average of the tests shall be the determining factor Tests shall be made by use of a methane detector approved by the United States Bureau of Mines or by chemical analysis

Section 1406 The ventilation must have been stopped or short-circuited for at least fifteen minutes when the aforesaid examinations are made and the results recorded and a copy of the same shall be sent to the inspector of the district within ten days after such examination

Section 1407 The classification of a section of a mine as "A" "B" or "C" does not of necessity place the whole mine in that class

Section 1408 If one-fourth (¼) of an inch gas cap can be seen on the flame of an approved safety lamp it shall be assumed that the air contains at least one and one-half (1½) per cent of combustible gas

Section 1409 No mine or section thereof shall be considered as belonging to a less hazardous class than the one to which it formerly belonged without permission from the inspector of the district

ARTICLE XV

Use of Electricity

Section 1501 All electrical apparatus and conductors shall be so installed and protected as to reduce danger from shock or fire to a minimum

Section 1502 No higher voltage than medium (650) shall be taken underground except for transmission or for application to transformers or other apparatus in which the whole of the high voltage circuit is stationary

Section 1503 When high voltage cables are taken into the mine through bore holes shafts slopes and other traveling-ways to an underground station from which point low or medium voltage may be conveyed said cables shall be so constructed as to reduce the hazards of accidental shock to a minimum

Section 1504 In gaseous mines (C class) high voltage transmission cables shall be installed in the intake airways or in bore holes provided such bore holes are in or connected to intake airway unless specific permission to install high voltage cables has been given by the Inspector in writing and in response to a specific written request

High voltage motors and transformers if used in a mine shall be installed only in underground stations ventilated by intake air which has not passed through a gaseous district

Section 1505 Gloves and mats of rubber or other suitable insulating material shall be provided and used by persons when making repairs to live parts of any electrical apparatus or when live parts of electrical apparatus have to be handled for the purpose of adjustment Provided That this section shall not apply to electric signal circuits

Section 1506 Instructions shall be posed in every generating transforming and motor room containing directions as to the restoration of persons suffering from electric shock

Section 1507 In underground stations where switchboards are installed there shall be a passageway in front of the switchboard not less than three (3) feet in the clear The rear of said switchboard must be fenced off so that there is no passageway in the rear of if this be impracticable any such passageway must be three (3) feet in the clear

When medium voltage is used insulating floors or mats shall be provided where live metal work is on the front of the board When high voltage is used unless installed in a locked room to which only authorized persons are admitted all live metal parts on the front of the main switchboard within seven (7) feet of the floor or platform shall be guarded so as to prevent persons from coming in contact with such live parts The floor back of the board shall be made of incombustible material Provided however that this section does not apply to switchboards now in service or extensions thereof

Section 1508 Fire buckets filled with clear dry sand or other standard extinguishers for electrical fires shall be kept in underground stations ready for immediate use in extinguishing fires

Section 1509 Medium or low pressure conductors may be bare except in gaseous portions (C class) of the mines This rule is not to include trolley wire except where hereinafter provided

Section 1510 At all landings and partings where men are required to work regularly or pass under trolley or other bare power wires which are placed less than six and one-half (6½) feet above the top of the rail a suitable protection shall be provided This protection may be afforded by channeling the roof placing boards along the wires which shall extend below them or the use of other approved devices that afford protection .

Section 1511 All underground power wires and cables in hoisting shafts or manway compartments shall be highly insulated and substantially fixed in position On main haulage roads all cables and other wires except trolley wires and D C feeder wires when mounted on the same supports shall be kept at least twelve (12) inches away from any part of the mine car or locomotive

Section 1512 Trailing cables in use shall be examined daily by the machine operator for abrasions and other defects and he shall report any defect to the mine foreman or his assistant and it shall be immediately remedied or the cable put out of service

Section 1513 All points at which a circuit other than a signal circuit has to be made or broken shall be provided with proper switches The use of hooks or other makeshifts are prohibited except that connection for gathering locomotives or locomotives and machines used in driving headings or chambers may be made to the trolley wire by means of suitable hooks

Section 1514 In any gaseous portion of a mine (B and C class) a coal-cutting machine shall not be brought beyond the last cross-cut next the working face until the machine man shall have made an inspection for gas or until such examination shall have been made by some other competennt person If any explosive gas is found in the place the machine shall not be taken in

Section 1515 No coal-cutting machine shall be continued in operation in a gaseous portion of a mine (C class) for a longer period than half an hour without an examination being made for gas and if gas is found the current shall at once be switched off and the machine and the trailing cable shall worthwith be disconnected from the power supply

Section 1516 The person in charge of a coal-cutting machine loading machine or drilling machine shall not leave the machine while it is working and shall before leaving the working place see that the current is cut off from the trailing cables In any gaseous portion of a mine (C class) if an electric spark or arc be produced by the cable or rails the defect shall be immediately reported to the mine foreman or his assistant and the condition remedied without delay

Section 1517 In any gaseous portion of a mine (C class) any gangway airway or other working which is served by cars being pushed to the face of it must not have any trolley wire therein closer than one hundred and fifty (150) feet from its face No modification of this rule shall be allowed unless the mine inspector of the district be first consulted and his permission obtained to make such modification A trailing cable is permitted in all such cases

No electric haulage motor shall be taken to the face of any working place in any gaseous portion of a mine (B or C class) in the absence of the men working in such place until it is first examined by a competent person and found to be safe

Section 1518 In no case shall the potential used in the trolley system be higher than low voltage Provided That this section shall not apply to trolley systems now in service or extensions thereof

Section 1519 No electrical equipment shall be operated in that part of any mine in which more than one and one-half (1½) per cent of combustible gas can be detected and all work must be stopped except such as may be necessary to reduce the percentage content to one and one-half or less

Section 1520 In gaseous mines (B class) open lights and electric lamps are permissible provided a flame safety lamp approved by the Department of Mine is used for testing purposes Such safety lamps shall be as far as practicable kept near the roof of the working face

It shall not be assumed that a mine or portion thereof is gaseous because of the partial or exclusive use of electric cap lamps

Section 1521 In each part of all gaseous mines (C class) no light other than a locked safety lamp or a locked safety lamp and electric cap lamp both of a type which shall be first approved by the Department of Mines shall be allowed or used in such part Whenever safety lamps or electric cap lamps are required in any mine or part thereof they shall be the property of the owner of said mine and a competent person who shall be appointed for the purpose shall examine every safety lamp and electric cap lamp before it is taken into the workings for use and he shall ascertain that all safety lamps are clean safe and securely locked and safety lamps and electric cap lamps shall not be used until they have been so examined and found safe and in the case of safety lamps clean and securely locked

Section 1522 No one except a duly authorized person shall have in his possession a key or any other contrivance for the purpose of unlocking any safety lamp in any gaseous mine where locked safety lamp or electric cap lamps are used It shall be unlawful for any person or persons working in gaseous mines (C class) or portion of a gaseous mine (C class) which is worked by locked afety lamps or locked safety lamps and electric cap lamps to carry into the mine matches smokers' articles or any other material or articles mhich may cause fire To prevent such articles being carried into a dangerous mine or section thereof the mine foreman when he sees fit shall cause a search of the men for such articles

Section 1523 In ay gaseous portion of a mine (C class) except such parts as are ventilated by pure intake air incandescent lamps shall be protected by gas tight fittings of strong glass

Section 1524 All shot firing in gaseous mines or sections of mines (C class) shall be done by the use of an electric battery approved by the Bureau of Mines and furnished free of charge by the owner or operator of such mine No black powders shall be used in such mines

Section 1525 No shot firing unit shall be connected to the shot firing leads until all other connections preparatory to the firing of shots have been completed and all persons have moved to a place of safety

Section 1526 In any gaseous portion of a mine (C class) the potential used for signaling purposes shall not exceed twenty-four (24) volts and bare wires shall not be used for signal circuits except in intake air currents

Section 1527 Where electric transformers are located on the outside and mounted on steel structures there shall be provided proper walkways or platforms so that examinations or inspections of the same can be made All transformers within eight (8) feet of the ground shall be protected by fencing such fencing to be of a height that will prevent persons from inadvertently coming in contact with same

Section 1528 At all surface plants of collieries and in all mines where electric power is used adequate switches shall be provided at the points where it may be necessary to turn power on or off Such switches except high voltage air break and disconnecting switches and those on D C feeder or on trolley circuits shall be so arranged that they can be operated only from and without the box when the latter is completely closed

Section 1529 Any person or persons failing to comply with the provisions of this article shall be guilty of an offense against this act and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or undergo imprisonment for thirty (30) days in the county jail or both at the discretion of the court

ARTICLE XVI

Inquests

Section 1601 If whenever death occurs from an accident in or about an anthracite coal mine of this Commonwealth and after an examination of such accident the mine inspector finds an inquest should be held he shall notify the coroner to hold such inquest without delay and if no inquest be held by the coroner within forty-eight (48) hours after such notice the inspector shall institute a further and fuller examination of such accident and for this purpose he shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses at such examination and to administer oaths and affirmations to persons testifying thereat The inspector shall make a record of all such investigations and accidents which record shall be preserved in his office The cost of such investigations shall be paid by the Department of Mines in like manner as other costs are now paid

Section 1602 An inquest held by the coroner upon the body of a person killed by explosion or other accident shall be adjourned by the coroner if the inspector of mines be not present to watch the proceedings and the coroner in such case shall notify the inspector in writing of such adjourned inquest and the time and place of holding the same at least three (3) days previous thereto

Section 1603 Due notice of an intended inquest to be held by the coroner shall be given by the coroner to the inspector and at any such inquest the mine inspector and any representaive of a party in interest shall have the right to examine witnesses and read the law governing the case to the coroner's jury

Section 1604 If at any inquest over the body or bodies of persons whose death was caused by an accident in or about a mine or colliery the inspector cannot be present to watch the proceedings the coroner may proceed with such inquest and if it is shown by the evidence given at the inquest that the accident was caused by neglect or by any defect in or about the mine or colliery which in the judgment of the jury requires a remedy the coroner shall send notice in writing to said inspector of such neglect or default

Section 1605 No person who is interested personally nor a person employed in the mine or at a colliery in or at which loss of life has occurred by accident shall be qualified to serve on a jury empaneled on the inquest and a constable or other officer shall not summon such a person so disqualified as a juror but the coroner shall empanel a majority of the jury from miners who are qualified to judge of the nature of the accident

ARTICLE XVII

Medical Rooms and First Aid Treatment

Section 1701 It shall be unlawful to operate any anthracite mine in the State of Pennsylvania employing more than five persons unless said mine is provided with a sufficient quantity of medical supplies bandages linens splints woolen and waterproof blankets The mine foreman or his assistance shall keep a record showing the required articles on hand Said articles shall be stored in rooms erected at a convenient place in the mine and on the surface which rooms shall not be less than eight by twelve feet and sufficiently furnished lighted clean and ventilated so that therein medical treatment may be given injured employes in case of emergency The furnishings shall be sufficient to accommodate two or more persons in a reclining and sitting posture In mines where five (5) men or less are employed there shall be kept at such mines first aid kits so that first aid to the injured may be rendered in case of necessity

Section 1702 The neglect or refusal to perform the duties required to be performed by this article or the violation of any of the requirements hereof shall be deemed a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof in the Court of Quarter Sessions of the county wherein the misdemeanor was committed be punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months (6) or both at the discretion of the court

ARTICLE XVIII

Regulating Weights of Explosives

Section 1801 On and after the passage of this act each and every keg or box of explosives used manufactured or sold in or around the anthracite coal mines of this Commonwealth shall have clearly stamped upon it the name of the person firm or corporation manufacturing said explosives the percentage strength of such explosives and also the number of pounds of explosives contained in said keg or box Said explosives must at all times be contained in a metal keg or wooden box

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRADLEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

Amend sec. 1801, page 72, lines 21 and 22, by striking out the words "Said explosives must at all times be" in line 21, and all of line 22.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

Article XVIII, sections 1802 and 1803 were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1802 Any manufacturer or dealer in said explosives making or selling or causing to be made or sold any keg or box of said explosives containing less weight than shall be shown as stamped upon the keg or box shall be subject to a penalty of five dollars ($5.00) for each and every keg or box of said explosives manufactured or sold which does not contain the respective weights as set forth in the foregoing section

Section 1803 It shall not be lawful for any other person firm or corporation except the person firm or corporation whose name shall be stamped on said keg or box to use any such stamped keg or box for the purpose of containing explosives

Section 1804 Any person firm or corporation violating the provisions of section one thousand eight hundred three of this article shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)

Articles XIX to XXVIII were separately read and agreed to as follows:

ARTICLE XIX

Recovery of Bodies of Entombed Workmen

Section 1901 Whenever any workman or workmen shall heretofore have been or shall hereafter be enclosed entombed or buried in any anthracite coal mine in this Commonwealth it shall be the duty of the court sitting in equity in the county wherein such workman or workmen are enclosed entombed or buried upon the petition of any of the relatives of those enclosed or buried to make an order of court for the petitioner to take testimony in order that the court may ascertain whether such workman or workmen or the body or bodies of such workman or workmen can be recovered or taken out of said mine

Section 1902 If after full hearing it shall appear to the court that such undertaking is feasible or practicable said court may forthwith issue a peremptory mandamus to the owner or owners lessee or lessees operator or operators of such coal company to forthwith proceed to work for and recover and take out the body or bodies of such workman or workmen and said court shall have full authority to enforce such peremptory mandamus in the manner already provided for the enforcement of such process

ARTICLE XX

Records of Coal Loaded by Miners

Section 2001 At every anthracite coal mine in this Commonwealth where coal is mined and paid for by the car a record of all cars of coal mined shall be kept at the miners' chutes or at the most convenient and practical of said chutes where said coal is loaded in cars which record shall be the final basis in computing the miners' earnings per car without any deduction for any slate or other refuse that may be loaded on said car or cars in the usual and natural course of mining and loading coal and which record shall be open at all times for the inspection of all miners

Section 2002 Any individual firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of section two thousand one shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall for each offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) Provided That nothing contained in this article shall affect any existing contract

Section 2003 Any person who wilfully shall from any loaded coal car in or about any mine breaker or yard in this Commonwealth take remove sever carry away obliterate or destroy any ticket card tin-slip or other device or sign used to indicate or identify the person or persons to whom credit or pay is or shall be due for the mining of the coal in said car or for the loading of said car for the purpose of depriving such person or persons from getting credit or pay for said car or for the purpose of defrauding such person in any manner shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year either or both at the discretion of the court and the jury trying the case may infer such intent from the fact of taking removing carrying away severing or destroying in any manner of such ticket card in-slip or other device or sign as aforesaid

ARTICLE XXI

Wash Houses

Section 2101 It shall be the duty of the owner operator or superintendent of each mine or colliery at the request in writing of twenty (20) or more men employed in any of the mines to provide a suitable building not an engine or boiler house which shall be convenient to the principal entrance of such mine for the use of the persons employed for the purpose of washing themselves and changing their clothes when entering the mine and returning therefrom The said building shall be maintained in good order be properly lighted and heated and supplied with pure cold and warm water and shall be provided with facilities for persons to wash It shall be the duty of the owner operator or superintendent of each mine or colliery to maintain proper attendents continuously at each and every wash house in order to maintain the wash house in a clean and sanitary condition at all times If any person or persons shall neglect or fail to comply with the provisions of this article or maliciously injure or destroy or cause to be injured or destroyed the said building or any part thereof or any of the appliances or fittings used for supplying light heat and water therein or any act tending to the injury or destruction thereof he or they shall be deemed guilty of an offense against this act

ARTICLE XXII

Ambulances and Stretchers

Section 2201 The owner operator or superintendent of every mine or colliery except as hereinafter provided shall provide and keep at such mine or colliery a motor ambulance and also at least two (2) stretchers for the purpose of conveying to their places of abode any person or persons who hay be injured while in the discharge of his or their work at such mine or colliery

Section 2202 The said motor ambulance shall be constructed upon good substantial and easy springs It shall be covered and closed and shall have windows on the sides or ends It shall be of sufficient size to convey at least two (2) injured persons with two (2) attendants at one time and shall be provided with spring mattresses or other comfortable bedding to be placed on roller frames together with sufficient covering and protection for the convenient movement of the injured It shall also be provided with seats for the attendants The stretchers shall be constructed in such manner as to afford the greatest ease and comfort in the carriage of injured persons The motor ambulance shall at all times be properly heated

Section 2203 Whenever any person or persons employed in or about a mine or colliery shall receive such injury by accident or otherwise while so employed as would render him or them unable to walk to his or their place of abode the owner operator or superintendent of such mine or colliery shall immediately cause such person or persons to be removed in said motor ambulance to his or their place of abode or to a hospital as the case may require Provided however That were two or more mines or colliers are located within four miles of each other or a motor ambulance is located within four miles of each colliery but one motor ambulance as aforesaid shall be required if said mines or collieries have ready and quick means of communication one with the other by telegraph or telephone

Section 2204 A motor ambulance as aforesaid shall not be required at any mine or colliery at which less than twenty (20) persons are employed

Section 2205 In case the distance from any mine or colliery to the place of abode of the person injured is such as to permit his conveyance to his home or to a hospital more quickly and conveniently by railway such mode of conveyance shall be permitted but in such case the conveyance must be under cover and the comfort of the injured person must be provided for

Section 2206 There shall be furnished free of charge by the State Highway Department a registration certificate and two number tags for every such motor ambulance

ARTICLE XXIII

Employment of Boys and Females

Section 2301 No woman or girl of any age shall be employed or permitted to be in any mine for the purpose of employment therein nor shall a woman or girl of any age be employed or permitted to be in or about the outside structures or workings of a mine or colliery for the purpose of employment Provided however That this prohibition shall not affect the employment of a female of not less than sixteen (16) years of age in an office or in the performance of clerical work at a colliery

Section 2302 No minor under sixteen (16) years of age shall be employed or permitted to work in about or in connection with any breaker or any outside part of any mine or colliery No minor under eighteen (18) years of age shall be employed to be permitted to work inside any coal mine No minor under eighteen (18) years of age shall be employed or permitted to work about or in connection with the outside part of any mine or colliery in the operation of hoisting machines at oiling or cleaning machinery in motion at switch-tending and gate-tending at track repairing or in any other dangerous occupation

Section 2303 Before any person under twenty-one (21) years of age shall be permitted to work in or about any mine or colliery he shall first file with the employer a statement properly sworn to before a magistrate or other proper officer setting forth the date and place of birth and post office address Such statements shall be filed in the colliery office and they shall be available at all times for inspection by the mine inspector of the district or other authorized inspectors or officers charged with the enforcement of this act

Section 2304 Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this article shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00) or to undergo an imprisonment of not more than ten (10) days or both at the discretion of the court

ARTICLE XXIV

Soliciting Money or Other Valuables from Employes

Section 2401 On and after the passage of this act any mine superintendent mine foreman or assistant foreman or any other person or persons who shall receive or solicit any sum of money or other valuable consideration from any of his or their employes for the purpose of continuing in his or their employ or for the purpose of procuring employment shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00) or undergo an imprisonment of not less than six (6) months or both at the discretion of the court

ARTICLE XXV

Duties of Outside Foremen

Section 2501 The owner operator or superintendent of a colliery shall place a competent person to be called an "outside foreman" in charge of the breaker and outside work of such colliery who shall direct and see that the provisions of this act are complied with in respect to the breaker outside machinery ropes cages and all other things pertaining to the outside work unless otherwise provided for in this act

Section 2502 Whenever an outside foreman cannot personally carry out the provisions of this act so far as they pertain to him the owner operator or superintendent shall authorize him to employ a sufficient number of competent persons to act as his assistants who shall be subject to his orders

Section 2503 In all coal breakers where the coal dust is so dense as to be injurious to the health of persons employed therein the owner operator or superintendent of said breaker shall upon the request of the inspector immediately adopt measures for the removal of the dust

Section 2504 It shall be the duty of the outside foreman of a colliery or his assistant to inspect and examine personally all machinery in breakers and in all other places where machinery is used for the preparation or storage of coal He shall see that all dangerous machinery rolls pulleys screens belts walks etc are properly protected by coverings railings or fencing so as to prevent persons from inadvertently walking against or falling upon the same

Section 2505 All hoisting ropes safety catches main links and chains shall be carefully examined each day they are used by a competent person delegated by the outside foreman to make such examination A record of any defects found therein by which life or limb may be endangered shall be made in a book and signed by the person making it and said book shall be kept in the colliery office where it shall be available for inspection by the inspector of the district

Section 2506 It shall be the duty of the outside foreman to have all iron hoisting chains main links sockets and slope couplings that are used to lower men into and hoist them from the mines annealed at least once every four (4) months and as much oftener as may be found necessary A record of such annealment shall be kept in a book and signed by the person in charge of the work Provided That this shall not apply to hoisting chains main links sockets and slope couplings that are made of modern heat treated steel

Section 2507 It shall be the duty of the outside foreman to have the motor ambulance kept in good working condition and to this end he shall have it inspected by a competent mechanic once every month and any defects found shall be immediately remedied A record of such motor ambulance inspection together with its condition shall be made in a book and signed by the person making the inspection

Section 2508 It shall be the duty of the outside foreman to keep in the colliery office all employment certificates of minors at which place they shall be open for inspection by the mine inspector of the district or by any other person authorized by law to inspect such certificates

Section 2509 It shall be the duty of the outside foreman to have all cages by which persons are hoisted or lowered in shafts tested for safety as often as once every three (3) months Whenever such test shows that a cage drops nine (9) inches or more or that other dangerous defects exist such cage shall not be further used until all defects therein found have been remedied

Section 2510 If at any time it is found by an employe that any part of the machinery in any breaker or about any colliery has become dangerous he shall immediately notify the foreman whose duty it shall be to have such defect or dangerous condition remedied without delay

Section 2511 The outside foreman shall see that a suitable safety device is installed on the railroad tracks that lead to the breaker and maintained in good working order to protect the loaders who may be loading railroad cars from the coal pockets All railroad car runners shall be provided with safety belts to prevent their falling off such cars

Section 2512 The outside foreman shall before the tenth day of each month send to the mine inspector of the district for the preceding month a report of the condition of all hoisting cages safety catches ropes main links chains breaker machinery motor ambulances or other machinery designating the condition of each by using the words "good" "fair" or "bad" as the case may be This report shall be signed by the outside foreman Such reports shall be made on forms furnished by the Department of Mines

ARTICLE XXVI

Breakers and Machinery

Section 2601 No inflammable structure shall be located over the entrance of any mine opening connecting the surface with the underground workings and no breaker or other inflammable structure for the preparation or storage of coal shall be located nearer than two hundred (200) feet to any mine opening provided that this section shall not apply to breakers and other structures that are now erected

plank walls in and around the collieries shall be provided with hand and guard railings to prevent persons from falling over their sides This section shall not forbid the temporary removal of a fence guard-rail or covering for the purpose of repairs or other operations if proper precautions are used and the fence guard rail or covering is replaced immediately thereafter

Section 2603 All persons employed to operate machinery in and about the breaker other than that used to lower and hoist persons into and out of the mines shall be sober and competent persons not less than eighteen (18) years of age

Section 2604 A signal apparatus shall be established at important points in every breaker so that in case of an accident the engineer can be promptly notified to stop the machinery

Section 2605 No person under eighteen (18) years of age shall be appointed to oil the machinery and no person shall oil dangerous parts of such machinery while it is in motion

Section 2606 No person shall play with loiter around or interfere with any machinery in or about any mine or colliery

Section 2607 The main link of the chain connecting the rope to the cage gun-boat or car in any shaft or slope shall be made of the best quality of iron or of heat treated steel Bridle chains made of the same quality of iron or heat treated steel shall be attached to the main link rope or rope socket from the cross head of the cage gun-boat or car when persons are being lowered or hoisted thereon

Section 2608 An efficient brake shall be attached to every drum that is used for lowering or hoisting persons or material in any mine

Section 2609 Flanges or horns of sufficient dimensions to prevent the rope from slipping off the said drums shall be provided and properly attached to the drum and all machines used for lowering or hoisting persons in mines shall be provided with an indicator to show the position of the cage car or gun-boat in the shaft or slope

Section 2610 It shall be the duty of the owner operator or superintendent of any or all coal breakers to have them properly heated and lighted in order to prevent injury to the health of persons employed therein

Section 2611 Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed an offense against this act

ARTICLE XXVII

Hoisting Engineers

Section 2701 No person engaged as hoisting engineer at or about the anthracite coal mines of this Commonwealth part of whose duties it to lower men and boys into and hoist them and coal from the said mines shall be engaged for a longer period than eight (8) hours out of each day of twenty-four (24) hours

Section 2702 An engineer placed in charge of an engine whereby persons are hoisted or lowered in any mine shall be a sober and competent person of not less than twenty-on (21) years of age

Section 2703 Every engineer shall work his engine slowly and with great care when any person is being lowered or hoisted in a shaft or slope and no one shall interfere with him while in the performance of this duty

Section 2704 An engineer who has charge of the hoisting machinery by which persons are lowered or hoisted in a mine shall be in constant attendance for that purpose during the whole time any person or persons are below ground

Section 2705 Any person persons firm partnership corporation or their agents managers or superintendents violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00)

ARTICLE XXVIII

Boilers and Connections

Section 2801 All boilers used for generating steam in and about mines and collieries shall be kept in good order and the owner operator or superintendent shall have them examined and inspected by a qualified inspector properly certified by the Commonwealth as often as once in six (6) months and oftener if necessary The result of such examination under oath shall be certified in writing to the inspector for the district within thirty (30) days thereafter

Section 2802 It shall not be lawful to place any boiler or boilers for the purpose of generating steam under or nearer than one hundred (100) feet to any coal breaker or other structure in which persons are employed in the preparation of coal Provided That this section shall not apply to boilers or breakers already erected or to boilers used for heating purposes only

Section 2803 Each nest of boilers shall be provided with a safety valve of sufficient area for the steam to escape and with weights or springs properly adjusted

Section 2804 Every boiler house shall be provided with a steam gauge properly connected with the boilers to indicate the steam pressure and another steam gauge shall be attached to the steam pipe in the engine house and they shall be placed in such position that the engineer or fireman can readily examine them and see what pressure is carried Such steam gauges shall be kept in good order tested and adjusted as often as once in every six (6) months and their condition reported to the inspector in the same manner as the report of boiler inspection

Section 2805 Every fireman in charge of a boiler or boilers for the generation of steam shall keep constant watch over the same He shall see that the steam pressure does not at any time exceed the limit allowed by the outside foreman or superintendent He shall frequently try the safety valve and shall not increase the weight on the same He shall maintain a proper depth of water in each boiler and if anything should happen to prevent this he shall report the same without delay to the foreman for the time being in charge and take such other action as may under the particular circumstances be necessary for the protection of life and preservation of property

Article XXIX, section 2901, was read as follows:

ARTICLE XXIX

Props and Timbers

Section 2901 It shall be the duty of the owner operator superintendent or mine foreman of any mine to furnish to miners all props cap pieces ties rails timbers and other materials necessary for the safe mining of coal suitably prepared and delivered to the workmen as near to their working places as they can be conveyed in ordinary mine cars free of charge and where the mine car cannot reach the foot of a working place such material shall be conveyed there by other means

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BRADLEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 290,, page 89, line 3, by inserting a heavy-faced bracket at the beginnng of said line, before the letter "S", thus "["

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

It was agreed to.

Article XXIX, sections 2902 and 2903 were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2902 Every workman in want of props ties

rails or timbers shall notify the mine foreman or his assistant of the fact at least one day in advance giving the length of the props or timber required and in case of danger from loose roof or sides he shall not continue to cut or load coal until the said props and timber have been properly furnished and the place made secure

Section 2903 No person or persons working in any coal mine or colliery shall cut any props or timbers while the same are in position to support the roof or sides When it becomes necessary to remove any of the said props or timbers for any purpose it may be done by using prop or post pullers or by blasting

Articles XXX to XXXVII, the Table of Contents, the preamble and title, were separately read and agreed to as follows:

ARTICLE XXX

Returns and Notices

Section 3001 Notices of death or serious injuries resulting from accidents in or about mines or collieries shall be made to the inspector of mines in writing and shall specify the name age occupation of the person killed or injured and also the nature and character of the accident and of the injury caused thereby

Sertion 3002 The owner operator or superintendent of a mine or colliery shall without delay give notice in writing to the inspector of the district in which said mine or colliery is situated in any or all of the following cases

First Where any working is commenced for the purpose of opening a new slope or mine to which this act applies

Second Where any mine is abandoned or the workings thereof discontinued

Third Where the working of any mine is recommenced after any abandonment or discontinuance for a period exceeding two (2) months

Fourth Before any new coal breaker is completed and work commenced therein for the purpose of preparing coal for market

Fifth Where the pillars of a mine are to be removed or robbed

Sixth Where a squeeze or crush or any other cause or change may seem to affect the safety of persons employed in any mine or where fire occurs or a dangerous body of gas is found in any mine

Section 3003 On or before the second day of each month the owner operator or superintendent of every mine or colliery shall send to the mine inspector of the district for the preceding month an estimate of the number of days worked tons produced and the number of men employed

Section 3004 On or before the first day of February in each year the owner operator or superintendent of every mine or colliery shall send to the inspector of the district a correct report specifying with respect to the year ending December thirty-first previously the name of the operator and officials of the mine with their post-office addresses the quantity of coal mined the amount of powder or other explosives consumed and the number of persons employed above and below ground in or about such colliery classifying the persons so employed The report shall be in such form as may be from time to time prescribed by the Secretary of Mines Blank forms for such report shall be furnished by the Commonwealth

ARTICLE XXXI

General Rules

Section 3101 The owner operator and superintendent of a mine or colliery shall use every precaution to insure the safety of the workmen in all cases whether provided for in this act or not and shall have supervision direction and control of the mine foreman and all other mine employes

Section 3102 Whenever a place is likely to contain a dangerous accumulation of water the working approaching such place shall not exceed twelve (12) feet in width and there shall be constantly kept at a distance of not less than twenty (20) feet in advance at least one (1) bore hole near the center of the working and sufficient flank bore holes on each side

Section 3103 Not more than ten (10) persons shall be hoisted or lowered at any one time in any shaft or slope and whenever five (5) persons shall arrive at the bottom of any shaft or slope in which persons are regularly hoisted or lowered they shall be furnished with an empty car or cage and be hoisted except however in mines where there is provided a traveling way having an average pitch of fifteen (15) degrees or less and not more than one thousand (1000) feet in length This however shall not prohibit the hoisting or lowering of twenty (20) persons at one time on slopes where two (2) or more loaded cars are regulaly hoisted Provided That not less than thirty (30) workmen working therein make such a request in writing to the inspector of the district and if in his judgment the hoisting appliances in every respect are of sufficient strength he may comply with the request of the workmen And provided further That in any coal mine or colliery where the hoisting appliances are not of sufficient strength to hoist or lower the number of persons named he shall have the power to reduce the number of persons to be hoisted or lowered

Section 3104 When high explosives other than gunpowder are used in any mine the manner of storing keeping moving charging and firing or in any manner using such explosives shall be in accordance with special rules as furnished by the manufacturers of the same The said rules shall be endorsed with his or their official signatures and shall be approved by the owner operator or superintendent of the mine in which such explosives are used

Section 3105 Every passageway used by persons in any mine and also used for transportation of coal or other material shall be made of sufficient width to permit persons to pass moving cars with safety but if found impracticable to make any passageway of sufficient width then holes of ample dimensions and not more than one hundred and fifty (150) feet apart shall be made on one side of said passageway The said passageway and safety holes shall be kept free from obstructions and shall be well drained the roof and sides of the same shall be made secure

Section 3106 When locomotives are used in haulage ways in any mine their speed shall not exceed six (6) miles per hour and a red light shall be provided and attached to the front end of every train of cars pushed by the locomotive in any such haulage ways No locomotive shall be permitted to be used in any mine or colliery unless it is manned by two or more men

There shall also be provided a red light to be attached to the rear of every train of cars that is pulled by a locomotive in the main haulage ways of any mine

Section 3107 Any person or persons who shall knowingly or wilfully damage or without proper authority remove or render useless any fencing means of signaling apparatus instrument or machine or shall throw open or obstruct any airways or open a ventilating door and not have the same closed or enter a place in or about a mine against caution or handle without proper authority or disturb any machinery or cars or do any other act or thing whereby the lives or health of persons or the security of the property in or about a mine or colliery is endangered shall be guilty of an offense against this act

Section 3108 When cars are run on gravity roads by brakes or sprags the runner shall ride only on the rear end of the last car and when said cars are run by sprags a space of not less than two (2) feet from the body of the car shall be made on one or both sides of the track wherever it may be necessary for the runner to pass along the side of the moving car or cars and said space or passageway shall always be kept free from obstructions

Section 3109 Safety holes shall be made at the bottom of all slopes and planes and be kept free from obstruction to enable the footman to escape readily in case of danger Such safety holes shall be properly heated in cold weather

Section 3110 Safety blocks or some other device for the purpose of preventing cars from falling into a shaft or running away on a slope plane or all other inclined tracks on which it may be necessary to block cars shall be placed at or near the head of every shaft slope plane or inclined track and said safety blocks or other device must be maintained in good working order

Section 3111 No person shall travel on any gravity plane while cars are being hoisted or lowered thereon Whenever ten (10) persons arrive at the bottom or top of any plane on which it is necessary for men to travel traffic thereon shall be suspended for a period of time long enough to permit them to reach the top or bottom of said plane

Section 3112 No mine cars shall be used in any mine unless the bumpers are of sufficient length and width to keep the bodies of said cars separated by not less than twelve (12) inches when the cars stand on a straight level road and the bumpers touch each other

Section 3113 For the purpose of making known the rules and the provisions of this act to all persons employed in or about such mine or colliery to which this act applies an abstract of the act and rules shall be posted up in legible characters in some conspicuous place or places at or near the mine or colliery where they may be conveniently read by the persons employed and so often as the same become obliterated or destroyed the owner operator or superintendent shall cause them to be renewed with all reasonable dispatch Any person who pulls down injures or defaces such abstract of the act or rules when posted up in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of an offense against this act

Section 3114 Holes drilled for blasting purposes shall be stemmed to the mouth of the holes and in case of a misfire no stemming or charge shall be removed from such hole but another hole shall be drilled at least eighteen (18) inches from and parallel to the original hole Provided however That where an efficient sealing device is used stemming to the mouth of the hole shall not be necessary and in case of misfire in such sealed holes a second charge may be inserted to explode or destroy the original charge

Section 3115 A gangway or other working place from which chambers are driven or long wall mining is done in a low coal seam shall have a traveling way on one side of same at least three (3) feet wide and five (5) feet high Chambers or other places driven from such gangways shall not be more than three hundred (300) feet long unless provided with a traveling way at least three (3) feet wide and three and one-half (3½) feet high

Section 3116 It shall not be lawful for any mine foreman or superintendent of any mine or colliery to employ any person who is not competent to understand the regulations of any mine evolving combustible gas Provided That this rule shall not apply to a section of a mine free from combustible gas

Section 3117 Any superintendent or mine foreman who prevents the footman from giving an empty car or cage to the number of men designated in section three thousand one hundred three shall be guilty of an offense against the provisions of this article and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00) for each offense An empty trip shall be hoisted in any shaft or slope where the engine has been standing idle for one hour or more before men are hoisted or lowered in said shafts or slops and no person or persons shall ascend any shaft or slope when working on the night turn until one trip shall first be hoisted therein

Section 3118 When compressed air lines are located in close proximity to electric currents there shall be placed in such air lines at suitable places a safety section of rubber hose of not less than twelve (12) inches in length and of sufficient strength to withstand the air pressure contained in the pipe line Such safety device must be approved by the inspector of the district

Section 3119 In all stripping work which may be in connection with other sections of a mine and in which large charges of high explosives are being used sufficient warning must be given to the mine officials so that all men in the mine may be removed from the danger zone before such blasts are fired in any such strippings

ARTICLE XXXII

Definition of Terms

Section 3201 In this act unless the context otherwise requires the term "anthracite coal mine or colliery" includes every operation and work both under ground and above ground used or to be used for the purpose of mining and preparing coal and not included in the bituminous boundaries

Section 3202 The term "workings" includes all the excavated parts of a mine those abandoned as well as the places actually at work

Section 3203 The term "mine" includes all underground workings and excavations and shafts tunnels and other ways and openings also all such shafts slopes tunnels and other openings in course of being sunk or driven together with all roads appliances machinery and material connected with the same below the surface

Section 3204 The term "shaft" means a vertical opening through the strata and which is or may be used for the purpose of ventilation or drainage or for hoisting men or material in connection with the mining of coal

Section 3205 The term "slope" means any inclined way or opening used for the same purpose as a shaft

Section 3206 The term "breaker" means the structure containing the machinery used for the preparation of coal

Section 3207 The term "coal stripping" means an open type of mine from which the soil and all other material overlying the coal seam has been removed Any seam of coal whose thickness is less than three and one-half (3½) feet shall be considered a low coal seam

Section 4 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2348, (Senate Bill No. 1074), entitled:

An Act providing a method of annexation of boroughs to cities of the third class and regulating the proceedings pertaining thereto

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever electors equal to at least ten per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in any borough contigous to a city of the third class at the last preceding general election shall petition the council of the borough for the annexation of the borough to the contiguous city and for a referendum on the question of such annexation the council shall cause a question to be submitted at the primary general or municipal election occurring at least sixty days thereafter or if no such election shall occur within ninety days after the presentation of such petition then at a special election to be called and held as provided by the election laws of this Commonwealth within such period of ninety days The council shall certify a resolution duly adopted to the county commissioners for submission of such question on the ballot or on voting machines at such election both in such borough and in the city of the third class to which annexation is desired in the manner provided by the election laws of this Commonwealth

Such question shall be in the following form

Do you favor the annexation of the borough of ..... to the city of	Yes No	———

If a majority of the persons voting on such question in the borough and a majority of the persons voting on such question in the city shall vote "yes" then the borough shall on the first Monday of January next following be and become a part of the city of the third class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Corporations for the purpose of further study and amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Flinchbaugh.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know for what reason the motion to recommit is made at this time.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Cambria I wish to say that I have been requested by quite a number of persons interested in the bill to have it returned to the committee.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether the gentleman from York, Mr. Flinchbaugh, is a member of the committee that handled this bill.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. I am not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from York know what committee this bill was reported from?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I am just informed, in answer to the gentleman from Cambria, that it just came out of the Committee on Cities.

Mr. LOPRESTI. From the Committee on Cities?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from York a member of the Committee on Cities?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. I am not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to object to having this bill recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations. The bill was properly considered by the Committee on Cities and quite some study was given to the bill before being reported out. I think it is a proper bill and should remain on the calendar, and I ask my fellow members to vote down this motion to recommit.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I withdrawn my motion to recommit.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Will the House agree to the amendment?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, are these all the amendments submitted by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin?

The SPEAKER. All of these amendments are to Section 2. There are other amendments to other sections.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, might I suggest that all of the amendments be read so that we can vote on all of them at the same time?

The SPEAKER. The House will consider the amendments by sections.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose the amendments submitted by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin because in effect they will vitiate the entire bill. This bill is intended to empower the City of Philadelphia to obtain and make it possible for the City of Philadelphia to have water-works and in that way purify its water system, and in the insertion of the amendments submitted by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, the effect will be to kill the entire bill and I ask the membership of this House to vote the amendments down.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, my main reason for offering these amendments, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, is that in the bill it provides that the City of Philadelphia will go in not only for fresh water but will also go into the electric light and power business, and in that way have the right to go up into the Pocono Mountains and take over any watershed they want up there, build dams and power houses and then sell the power to the outside public, outside of Philadelphia, and in doing so close down half the mines that we have in the anthracite and bituminous regions, or help to close them down. I say, if Philadelphia wants fresh water and wants to come up to the Poconos to get that water they should leave out of the bill the right to build dams and power plants where power is already being served or furnished by public service companies. I ask the members to vote for the amendments.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, in further opposition to these amendments, I wish to call to the attention of the members of this House that the city of Philadelphia will not be able to do anything unless they have the consent of the Water Power and Resources Board of Pennsylvania. In other words, before we will be able to do anything, or before we will be able to harm any locality, the consent of the Water and Power Resources Board will of necessity have to be obtained, and I am sure the membership can trust in the good judgment of that Board. Therefore I request that the amendments be voted down.

MOTION TO LAY BILL ON TABLE

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill together with the amendments be laid upon the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2479, (Senate Bill No. 309), as follows:

An Act to amend sections three and seven as amended and section nine of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 452) entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth creating a General State Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to construct improve and operate projects and to lease the same and to fix and collect fees rentals and charges for the use thereof authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof and to enter into agreements with the Government of the United States or any Federal agency and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to grant assign convey or lease to the Authority lands of the Commonwealth and interests therein and to acquire lands therefor granting the right of eminent domain and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act" by changing the personnel of the governing body fixing the quorum thereof and clarifying the powers of the Department of Property and Supplies

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections three and seven of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 452) entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth creating a General State Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to construct improve and operate projects and to lease the same and to fix and collect fees rentals and charges for the use thereof authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof and to enter into agreements with the Government of the United States or any Federal agency and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to grant assign convey or lease to the Authority lands of the Commonwealth and interests therein and to acquire lands therefor granting the right of eminent domain and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act" as amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Act Number 178) are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 General State Authority The Governor of the State the State Treasurer the Auditor General the Secretary of Internal Affairs the Secretary of Property and Supplies the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and their respective successors in office and [two] three citizens of Pennsylvania one to be appointed by the Governor one by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate are hereby created a body corporate and politic constituting a public corporation and governmental instrumentality by the name of "The General State Authority" Said members of the Authority shall be entitled to no compensation for their services as members but shall be entitled to reimbursement for all necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties as members Any vacancy happening among the appointed members of the Authority shall be filled by appointment by the Governor Speaker of the House of Representatives or Prsident Pro Tempore of the Senate as the case may be

Section 7 Governing Body The powers of the Authority shall be exercised by a governing body consisting of the members of the Authority acting as a board Within ninety days after this act shall become effective the board shall meet and organize by electing from their number a president and secretary At the first regular meeting in each year thereafter they shall elect from their number a president and secretary

[Five] Six members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of organizing the Authority and conducting the business thereof and for all other purposes and all action shall only be taken by vote of a majority of the members of the Authority unless in any case the by-laws shall require a larger number

The board shall have full authority to manage the properties and business of the Authority and to prescribe amend and repeal by-laws rules and regulations governing the manner in which the business of the Authority may be conducted and the powers granted to it may be exercised and embodied The board shall fix and determine the number of officers agents and employes of the Authority and their respective compensation and duties and may delegate to one or more of their number or to one or more of said officers agents or employes such powers and duties as it may deem proper

Section 2 That section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 9 Grant of lands by Department to Authority The Depa[illegible]t shall have power and authority with the approval o[illegible]e Governor to grant assign and convey to the Autho[illegible]y with or without consideration any lands easements or rights in lands together with any improvements buildings or structures therein or thereon now owned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or hereafter acquired by it needed or convenient for the corporate purposes of the Authority or to lease to the Authority for a term not exceeding ninety-nine (99) years at a nominal or such other rental as may be determined any or all such lands easements or rights in lands together with any improvements structures or buildings therein or thereon

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from York whether he has any further information as to the probability of our securing funds from the Federal Government for the operation of the State Authority.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might say that the last word I had relative to securing the funds was rather definite. The last conference indicated that the State Authority would receive the funds that are necessary to erect the required and necessary buildings to bring the State institutions up to the level whereby they can perform their functions for the citizens of the Commonwealth. I have no further word than that which I gave to the House last week at the request of the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the reason I asked was because the last information we had was that the state would not receive the twenty million dollars, which is the keystone of the whole arch of the projects of the State Authority; that the grant of twenty million dollars could not be made from W. P. A. funds for the work. I wondered whether the gentleman had anything more definite then we all had through the newspaper stories.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in further answer to the gentleman from Delaware I will state that the only difficulty was the manner in which the money was to be expended. I think the Federal Authorities felt that the money should be expended on labor to individuals whose names were taken from the National Re-employment Service. As the gentleman from Delaware well knows, and as most of the members of the House know, there is some problem accompanying that practice. It seems that the National Re-employment Service does not have available the skilled mechanics that are required in certain types of the buildings trades, and the only difficulty, as I stated before, was from which rolls the employes whose labor was to be utilized in the erection of the buildings, were to come. I understand that that phase has been straightened out with the Federal Government, and that employment for skilled mechanics has reached such a peak that there are not available on the National Re-employment rolls sufficient skilled mechanics required for the building trades, or some specialty of the building trades, and as a result I understand that the Federal Government had modified their attitude in that respect by allowing certain mechanics to be taken from the general labor market rather than from the Re-employment rolls. However, the restrictions as to the unskilled labor will be still adhered to, and they will be taken from the Re-employment rolls.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman's understanding is the same as mine, except that I never understood that the Federal Government had waived its requirement that any more than five million dollars should be expended for skilled labor other than from the Re-employment rolls. Does the gentleman not think that before this House is called upon to pass upon appropriations and set up the machinery for a great program, that the House should have some definite assurance, some definite statement from the Federal Government upon which we can rely? As the gentleman well knows, from our experiences in the past, we have had a number of promises which were not fulfilled and a number of vague statements, and therefore I ask if the gentleman does not think in fairness to the House that the Executive should secure for us a definite statement as to what is going to be done?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might call to the attention of the gentleman from Delaware the fact that the purpose of this bill is to establish just what the gentleman from Delaware has indicated, whereby the House will have at all times information available relative to this particular branch of the government, and it is to that end that I ask the House and I ask the gentleman from Delaware and his colleagues to join with us in the passage of this measure.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentleman from York I quite agree that the bill is a far better bill than when it first came to the House. I have no quarrel with the bill itself. I am asking, however, if we cannot in these closing days be placed in a position where we know definitely what we are going to have.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I assure the gentleman from Delaware that I will make that objective No. 1; to secure definite information for the gentleman as to the status of Federal funds under the State Authority Act.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I always accept the statements of the gentleman from York, but as this did not have any time element in it, I would like to call the attention of the gentleman from York that time is of the essence.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. PERRY filed the following reason for his vote:

I vote affirmatively upon this bill because of the almost unanimous requests forwarded me by the representatives of the industry itself, and in the belief, that in legislation of this type, such persons are best qualified to judge the merits or demerits of such a bill as applied to their respective business. While I am doubtful that the bill in its present form will actually effect the benefits anticipated by its sponsors, the bill contains a two year period limitation, thereby permitting a fair opportunity for test and trial. After such a period intelligent legislators will be in a position to act intelligently either as to its continuance, amendment or repeal. The general purpose and intent are worthy, its details of successful operation can be worked out best by practical operation during this probationary period.

HOUSE BILLS MADE SPECIAL ORDERS

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that all House Bill on third reading be made a special order of business in their order, immediately upon the adoption of this motion.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2037, entitled:

An Act to re-enact a part of section one of article three of the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" providing for the removal and dismissal of policemen in cities o fthe second class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, this act is designed to repeal Pamphlet Law 20. Pamphlet Law 20 is a law passed to authorize and empower any railroad corporation of this Commonwealth," and has nothing to do with police and firemen. Also on page 2 it states that the reports shall be made to the City Recorder. There is no City Recorder in the City of Pittsburgh, and in view of this fact this bill should be recommitted to the Committee on Cities for amendment.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Cities for the purpose of proper amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARRAF. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, what is the procedure now in second class cities for the removal and dismissal of policemen?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, the removal and dismissal of policemen and firemen is done by the act of 1933, an amendment to the Act of 1931 and it is done,—if the gentleman wishes me to explain,—by placing twenty-five names of men of the same or higher rank, and from this group seven are picked, and from the seven the director and an officer of the same rank as the indivual tried removes four names leaving three. Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. TURNER. They act as a board, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SARRAF. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Under the provisions of this bill, Mr. Speaker, how will men be tried in the fire department of second class cities?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, men of the same rank or higher will be picked by the director to try the individual.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman certain that under this bill it will be men of equal rank or higher?

Mr. SARRAF. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, why should it be changed from a choice of drawing names at random from twenty-five names selected, to the choice of the director?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I feel that there is the possibility of picking the individual himself or three of the same rank may be arrived at from this drawing method.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not feel that it is fair to a man who is to be tried, that he be tried by a group selected, which would certainly be an impartial selection, rather than have a group drawn by the director of public safety?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, it may appear fairer that a group drawn may be better to try an individual, but then again I do not believe a fair disposition of the case can be arrived at by people of the same grouping and rank as that individual, and I do not feel that this drawing is correct or justifiable as a course to be followed in trying the individual.

Mr. TURNER. Why the change, Mr. Speaker? Why the necessity for the change?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, this bill applies to Pittsburgh and we feel the utmost confidence in our mayor and our director, and we feel that there would be no abnormal or irregular trial if left to the discretion of the director and he chose men of the same rank or higher.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, might not the director himself be the man who is bringing the charges?

Mr. SARRAF. That may be possible, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, if placed in his hands he would be both the prosecutor and the man who selects the jury.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, that could be, but under this act we are only repealing one section. The trial board can be had otherwise.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that is not my understanding of the act. My only interest in this bill is that some of the men affected have the feeling that this bill would work a hardship upon them. As the Doctor has said, under the present situation the names are drawn and therefore out of twenty-five names is a selection, and there is rather a chance that there will be no pressure brought nor any unfairness in the selection of the names. The change over to the director himself, as indicated in my question, gives opportunity on the part of the director to be both the judge and jury. This again smells to me like a ripper, and will not work to the best interests of the men in the department.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARRAF. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny whether or not the present amendment calls for a specified number of persons on the trial board?

Mr. SARRAF. It does not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible then for the director to have one man tried by a board of five and another by a board of three and still another by a board of seven?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, it may.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether the bill as amended states definitely how many persons of equal rank and how many persons of higher rank are to be placed on the board?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, the bill as amended does not, but then in the old bill and in the amendment of 1933 the same lines and the same conditions are in the act.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, how does the bill of 1933 read, having in mind the amendment offered in the present bill?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, the names of men of the same rank and higher are placed into a sort of box and picked. It says "Men of the same rank or higher."

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, does the act as amended say how many men of the same rank shall be on the board or how many of higher rank?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I believe I have answered that question, that it does not but then we leave that to the discretion of a director in whom we have the utmost confidence, and a Mayor in whom we have the utmost confidence.

Mr. LOPRESTI. In other words, Mr. Speaker, I understand that the Director of Public Safety is at liberty to try a man with an entire board of men of higher rank than himself, if he so desires?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, in answer to this question, this trial system has been in effect since 1931, and as amended in 1933. It is in effect in Philadelphia and it has been in effect and has been operating very nicely during that entire time in our city.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Will the gentleman answer the question as to whether it would be possible for the director to try patrolmen by a board of lieutenants or captains of higher rank if the Director of Public Safety chose so to do?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, the act and the amendment are identical with the wording of the act of 1931 and the amendment of 1933: "Men of the same rank or higher."

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has not answered the question. I desire to repeat the question: Is it possible under this act for a patrolman to be tried by men of equal rank or by a board composed of members all of a higher rank?

Mr. SARRAF. Yes, Mr. Speaker, it is possible.

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1255, as follows:

An Act to provide for the issuance and acceptance of certificates from duly licensed optometrists whenever such certificates may now or hereafter be required as to powers of visions by any law of the Commonwealth and repealing all acts or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That any optometrist duly licensed by the Board of Optometrical Examiners to practice optometry is hereby authorized to issue certificates evidencing powers of vision as may be required by any law

Section 2 Whenever a certificate evidencing powers of vision is required by any law of the Commonwealth a certificate of an optometrist duly licensed to practice optometry by the Board of Optometrical Examiners of the State of Pennsylvania shall be accepted by all persons having to do with powers of vision provided for by any law of the Commonwealth

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this bill for one reason. On page 2 of Section 2 the word "shall" is in this bill. "Shall", of course, as the membership of this House knows, is a mandatory word and it means that the certification issued by an optometrist must be accepted by the recipient, and on that basis I wish to oppose this bill.

Mr. SHEA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I object to this bill, first of all because we passed a bill recently that met all the shortcomings of the optometrist profession. This bill is asking for the privilege of enabling them to give certificates regarding vision. To do such would first of all require the use of drugs in the eyes. No real vision measurement can be determined without the use of drugs. That was entirely eliminated from the bill that was recently passed. Further, this bill is going to confuse the Compensation Board; it is going to cause a rush of certificates into the Compensation Board regarding injuries to the eyes. In my opinion, Mr. Speaker, it is going to lead to confusion. It is going to be detrimental to the proper treatment of the eyes; it is going to require the use of drugs. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill be defeated.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARRAF. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf, whether or not at his request amendments to this bill were drawn and were offered by him on the floor of this House on second reading?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, amendments which I asked for were prepared and submitted to this House, with the exception of the removal of the word "shall" and the replacement of the same with the word "may".

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman say that the sponsor of this bill refused to allow him to amend the bill by changing the word "shall" to "may"?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I do not know whether the sponsor refused to do so, but so far in the bill he has not done so.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not have to elaborate any further on the interrogation just made, other than to say that the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny were the amendments which he asked for and which were permitted to go in without any objection, because in the estimation of the sponsor of the bill it is exactly what the medical profession wanted in the bill. In answer to that great colleague of mine, Dr. Shea, may I say this, that on the question of the Compensation Board I might point out that I took this question up with the Compensation Board, and the gentlemen who are very much interested in compensation legislation there are quite agreeable to an amendment which will be put in by the Senate. As the membership probably knows, a certificate to say how much vision a man has cannot be offered as legal evidence before any compensation board. The rules of evidence that we have in our law courts absolutely forbid any such certificate, the same as an affidavit of a doctor or a stock broker being offered or accepted by any compensation referee as legal evidence. I believe, Mr. Speaker, that all valid objections have been removed; all useful amendments by the labor group have been accepted in the Senate. I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, I hesitate to arise to oppose this bill because of the respect which I have for its sponsor, the gentleman from Berks County. I am sure that he is very sincere in offering this bill. He contacted me a few nights ago, and I am satisfied if he understood the implications of this bill he would not be back of it. Under those circumstances I am very sorry to oppose him because I feel that he is sincere and wishes to do that which is right. In the two terms that I have been in this Legislature I cannot think of a bill which is so small and so innocent appearing to the casual observer as this bill and yet so fallacious.

Ladies and gentleman of this House, if you give the optometrists the privilege which they request in this bill, I care not how it is amended, it will be a fallacious thing. I have had a great deal of experience, as have other members of this House, in compensation and court cases and I submit to you that this bill will just muddy the water, and as many of you members know, and I know too well how difficult it is to get fair treatment, and fair play for the men or women who are injured in industry, whose eyes are injured, and many of them blinded.

Certainly I do not intend to go into this thoroughly with the members of this House after what you experienced a few weeks ago, in which you saw the corridors of this House crowded with those who could not see, people blinded for life, and I submit to you ladies and gentleman, under those circumstances with the vast industries that we have in Pennsylvania if you give to people inadequately prepared the privilege of practicing on the human eye, the privilege of going before compensation boards, the privilege of going into court and testifying, you are going to do one of the greatest injustices to the great group of labor that we have in this State that can possibly be imagined.
